MSGR. CARR MADE DOMESTIC PRELATE

Graduated in Andover High School in Class of 1896. Has Rapidly Risen to Eminence.

Upon Bishop Turner's return from Rome last Friday, he notified Msgr. Carr of his appointment as a Domestic Prelate. This news will be most welcome to the Prelate's many Andover friends.

Monsignor Carr was born on Dryden Hill, Greenwood, N. Y., was baptized, received his First Communion and was confirmed at St. Mary's Church, Rexville, N. Y., and belonged to that congregation thruout his boyhood.

He attended the district school which was located near the Carr homestead. In 1892, after the close of the district school, he pursued his studies a few months in the Greenwood High School. In September of that year he entered the Andover High School from which he graduated in June, 1896. The following September, he entered Canisius College in Buffalo, graduating with a B.A. degree in June, 1901. In September of that year, he took up his course of theology at St. Bernard's Seminary and was ordained to the priesthood by the late Most Reverend Bernard McQuade, D.D., at that time Bishop of Rochester.

Monsignor was first appointed as assistant in St. Nicholas parish, Buffalo, N. Y., and later in the same year, was transferred to the Annunciation parish, Buffalo, N. Y. In 1897, he was appointed pastor at St. Patrick's church, Fillmore, N. Y. In 1909, he was made pastor of St. John the Baptist church, Boston, N. Y. In 1912 he was appointed by the late Most Reverend Charles Colton, to organize the parish of St. Francis de Sales in the part of the city known as the Hamlin Park District.

His first work here was to build a combination church and school. In 1926, he undertook the erection of one of the outstanding Byzantine church structures of the country. The church was dedicated in May, 1929. He is still pastor of St. Francis de Sales parish.

In 1919, Bishop Turner appointed him as Director of Charities for the Diocese of Buffalo, and for 15 years he was active in organization and co-ordinating a system of charities for the diocese. In 1925, the Most Reverend Bishop found it necessary to organize a Financial Campaign to care for the deficit of more than 20 charitable units of the diocese and Monsignor Carr was assigned to develop this organization. In ten diocesan appeals, under his direction, the Catholic Charities raised approximately five millions of dollars. He resigned as director of charities in January, 1934, but is still a member of the board of chairmen of the financial committee. His work as head of the Diocesan Charities brought him in touch with the welfare movements, not only of the city and diocese, but of the State and Nation.

Monsignor Carr has been, for many years, a member of the Board of Directors of the National Conference of Catholic Charities; is a past president of the New York State Conference of Social Work; at present, president of the Council of Social Agencies for the Eighth Judicial District, and Vice President of the Council of Social Agencies of Buffalo and Erie county, also vice president of the Rotary Club of Buffalo. He has been and still is a member of many advisory committees for social work, schools, and social work projects, both public and private. His activities during the past 15 years have brought him in contact with the leaders in social work in State and Nation, and particularly with those who are working in public and private agencies of the eight counties of Western New York.

Monsignor Carr's many friends rejoice in the dignity that has been bestowed upon him by the Holy Father in creating him a Domestic Prelate.

The Andover girls' softball team will play the Hornell girls this Friday evening, at 6 o'clock, in connection with the carnival at the athletic field. The Hornell girls are old rivals of the locals, but with a new line-up this year the Andover lassies expect to trim the out-of-town team.

Horse Pulling Contest

A horse-pulling contest is to be a new feature at the Angelica Fair in August, with some $200 to be distributed in prizes. There will be two classes, light animals under 1,600 pounds each, and heavy draft horses over that weight.

Commencement This Week

The past week has been one given over to our school activities, commencement week. There were 26 pupils who completed their high school work with the graduation of the Class of 1934. This is the largest graduation class in the history of Andover High School.

For the full details of the Commencement week we ask our readers to turn to the Hi-Herald section of today's News, where you will find the various activities fully covered by the versatile editor, Miss Mary Monica Lynch, who is one of the Seniors of 1934. Miss Lynch is deserving of much praise for the manner she has edited the Hi-Herald the past six months. It has taken much time and care and she has done it well, without interfering with her work as a senior. She should receive the hearty thanks of the faculty, school and Andover people for her fine work.

Another record has also been broken this year by Miss Ruth E. Walton, when she rolled up an average for the four years of 94.19. This is the highest average yet attained by a pupil in Andover school. Miss Florence Mulholland was second with an average of 83.71.

BOY SCOUTS WILL RENEW CHARTER

Andover Troop 42 Close a Successful Year. Solicit Funds to Continue Scout Activities Another Year.

The Andover Boy Scout, Troop No. 42, has closed its first successful year's work in Andover. There are 17 fully equipped, uniformed members, who have completed their "tenderfoot" year and are eligible for and will soon take their examination for second class Scout at Allegany State Park.

In order to continue their troop it is necessary for them to secure their charter for another year. That is going to cost money. Scouts will distribute cards thru the village for the purpose of receiving pledges for contributions. A committee is to follow Thursday and Friday to collect the pledges and the amount you wish to contribute to the cause.

Nineteen Scouts have registered for the coming year. Let's give the boys a break and help them secure funds for the renewal of their charter, which is necessary for them to be recognized by the National Boy Scout organization.

There is no better training for our boys than membership in the Boy Scouts. They will be here to help you in many ways, and help themselves to a better manhood with a little financial assistance from us.

ADVERTISE TO GAIN MILK CONSUMPTION

State Will Help Dairymen Get Market for More Milk —But Farmers Pay Advertising Bill.

New York, June 26.—Newspaper advertising principally will be relied upon by the State of New York to put over its half-million dollar milk promotion campaign, authorized by the Legislature and now being launched by the Department of Agriculture and Markets under direction of Commissioner Charles H. Baldwin. Both city and agricultural publications will be utilized.

The purpose of the advertising campaign, according to the Commissioner is to increase consumption of fluid or bottled milk and cream, and thereby solve the problem of surplus which has beset this, the most vital industry in New York State. The fund for the campaign is to be raised by a tax of one cent the hundred pounds of milk (about 47 quarts) or its equivalent in cream produced and sold within the state. The tax will be shared by the producers and distributors.

From Albany Commissioner Baldwin announced that the firm of N. W. Ayer & Son, Inc., here will direct the advertising and promotion, the selection of that agency having been by unanimous approval of the Technical Advisory Board.

"This action," Mr. Baldwin said, "is a new venture in government; but it is a constructive approach to a problem that has baffled our people for a long time. It marks a noteworthy effort on the part of the State of New York in that thru this forward-looking legislation the tools of modern commercial success are being employed in a movement here editting all the people of the state. With the power of advertising and experienced promotion behind the purpose we are hopeful for its success which will mean financial benefits to our farmers and improved health for all our citizens."

NEIL S. SULLIVAN FOR COMMANDER

Allegany County Legion Is Promoting the Candidacy of the Bolivar Man to Head State Organization.

Allegany County's more than 400 American Legion members are enthusiastically aiding in promoting the candidacy of Neil S. Sulivan of Bolivar who has announced himself as seeking election as state department commander of that organization at the August 30-September 1 convention in Buffalo.

Sullivan's rise in Legion circles has been consistent and steady. He is a former commander of Kenyon Andrus Post, No. 772, in his home village. In 1932 he was chosen county commander and one year later chairman of the eighth district which comprizes eight Western New York counties including Erie. He is now serving as one of three vice commanders of the state and as such is a member of the state executive committee. It was at a recent meeting of that committee at Tupper Lake that Sullivan decided to enter the race as head of the state organization. Leaders say he has assurances of support from many Northern, Central and Western New York leaders, posts and county organizations.

At last week's meeting of the Allegany County American Legion at Bolivar Sullivan was enthusiastically endorsed by the World War veterans and they immediately began planning to aid in every way possible in his selection.

A committee was named for that purpose headed by Dr. Ivan G. Howe, county welfare commissioner and a former county Legion commander. Other members are District Attorney Ward M. Hopkins and Robert D. Frazier, both of Cuba and Frederick Walchli of Wellsville. The committee expects to meet in Bolivar, Friday evening, to formulate plans to bring the coveted honor to Allegany county which has always stood high in state Legion affairs.

Opposing candidates in Kings and New York counties have the advantage of large delegations of delegates from their populous districts.

Sullivan is well known over the county in both Legion circle and in the oil industry. He is secretary of the Allegany Refiners, Inc., a strong organization of producers in the Allegany field, which recently built and began operation of a modern crude oil refinery in Bolivar.

That all interests of the county will do all possible to see one of its sons elevated to the high position in Legion circles which Sullivan seeks goes without saying.

Another Belmont Bridge Arrest

Highway authorities seem determined bridge overloading shall end.

A second chapter in the controversy between heavy truck owners and the state over use of posted structures by heavier loads than are allowed was started June 20th when Claude E. Parks of Jasper, driver for Charles A. Whiteman, same place, drove a truck and load of feed totaling more than 15 tons across the repaired Genesee river bridge. The bridge is posted for but eight tons. Parks was arrested by Corporal E. F. Hoyt of Friendship and was taken before Police Justice F. D. Welch on a charge of traffic infraction, overloading a posted bridge.

Parks pled not guilty, deposited $25 as bail and a hearing will be held June 28, at 1 p. m.

Thus far no appeal action has been taken on behalf of Phillip Lucci, Buffalo truck driver who paid a $50 fine June 15th for the same violation.

Thorne Smith, Author, Dies

Thorne Smith, of New York, author of widely known novels, died of a heart attack at Sarasota, Fla., June 21st. He with Mrs. Smith and their two daughters were visiting there.

Mr. Smith was known in Andover by many. He married Miss Celia Sullivan of New York, who is a warm personal friend of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Potter, having visited Andover many times as a child and young woman, Mr. and Mrs. Smith passed a part of their honeymoon as guests of the Potters.

His first success as a writer was "Topper Takes a Trip," which caused many of his later books to be of the best-seller variety. It is a highly imaginative piece of writing. Thorne Smith humorous books followed in quick succession, with ever mounting sales. They included "Turnabout," "The Night Life of the Gods," "The Stray Lamb," "Did She Fall," "The Bishop's Jaegers," "Rain in the Doorway" and "Skin and Bones."

Less than a month ago, Mr. Smith wrote to his publishers, Doubleday, Doran, Inc., that he was acquiring "the color of a burnt crow" and submitted the manuscript of his last book which is to be published this fall under the tital "The Glorious Fool."

25 YEARS OF MARRIED LIFE

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Crandall Celebrated Their Silver Wedding Anniversary June 24th.

Sunday evening, June 24th, about 45 of the relatives and friends of Milford and Euphemia Crandall gathered at their pleasant farm home to help them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

The idea and plans for the celebration originated in the minds and hearts of the young people of the household, aided and abetted by Prof. Burton Crandall, nephew and Miss Elrene Crandall, sister of the groom.

After a delightful social time and the serving of delicious light refreshments, a hush fell over the company as the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march fell upon the air, played by the skillful fingers of Philip, youngest son of the happy couple. Pastor Greene stepped forward as the wedding party approached the double doorway between the two parlors. Milford was attended by the eldest son, Edward, and Euphemia by the daughter, Maxine. The bride was given away by her brother, Edward V. Greene.

The bride was becomingly dressed in white and on her head in place of a wedding veil was gracefully draped a beautiful scarf of antique lace.

An impressive ring service followed in which they renewed their vows for many more years of happy married life.

A case of handsome silverware from the household and a purse of money from the assembled guests were handed the bride as the party broke up.

Father Rengel Honored

The Very Rev. Edward J. Rengel, V.F., pastor of St. Mary of the Angels church in Olean has been appointed a Monsignor.

The appointment, made by His Excellency Pope Pius XI., was made known to Father Rengel by the Right Rev. Bishop William Turner of the Buffalo diocese, who returned recently with the Right Rev. Monsignor Edward J. Britt from a European trip which included Rome and an audience with the Pope.

Father Rengel, observing his 40th anniversary as a priest, was appointed a Dean several years ago.

Cupid Loves June

"June is the month for brides," is an old saying which holds good and June 29th seems a favorite date for Andover marriages as the News has learned recently, with records of at least seven couples in the village whose wedding anniversary occurs on that date.

They are: Postmaster and Mrs. James D. Cheesman, Mr. and Mrs. James Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harder, Prof. and Mrs. Robert B. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schwarzenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jensen. Of these, three of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Harder, Prof. and Mrs. Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. Jenson were married June 29, 1929.

ANDOVER LOSES ANOTHER GAME

It Took Eleven Innings For the Strong Ceres Team to Wrench Victory From the Locals.

Again Andover baseball team tasted defeat in the game played at the local ball field Sunday afternoon, when the strong Ceres team defeated Andover with a 6-8 score in an eleven inning game.

Andover held the lead of one score up to the ninth inning. There was a man on first. The batter hit an outfield fly and it bounded out of the fielder's mitt and a tie score made by Ceres. This necessitated the playing off three more innings before Ceres put across the winning score.
