ARMISTICE DAY

J. Millspaugh

Monday, November 12, we celebrate Armistice Day. As we all know, the treaty of peace, following the World War, was signed 16 years ago. This took place at Versailles, in France, November 11th at 11 o'clock a. m.—the eleventh month, eleventh day and the eleventh hour. The number eleven must have reached its height of popularity at this time!

This day is now rated as a state holiday. Therefore, we A. H. S. students may relax on Monday. Seriously, tho, no matter where we shall happen to be on Monday, let's try to remember that at 11 o'clock the Armistice was signed.

Let's give at least two minutes of our time to stand with our heads bowed in memory of our soldier boys who fought so bravely in that never-to-be-forgotten war. This holds true for all of us. We should make it our duty to see that we do this little act of reverence.

STUDY

There are only eight pupils in Andover High School who have been excused every afternoon at 3:30 since school began. This list includes the names: Bernice Williams and Ruth Slocum, post graduates and Jack Regan, Senior; Dorothy Nobles, Junior; Hilda Clark, Susan O'Donnell, Sophomores; Doris Hongger, Freshmen and Barbara Bassett, eighth grade.

These pupils should be praised for their effort and skill in being able to obtain and keep the average of 80 per cent or more. The list is exceedingly small when we consider the number of people who might achieve that goal.

It is too late to accomplish this feat in the first quarter of the school year, for the first ten weeks of school will be completed on Friday, Nov. 9. However, there are 30 weeks of school ahead of us! Get busy and bring your average up to the 80 per cent point so that you too may be excused.

THE SENIOR CLASS

By John Regan

There are sixteen members in the Senior Class
None of whom can be surpassed;
Now all the class must work and strive
To be a prosperous class of '35.

Days are passing in a whirl,
And soon the Class will be in a wide, wide world,
Now mark my word and not my guess—
They are hoping and wishing for success.

Now the Seniors are having parties and things,
All in hope of money to bring,
To make some money for a little pleasure,
As next June may be their last get-together.

Now the whole high school should co-operate,
And I am sure the Seniors will appreciate,
What you have done and what you do,
Because after June regents the class will be thru.

LITERARY TESTS GIVEN

Literary tests were given at the high school on Monday and Tuesday of this week, under the supervision of Principal G. E. Bretch for the benefit of new voters, who did not have a preliminary certificate, yet who wished to vote. They are given simple tests to show their ability to read comprehensively and to write.

ACROSS THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

The average parent feels very much out of place upon entering a school building while school or school functions are in progress. The reasons for this are numerous, many of which lie directly in the mind or imagination of the adult.

The American parent is inclined to place entire responsibility on the school for the welfare of the child. He may feel that he is not welcome at the school. Perhaps it is a natural timidness and a tendency to put off a visit to the school until a seeming emergency arises. In many of the European countries school visitation by parents is a rule rather than the exception. In Italy, particularly, children are accompanied to school daily by one of the parents in a majority of cases.

I wish to extend to the parents of Andover a cordial invitation to visit and become familiar with the work of our school and the conditions under which it is done. Conferences with teachers and myself are heartily welcomed. We will try to find time for a visit any time you may wish to come.

Wouldn't it be most satisfying if we teachers could think of the arrival of a parent in the school as a happy event rather than a foreboding of trouble? And wouldn't it be gratifying to feel that the coming of the principal or a teacher to the home didn't necessarily mean that Johnny or Mary was in trouble?

I feel very confident that our high school pupils would appreciate seeing more parents and other grown-up folks at their assemblies and dances. There will be card playing on the balcony may be used just to watch the party.

ANDOVER LOSES TO ALLEGANY

Thursday, November 1st, Andover's football team journeyed to Allegany where they met with a 21-0 defeat. Because of the deep mud Andover was unable to get well started, while Allegany, with a much heavier team, seemed to be able to click better.

To start the game, Allegany kicked off to Andover. Brundage caught the ball on his own 20 yard line and ran it back to the 30 yard line before being downed. Andover was unable to gain and had to punt, Allegany received the ball in midfield, and tried one play which failed to gain and kicked to Andover. Andover took the ball on her own five-yard line and tried to kick out of danger, but owing to a poor pass from center he was unable to kick and ran with the ball on to the two-yard line. Again Andover tried to punt, this time the ball went only 20 yards. Allegany took the ball tried a pass, which resulted in the first score of the game.

Allegany kicked off to Andover again. This time Andover advanced the ball to midfield before being forced to punt. Allegany, receiving the ball on her own 20, immediately punted to Andover's four-yard line. Again Andover tried to punt out of danger, but this punt was blocked and Allegany gained another three points.

The second half Andover kicked off to Allegany, but neither side could gain much ground, altho Allegany had the edge on Andover.

Early in the fourth period Allegany recovered a fumble on Andover's ten-yard line, which resulted in another touchdown. During the remainder of the game both teams gained but little ground and used several substitutions.

GUESS WHO?

There is a certain boy in the Junior home room who, altho nice looking, has a peculiar ability to arouse a commotion wherever he feels in the mood. This boy has brown wavy hair, dark eyes and is about five feet eight. He plays on the football team. He has several sisters and brothers going to school. You will always find him plaguing some girl. Surely you know who he is.

Answer to last week's Guess Who —Florence Mulholland.

THE SPOTLIGHT ! !

Sorry, folks, you couldn't see the Allegany game—but a few of us managed it. The most we saw was mud and plenty of it. Saw most of St. Bona's there cheering like mad for Eddie B.

I hear that the Alfred Glee Club is coming to entertain Friday. You can bet that no girls will skip assembly and I'll bet the teachers will be in the front row ready to welcome the college warblers.

Philip Crandall and Anna Dean are amusing A. H. S. this week with their "notes," one-act plays and I.O.U.'s. I warn you, Phil, don't sign them thar things.

I wonder—Gertrude Dean in Commercial Law class, or is it just her shadow?

The high school fems certainly keep Mr. McGee busy in the first period S. H. Listen, girls, even if you don't get tired raising your hands, Mr. McGee is not crazy about walking. Isin't a Ford proof enough?

Ivar Lee ought to get a Big Ben alarm clock so she could get to school on time. Maybe she wouldn't even hear that.

Gosh, Lynch, I'm surprised at you, the way you flirt during the fourth period. Don't you know, Phil, she can't get her work done?

The faculty must have had a good time in Rochester. Noticed they were all cheerful when they returned.

My Spotlight is getting dim so I'll say "au revoir," but just wait until next week. I hear the Seniors are to have a dance Friday night. I'll have plenty to offer after that.

I'll be seeing you.

ARMISTICE DAY A HOLIDAY

Armistice Day, which for many years has been observed by a two minute period of silence at 11 a. m. on November 11th, has been declared a legal holiday in New York State. This means that on November 11 places of business, schools and the like will be closed in observance of this day.

School will be closed Monday, November 12, because inasmuch as November 11 falls on Sunday this year, the day following is the day observed.

ACROSS THE COUNTRY

I am a bird dog. I am tied up all the time except when I go hunting. We go out in the swamps and woods and I put up birds and my master shoots them. One day while we were hunting my master got over the state line and had to pay ten dollars. The next season we went to a place way back in the wilderness. We traveled thru these woods for two days and finally when we came to the end of them we came to a place where there was some goldenrod, where we thought we might find some birds. We stayed there that night and the next morning we started out. We hunted all morning and only got one bird. Then we went to a place down on the lower end of the marsh. We weren't there over an hour before we had three birds. That night we missed two of our birds. Every night we would find two or three of our birds missing. One night we stayed up and watched. The moon came out and was shining bright. Around midnight we saw something climb up the tree where we had them hanging. When we saw it on the limb we knew it was a bobcat. My master shot him and that was the last we ever saw of him.

This story was written by Robert Perry, a seventh grader.

HISTORY OF THE HI HERALD

With Mr. Perrone's help and the co-operation of the students of the Andover High School, a high school paper was started in 1931. A prize of one dollar was offered to the person who selected the best name for the paper. Many names were handed in but Erland Kailbourne, at present a student of the Wellsville High School, chose the name of Hi Herald which won the prize.

Many students tried out for the editorship of the Hi Herald. Francis Cable, James Mulholland and John McHugh edited the paper for two weeks each when Roger Tuttle was elected as the first permanent editor. The paper was well written but was improved each time with Mr. Perrone as advisor.

Conrad Church was the second editor, whose staff had much the same ideas as Roger Tuttle's staff.

Malcoim Brundage was elected as the next editor-in-chief. Paul Alderson and Mary Monica Lynch served during 1933-34.

During all this time Mr. Perrone served as the advisor to the staff. In the fall of 1932 Miss Clifford acted as co-advisor. When he left in 1933 she carried on the work.

The calibre of the work has improved from year to year. Each editor has done something to improve the paper.

The staff this year, writing under the editorship of Marian Nobles, is the largest staff of writers the Hi Herald has yet had.

Coming home, Joe McAndrew met Mary McAndrew in tears.

"I—b-baked a c-cake and placed it on the window to cool, and a t-tramp came along and stole it."

"Well, don't you cry, Mary. Or, tramp less in the world doesn't m-ter much!"

DO YOU KNOW THAT?

2—The average American travels approximately 3,000 miles every year.

3—The depression reduced the number of millionaires in this country from 60,000 in 1928 to less than 5,000 now.

4—The people of the United States own 72 per cent of the world's automobiles.

What's What About Who's Who in "Blind Date"

Ann Sothern is distantly related to Cyrus Lake, inventor of the submarine. Ann, you know, was born Harriette Lake, but the movie moguls thought the name hardly did justice to the girl's charm and personality so they juggled the alphabet and got Ann, her mother's given name, and Sothern from the great E. H. Sothern, Ann's ideal. Neil Hamilton's toughest assignment was learning Hebrew, so that he could keep a job on a Jewish newspaper in Toledo, then quit after a few weeks. Paul Kelly was born in the shadow of the old Vitagraph Studios in Brooklyn, N. Y., and raised in the studio itself, mother had to drag him off the lot each day long enough to feed him and when he was four he was already playing child parts, a real, persevering youngster, if you said so, and talking about youngsters, Mickey Rooney takes a back seat to no one, he's been on stage or screen since he was 15 months old, and at seven he was headlining at the Palace Theatre on Broadway, when the Palace was still the supreme achievement of Vaudevillania.

"Blind Date" will be at the Temple Theatre, Wellsville, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 9-10.

READING FUN IN STORE FOR BOYS

Here's important news for the boys of America. THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION, the nation's quality magazine for boys, has been reduced from $2.00 a year to $1.00. The three-year-rate, formerly $3.50, has been reduced to $2.00.

"For a long time we have been seeking a way to reduce the cost of THE AMERICAN BOY to readers," states Griffith Ogden Ellis, editor. "Recently we have effected savings that make the cut possible, and we think boys will agree that the new price is big news on the reading front. We hope boys will help us to spread the good news by telling their friends."

Along with the cut in cost, the magazine's publishers are planning a magazine that will continue to set the pace in fiction, articles, and departments. The favorite characters of millions of boys will parade thru THE AMERICAN BOY in new stories. Douglas Renfrew of the Royal Canadian Mounted, Hide-rack, the red-and-gold collie, Bonehead Jim Tierney, the detective, will give the reader many exciting hours in the months to come.

William Heyliger, whose true-to-life, gripping vocational stories have won him wide acclaim from parents and librarians, as well as the hearty approval of boys, is working on new stories. Staff writers are interviewing famous coaches and athletes and world-renowned explorers, to bring boys the color and fun of sports and travel.

In short, THE AMERICAN BOY, under its new price, will continue to give boys a magazine that measures up to the best standards set by adult magazines. Send your subscriptions to THE AMERICAN BOY 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Enclose your name and address and the proper amount of money, and THE AMERICAN BOY will soon be headed your way, loaded with reading thrills.

COUGHS

Don't let them get a strangle hold. Fight them quickly. Creomulsion combines 7 helps in one. Powerful but harmless. Pleasant to take. No narcotics. Your own druggist is authorized to refund your money on the spot if your cough or cold is not relieved by Creomulsion. (adv.)

"We've just begun to fight"

IN THE ringing words of that famous American naval officer, John Paul Jones, our battle has only begun. Millions of people in this State have been educated to the increased use of milk. Now it is your job and ours to maintain this level of milk-consumption.

Milk supplies elements which other foods lack. Not only that. Milk also furnishes a mysterious extra nourishment, as yet undiscovered, which makes it greater than the sum of its parts. This Vitalactic Principle occurs in milk and milk alone. It is the one food for which there is no substitute.

Make sure that every child in your family gets a quart of milk a day, adults at least a pint. Use milk generously in cooking, too. Penny for penny of food-value, it is your most economical purchase. Every glassful you use helps yourself, and helps to increase the prosperity of this whole region.

Drink more Milk: IT'S GOOD FOR YOU
