OVERWHELMING APPROVAL OF THE "NEW DEAL"

LEHMAN SWEEPS N. Y.

Dr. F. E. McCarty Makes Wonderful Run for the Assembly in Allegany County.

Washington, Nov. 7.—A smashing victory has been won by the New Deal thruout the length and breadth of the United States.

Every out-and-out critic of the New Deal who occupied a key position in Congress has been swept out of office by the Tuesday balloting.

Only such Republicans, who subscribed at least in part to the New Deal, whether running for United States Senator or Governor of the state, seemed able to weather the political hurricane.

As a result, the Democratic administration headed by Franklin D. Roosevelt will control the American Congress of the next two years by a greater majority than any political party ever has controlled it since Civil War times.

Democrats Gain Senate

With a gain of nine Democratic seats certain in the states of Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Indiana, Maryland, Missouri, New Jersey, Ohio and West Virginia, the Democrats will control the United States Senate by more than a two-thirds majority and present indications are that they will hold the next House of Representatives by a three-fourths majority.

The Democrats may make a net gain of eleven seats in the Senate if the final returns add Michigan and New Mexico to the nine counted as safe for the Democrats this morning. Apparently the Democrats have not lost a single Senate seat they now hold. Even Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming, whom the Republicans felt certain of defeating, was running ahead of Vincent Carter, Republican.

Veteran Republicans Lose

Such Republican political warhorses as senators David A. Reed, Pennsylvania; Simeon D. Fess, Ohio; Frederic C. Walcott, Connecticut; Felix Hebert, Rhode Island; Arthur R. Robinson, Indiana; Roscoe C. Patterson, Missouri; Hamilton F. Keane, New Jersey, and former Senator Joseph I. France, Maryland have been defeated, while their Republican colleagues, Senators Arthur H. Vandeberg, Michigan and Bronson Cutting, New Mexico, await anxiously the final results in their state.

There are 96 Democratic senators today, 35 Republicans and one Farmer-Laborite. In the new Congress, which meets in January, there are certain to be at least 69 Democrats, and perhaps 71, out of a total membership of 96. Nothing approximating that majority has been reached by either political party since the reconstruction days following the Civil War, altho in the last two years of Theodore Roosevelt's administration, as President, the Republicans had 65 to 29 Democrats.

House Strongly Democratic

It will be physically impossible to accommodate all of the Democratic senators on the Democratic side of the aisle in the Senate chamber, so a "Cherokee strip" of newly-elected Democrats undoubtedly will be established on the Republican side. However, that will not affect in any way the decisive factor of how they are recorded on the roll calls.

In the House of Representatives, the Democrats have nearly a three-to-one voting strength over the Republicans today, the exact number being 308 to 113, but instead of losing strength in that body, as even the Democrats expected, the Democrats may gain a few seats there when the final computations are made.

No one can deny that the voting thruout the country Tuesday was an astounding indorsement of the New Deal. No analysis can be made that does not bring that conclusion. State voting as well as national voting was along the same definite lines.

Dr. McCarty Makes Great Run

Dr. F. E. McCarty of Wellsville, Democratic standard bearer for the Assembly post from Allegany county, conceded the re-election of his three-time Republican opponent, H. E. Goodrich of Richburg.

Despite a majority of 869 in his own home town, the Wellsville doctor was unable to hold his lead in the outlying rural districts, which gave his opponent a majority of approximately 1,600 votes. The total vote cast was much lower than last year.

Marks found on relics of ancient Rome indicate that the manufacturers of that day used a system of trade-marks.

GOV. HERBERT H. LEHMAN

LEHMAN LEADS TO EPIC VICTORY

Democrats Win New York Legislature for First Time in 21 Years. Assuring Broad Social Program.

Albany, Nov. 7.—A New York Democratic landslide re-elected Governor Lehman overwhelmingly today, gave the party control of the Legislature for the first time in 21 years and thundered favorable sentiment for the New Deal in President Roosevelt's home state.

The smashing victory carried the entire Democratic state ticket and United States Senator Royal S. Copeland to re-election over Republican opponents, and gave the Democrats complete control of the state.

With 562 of the state's 8,947 districts unreported, the vote for governor was:

Lehman, D.	2,199,189
Robert Moses, R.	1,363,062
John J. Hylan, Recovery	10,339

Increases Senate Majority

An amazing avalanche of Democratic votes, which swept aside normal Republican pluralities in some upstate areas, permitted the party to increase its majority in the state Senate and wrest control of the Assembly from the G.O.P.

Returns from 7,691 districts for Senator gave:

Copeland, D.	1,951,030
E. Harold Cluett, R	1,219,751

Altho the vote was incomplete, it established an off year record. The previous record was set in 1930 with 3,133,923 votes.

Despite the landslide, Mrs. Rhoda Fox Graves of Ogdensburg (Rep.) became the first woman state senator when she defeated John L. O'Connor (Dem.), also of Ogdensburg, by a comfortable margin.

Mrs. O'Day Wins Handily

The tidal wave carried Mrs. Caroline O'Day, Democratic candidate for congressman-at-large, to a comfortable victory. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt waged a strenuous campaign in Mrs. O'Day's behalf, drawing bitter Republican criticism. Mrs. O'Day defeated Miss Natalie Couch.

LIBRARY NEWS

OBSERVANCE OF BOOK WEEK

The chief objective of Book Week is to kindle and renew interest in purposeful and pleasurable reading. Show the community what is being done in our free library and the many interesting books it contains.

"Ride the Book Trail to Knowledge and Adventure" is the theme this year. Learn the hobbies of your associates and the importance of initiative.

"Whatever hobby horse a child chooses to ride, whatever trail of information he wants to pursue, books are altogether essential and delightful companions along the way."—Wilson Bulletin.

The dates of this 16th observance of Book Week are November 11th to 17th.

I wandered lonely thru the stacks,
While searching for a book,
So vainly did I look,
Then came a teacher to us one day
Who taught us how to know
That books were shelved a certain way,
And in a certain row.
Now when we'd finished with the work,
To the library I did flee,
For then no secrets there did lurk
To keep the books from me.

DEMOCRATS WIN IN PENNSYLVANIA

Guffey Has Defeated Senator Reed as Democrats Carry State First Time in 60 Years.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Champions of the Democratic New Deal were victorious in the most sensational upset in Pennsylvania political history.

As final returns trickled in today, Joseph F. Guffey, Democrat, increased his lead to more than 107,000 over Senator David A. Reed, Republican.

Mr. Guffey is the first Democratic senator elected in this state in 60 years.

Senator Reed, uncompromising critic of Roosevelt policies, lost a slender lead to Guffey before midnight, and the Pittsburgh oil man who calls the President "God's inspired servant," forged ahead steadily from that point.

Returns from 7,301 districts of 7,957 gave:

Guffey, D.	1,405,360
Reed, R.	1,297,780

The trend toward Mr. Guffey carried George H. Earle, Democratic candidate for governor, into the lead over William A. Schnader, attorney general in the Pinchot cabinet.

Candidates for lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs and Superior Court ran abreast of Mr. Earle. Latest returns in the gubernatorial race gave:

Earle, D	1,386,512
Schnader, R	1,337,089

Mr. Earle said in a statement that he regarded "this victory for the Democratic ticket as a victory for President Roosevelt and as an endorsement of the humane and progressive recovery program of our great President."

Pennsylvania has not had a Democratic governor since Robert E. Pattison of Philadelphia was elected to his second term 60 years ago.

Mrs. Michael Folsing

Mrs. Michael Folsing passed from life at the family home on Greenwood street this village, Saturday evening, Nov. 3, 1934, after an illness of several months, resulting from a fall sustained in her home.

Anna Will Folsing was born Nov. 9, 1869 in Germany and came to America at the age of 19 years. She had lived the greater part of her life in Andover where she has been held in the highest esteem, having lived up to the highest ideals of a Christian motherhood.

The Folsing home has been noted for its hospitality and for years has been a temporary home to many young ladies who have come to Andover as instructors in our high school, to them her tender motherly love has been extended and the years have widened this area of friendships, to whom the kindness of "Mother Folsing" will always be held in tender memory.

Mrs. Folsing was a loyal and active member of the Presbyterian church and its associated societies.

Besides her husband, Michael Folsing, she leaves five daughters, Mrs. Raymon Terry, Elmira, N. Y.; Miss Elizabeth Folsing, R.N., Manhasset, L. I.; and the Misses Emma, Helen Louise and Margaret Folsing of Andover, a son Norman having passed to the beyond a few years ago.

To the family the News joins with many friends in sympathy.

Farewell services were held from the home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Walter L. Greene of Andover, officiating.

Interment was in Hillside cemetery.

Infant Dies

A little son was born Monday, November 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones, corner of Pleasant and East avenues. The little one passed away Wednesday and was buried in Hillside cemetery Thursday afternoon.

Bolivar Oil Lease Sold to Buffalo Firm

L. A. Wilson of Bolivar has sold his oil lease on the Pike farm, town of Alma, to the Otsquoga Corporation of Buffalo at a private consideration. This is one of the largest oil transactions in the Allegany field in several years.

The least comprises 235 acres leased at one-eighth royalty, 36 oil wells and the usual lease equipment.

The new owners will drill additional wells.

COURT UPHOLDS MILK LAW

Appellate Division in New York Upholds Law. United States Supreme Court Considers Two Suits.

Important interpretations of the Milk Control Law are expected in three court actions within a week, according to the Division of Milk Control. The Appellate Division, in a unanimous decision rendered November 2nd, upheld the denial of a license to Muller Dairies, Inc. The company contended that when resale prices in New York City were removed from January 30 to April 8, it did not have to pay the established prices to producers. The decision ordering the payment of nearly $20,000 withheld during that period, reverses the decision in the Dellwood-Rosasco case in a lower court. The opinion of the court, according to the Division, gives the strongest support to the law of any decision since the Nebbia case in the United States Supreme Court.

The Borden case, involving the legality of the advertised and unadvertised brand differential in New York City was heard by the United States Supreme Court on November 5th. It was expected that a decision on the Hegeman Farms case, heard by the United States Supreme Court on October 8th, would be handed down on November 5th. The Hegeman case involves underpayments of about $23,000 made in early fall of 1933, and the principle of whether or not established prices to producers can be maintained.

The Milk Control Law was upheld by the Appellate Division, Third Department, November 2nd, in an action involving the denial of a license to Mayflower Farms, Brooklyn. The Mayflower Farms contended that the company, organized after the original Milk Control Law was in effect, could sell at the unadvertised brand price. The corporation followed that practice, altho the law states that "new dealers" should sell at the advertised brand price or one cent a quart more than the unadvertised price. The corporation's application for a license was denied July 9, 1934.

John Lynch

John Lynch, son of Martin Lynch and Cecelia Doran, was born in this place March 1, 1867, and passed from life Nov. 3, 1934 in New York City, a victim of monoxide gas poisoning.

The early years of his life were spent in Alfred at the farm home of his parents, later moving to New York City where he was employed.

His funeral took place Nov. 5, 1934 at 9:30 o'clock from Blessed Sacrament church, the Rev. Herman Gerlach officiating. Burial in Gate of Heaven cemetery.

Mr. Lynch, a brother of M. J. Lynch, Mrs. F. W. Smith and Mrs. M. E. Gavin of Andover, and of Miss Mary Lynch of Wellsville.

William Sheehan

William Sheehan, lifelong resident of Trapping Brook, died Wednesday, October 31st.

Mr. Sheehan was born on Trapping Brook road, near Andover on August 6th, 1869, a son of Thomas and Nora Murphy Sheehan. He had never married. Deceased is survived by the following brothers: John Sheehan, Puxatawney, Pa.; Thomas Sheehan, Buffalo; Daniel Sheehan, Wellsville and Laurence Sheehan, Bradford, Pa.

Funeral services were conducted from the Immaculate Conception church and burial in Sacred Heart cemetery, Wellsville.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our appreciation to the many friends for words of sympathy and kindly deeds in our time of sorrow.

Michael Folsing and family.

Deer Hunters Return

Three hunting parties who have been in the Adirondacks the past week have all returned.

Carl Honegger, Fred Hammell and Clifford Earley in one party; Lyle Mulconery and Howard Green in another and Charles Gleason and Harold Lehman in a third.

MILK AND FEED PRICES UNBALANCED

Dr. Ladd, Dean of Cornell Agricultural School, Says Spread Is Greater Now Than Ever Before.

Heavy financial losses to dairymen and a threat to the stability of the city milk supply is seen in the rising spread between milk and feed prices by Dr. C. E. Ladd, dean of the New York State colleges of agriculture and home economics.

The relation between the cost of feed and the price of milk to producers is now the most unsatisfactory in ten years, he asserts. Each month the college of agriculture computes the number of pounds of milk required to buy 100 pounds of feed in the New York milk shed. The average, during the past five years, was about 71 pounds of milk to purchase 100 pounds of feed.

During the past 13 years, 72 pounds of milk, on the average, bought 100 pounds of feed, Dr. Ladd says, adding that this relationship is probably a fairly satisfactory one between milk and feed prices.

"During the past summer, however, more than 90 pounds of milk were required to buy 100 pounds of feed. In September this mounted to 107 pounds of milk needed to pay for 100 pounds of feed.

"This means," Dr. Ladd says, "that the cost of feed in terms of pounds of milk, is 50 percent higher than the average for the past 13 years."

Brown — Smith

Miss Helen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Smith and Fay Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brown, were united in marriage at 12 o'clock noon on Sunday, Nov. 4, 1934, at the parochial residence of Andover, the Reverend Gerlach performing the ceremony.

The bride was charming in an ensemble of hunter's green with matching accessories. She was attended by her sister, Miss Edna Smith who was attired in brown. Robert Smith brother of the bride, acted as best man.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents on Maple street, to the immediate families, the tables being attractive in yellow and white. After the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for Addison where they will make their home.

Special Services at Baptist Church Sunday

Albert Davies Rines, Canadian gospel singer and preacher, one of the foremost gospel singers in the country today, and a strong and convincing speaker will speak and sing at all services in the First Baptist church here Sunday, November 11, including the Sunday School at which service he will illustrate the message with colored crayon sketch, drawn while he talks.

The service at 7:30 p. m. will be of an unusual character. He will present a song sermon, the subject being, "A Garden of Sweet P's."

The public is cordially invited to avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this charming singer.
