

To the Addresser:
To Tax Payers.
The Taxation, as levied upon the State of New York by the Republican Legislature of 1863, as compared with that levied by the Democratic Legislature of 1871.

The Steuben Farmer's Advocate, the leading Democratic organ of this country, in its issue of last week, came out in a bold announcement under the words "WHAT A DEMOCRATIC LEGISLATURE HAS DONE," and making the following statements among others:

"A reduction in the Supply Bill of from $750,000 to $500,000."

"A reduction in the Charity Bill of $750,000."

Now, of course, facts are stubborn things to confute, and we do not propose to claim anything which we cannot substantiate by proof—which will be found in the published Statutes of the State, and this we claim the Editor of the Advocate cannot do, therefore we say further, what he states is not true in any respect, as regards the Supply and Charity bills of 1871.

In the first place, the Advocate claims as one of the reasons why the Democratic party should be appreciated and kept in power by the people, is that they have lessened their burden by "reducing the Supply bill from $750,000 to $500,000."

As an answer to this, we refer our readers, and the Advocate particularly, to Chapter 622 of the Laws of 1863—this was a Republican Legislature—and there they will find it is the Supply Bill foots up $2,179,814, and then turns to Chapter 715, of the Laws of 1871—under a Democratic Legislature—and the Supply Bill turns up to $3,505,408, which instead of being the decrease claimed by the Advocate, is an actual increase of ONE MILLION, THREE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND, FIVE HUNDRED AND NINETY-FOUR DOLLARS!

How does this kind of Democratic economy suit the people? Do they want any more such?

Then look at this.

The Advocate claims a reduction in the Charity Bill of $750,000."

We again refer the Editor of the Advocate to Chapter 857, of the Laws of 1863, and there he will find that the Charity Bill, as passed by a Republican Legislature amounted to $563,

600, while that passed by the Democratic Legislature in 1871, amounted to $993,000, which instead of being a decrease, is an actual increase of FOUR HUNDRED AND TWENTYNINE THOUSAND, THREE HUNDRED AND NINETY-TWO DOLLARS, making there two bills alone, under Democratic rule, an increase of which must be paid directly by the people in the shape of taxation.

Remember! A Republican Legislature gave you in these two bills a tax of $2,743,429, while the Democratic Legislature of 1871, made these two bills alone reach the enormous sum of $4,408,408.

Only a Laborer.

"The cars ran off the track to day," Miss J.—said to me, not long since.

"Indeed! was anyone injured?" I asked.

"Yes, one man killed; but he was only a laborer."

"Only a laborer! was he not an honest man?"

"I believe so. Indeed, I heard that he was highly respected by his friends and employers."

"Has he a family?"

"Yes, a wife and two children. But why do you ask? He was only a laborer."

"Only a laborer! was he any the worse for that?"

"Fellow! you are giddy, and I will look for better company, said she, and flinging back the bright curls that had fallen over her face, she glided from the room.

"Only a laborer! I pondered, when she was gone. "Only a laborer," and yet the death has made me unhappy despite. A young widow sits with clasped hands and stony eyes, gazing out upon nothing, nor heeding that it is growing cold within, while little ones, with patterning feet, run often to the window to look for one who will never come.

"Only a laborer! Did the angels, when I ear weary souls home, while they carried him away, pause outside the gates of Heaven and say, 'We can not take him in, for he was only a laborer?'
