Application For Centralization Is Approved

Word Received From Albany This Week of Approval of Centralization Set-up in Andover.

The proposed establishment of a central rural school in Andover has been approved by the State Education Department, according to word received from Attorney Guy W. Cheney who attended the meeting of the Board of Regents in Albany last week and presented Andover's application. Only applications of communities having Federal building grants were considered.

It is understood that this means that the central school proposal will be put to a vote of the school voters of the Andover area in the near future.

Mr. Cheney also reported that under the proposed centralization Andover was approved as a four year high school, which means that if the proposition carries here, Andover will be assured of a four year high school under the proposed district reorganization that has been recommended by the Regents Inquiry committee headed by Owen D. Young.

The formal survey of the area will be made by the State Education Department, but it is expected that the area to be assigned to the Andover centralization will consist of all of the districts considered in the original application.

Plans have also been made to issue a bulletin setting forth pertinent facts concerning the proposed centralization, particularly in regard to the [illegible] of transportation.

William Hower

William K. Hower, 57, passed from life suddenly at his home on Hill street, this village, Tuesday afternoon, July 26, 1938 at 3.15, following an illness of about six months duration.

Mr. Hower was born in South Dansville, June 20, 1881, the son of George and Louise English Hower. He lived in Wayland before coming to Andover 32 years ago.

July 4, 1900, he was united in marriage with Miss Mattie DeLong, who survives. He is also survived by three daughters, Mrs. Paul Black of Dansville; Mrs. Lena Rice of Andover; Mrs. Ray Hamsher of Dansville and five grandchildren.

During his residence in Andover, Mr. Hower was identified with the undertaking and furniture business of C. E. Brown and later with that of Frederick C. Mulholland. He was an artist in the line of furniture repairing and upholstery work.

Mr. Hower was an employee of the Erie and Lehigh railroads for a number of years, working on the Erie as newsboy for five years and as a brakeman on the Lehigh for eight years.

Services in charge of Undertaker Mulholland, were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home on Hill street, Rev. E. J. Cory of the Methodist church officiating and interment made in Hillside cemetery.

Will Vote On New Milk Agreement

Copies of New Federal-State Milk Marketing Agreement Now Being Distributed Upon Request.

Albany, July 23—Distribution of revised copies of the proposed Federal-State milk marketing agreement for the metropolitan New York area was begun today by Commissioner Noyes of the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets.

The agreement which establishes minimum prices to farmers of $2.20 for fluid milk marketed from April through July and $2.65 for milk from August through March, will be submitted to dairymen for approval or disapproval.

Copies of the proposed agreement are being mailed to all persons who spoke at hearings recently conducted at Albany, Malone, Syracuse, Elmira and New York City. Copies also are going out to all milk dealers in the metropolitan New York area and to farm organizations.

Copies will be available at the Albany offices of the Department of Agriculture and Markets upon request.

Under the terms to which the proposed agreement elected the offices of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, interested parties are given until August 1 to file briefs either for or against the proposed order fixing minimum prices to milk producers and setting up machinery for administering the order if it is adopted.

Arrangements are being made for dairymen to vote on the proposed agreement in mid August.

Lyon Supports Agreement

H. H. Lyon of Bainbridge, N. Y. sends the News the following article regarding the new milk set up.

"Horn Went Pitty Zekel"

You know how Lowell spoke out in "Zekel's courtin'" when "His heart went pitty-pat, but horn went pitty Zekel".

Well, our dairymen, some of them, are about like both. It is a question to decide about that Federal-State order for milk marketing. You may not like it all but you want it for there seems no better way.

So don't let us hesitate—VOTE. Against it if you must, but for it for safety.

Zekel "Stood a spell on one foot first, then stood a spell on t'other. An' on which foot he felt the wust he couldn't his' told ye nuther."

Don't let us look like a July cornfield after a hail storm that some good farmer told us we would if this order business didn't go through. Let's have a rousing vote one way or the other. We say for it. Some say vote against. We all say vote.

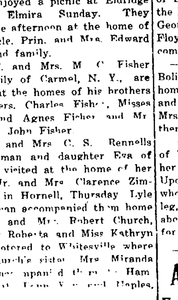
County Democrats Endorse Mark Graves For Next Governor

County Democratic Committee Advance State Tax Commissioner for Governor at a Meeting in Belmont, Tuesday. County Ticket Named.

Belmont, N. Y., July 27.—Mark Graves, President of the State Tax Commission, and Commissioner of Taxation and Finance, was advanced Tuesday for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination by the Allegany County Democratic Committee at a meeting here.

A resolution endorsing Commissioner Graves was adopted by the committee of which at one time he served as county chairman, was introduced by Frederick S. Buck of Wellsville, present county chairman, who lauded the official's 31 years of State service and termed him "Allegany's most distinguished son, and a worthy successor to Governor Lehman and other Democratic executives."

Introducing the resolution, Mr.



Commissioner Mark Graves

Buck said: "We of Allegany county are naturally proud of Mr. Graves' achievements and we feel certain that he would be elected by a substantial majority if selected as the Democratic nominee.

"Mark Graves is not only a nationally recognized authority in the field of finance and taxation," Mr. Buck continued, "but he possesses an understanding of affairs of government in all their ramifications as well as a comprehensive knowledge of the economic, industrial and social well being of the people of the State. He knows and understands the problems of labor, industry, and agriculture alike, and persons in all walks of life thruout the State of New York are favorably disposed toward and have confidence in him.

"Many reasons could be advanced as to just why Allegany county has bestowed the title of 'her most distinguished son' upon Mark Graves. The most compelling of all, however is that he is recognized as one of the most able and conscientious of State officials and has earned this distinction thru his own efforts, application and ability.

"While Mark Graves' star has risen steadily in his thirty-one years of public service, never once in those three decades has he sought personally any advancement or honor. No higher honor can be paid his remarkable ability and knowledge of government than that the chief executives of his native State have offered him of their own accord, positions of trust and honor, and sought his advice and counsel.

"Since 1907, when after passing a civil service examination, he entered State service as a municipal accounts examiner in the Comptroller's office, the name and ability of Mark Graves have become nationally known and recognized.

"To him was entrusted the organization and administration of the newly enacted State income tax in 1919, during the first administration of Governor Alfred E. Smith, and he retained this position until Governor Nathan L. Miller designated him Research Director of the Board of Estimate and Control.

"His outstanding ability in the field of taxation and finance caused Governor Smith upon his return to Albany in 1923 to name Mr. Graves State Tax Commissioner and he remained in this office until Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt requested him to accept the important post of Director of the Budget. Governor Lehman saw fit to retain Mr. Graves as a member of his cabinet and director of the budget until he resigned this office in 1933 to return to the Department of Taxation and Finance and became its presiding officer, the post he has since filled and to which Governor Lehman reappointed him in 1935 and 1937."

Commissioner Graves was born in humble circumstances on a farm in the town of Willing, December 29, 1877, the son of Marlin and Susan Beaver Graves, and began life as have other notable State executives of the past, working on his father's farm and attending school whenever possible.

Fighting for success in life came naturally to the youthful Graves, one of whose ancestors served under Washington in the American Revolution. Earning his own way thru the local public schools and enrolling in Buffalo Law College, he was admitted to the bar in 1901 and practiced his profession at Wellsville until his entry into State service six years later. In Albany seeking his advice and counsel today come representatives of all states.

A Democrat, in a Republican stronghold, he led his party's battles as Chairman of the Allegany County Democratic Committee for four years and also ran for Congress before reaching his thirtieth year.

Officially, Mr. Graves is President of the New York State Tax Commission, Commissioner of Taxation and Finance, a member of the State Planning Council and an advisory member of the Committee on Interstate Co-operation.

A former president of the National Tax Association, and until recently acting president of the Council of State Governments, he is presently serving on the Interstate Commission on Conflicting Taxation. He is also a member of the State Bar Association and the National Democratic Club.

Active in civic movements, Mr. Graves is on the Board of Trustees of the City and County Savings Bank of Albany, director of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, a Rotarian and past president of the Albany Rotary Club, a member of the Fort Orange Club, and of the Executive Council of the Fort Orange Boy Scout Movement, as well as the Albany Country Club and Houvenkopf Country Club of Suffern, N. Y.

He is a member also of Wellsville Lodge, No. 230, F. & A. M., Wellsville Chapter No. 143, R. A. M., Witt Clinton Council No. 22, Albany, A. and S. M., and the Knights of Pythias.

On June 5, 1933, Syracuse University conferred upon Mr. Graves the degree of Doctor of Laws, and again on June 14, 1937, he was the recipient of the Doctor of Laws degree from Union College.

The children of Commissioner and Mrs. Graves, the former Clarabelle Gale of Wellsville, are Mrs. Joseph B. Ryan of New York City, Mrs. Edward Briggs of Wingdale, and Miss Eleanor Graves, a teacher at the Skaneateles, N. Y., high school.

The resolution adopted by the Allegany County Democratic Committee is as follows:

"WHEREAS, the Hon. Mark Graves, President of the New York State Tax Commission and Commissioner of Taxation and Finance of the State of New York and a native of Allegany County, has devoted nearly all of his adult life to the affairs of government of the State of New York, and

"WHEREAS, in addition to being recognized as a foremost national authority in the field of governmental taxation and finance, his 31 years of public service have equipped him with a broad understanding of governmental affairs in all its ramifications and a comprehensive knowledge of the economic, industrial and social well being of the people of the State of New York, and

"WHEREAS, these qualities have consistently been recognized by our present Governor and his predecessors in office, to whom he has been a trusted and consulted advisor in the affairs of government, and

"WHEREAS, we believe that he is eminently fitted by reason of his knowledge, experience and training for the highest executive office in the State of New York; and that as a candidate he will be acceptable to a substantial majority of the voters of this State;

"THEREFORE BE IT, resolved, that the Democratic Organization of Allegany County, namely the Allegany County Democratic Committee endorse the Hon. Mark Graves for the office of Governor of the State of New York, and

"That the delegates and alternates of the County of Allegany to the Democratic State Convention of 1938 be instructed to cast their ballots for the said Mark Graves for such office."

The following county ticket was named at the meeting for the fall primaries:

Rod and Gun Club Meeting Postponed

The regular meeting of Andover Rod & Gun Club has been postponed from this Friday evening until next Tuesday evening, August 2nd. The change in date has been necessary because of the firemen and band being in Dansville on Friday evening.

Red & White Store Installs Frosted Food Cabinet

Local Store Now Carries Over Fifty Items in the New "Frosted Foods" With Others to be Added.

In another column in this week's News will be found the announcement by the Andover Red & White Store of the installation of a new Honor Brand Frozen Foods Cabinet.

Frozen Foods are a new product in Andover and a relatively new product elsewhere. Experiment stations have been working on this manner of preserving foods for several years but only within the past few months have they been put on the market as a practical method of handling foods.

Honor Brand Frozen Foods, which are distributed through the Red & White Stores are conceeded as one of the best in the frozen food market. They use the best quality of product available and all items are subjected to temperature of 50 degrees below zero within 90 minutes from the time they are gathered. Delivery to the local store is made from the central Ardenia distribution plant twice a week. The products are packed in dry ice while enroute and are kept in specially designed cabinets at a temperature of zero in the local stores. The quick process of freezing seals the juices in the article frozen, keeping all the nutriment and flavor inside until they are the best out in your home for cooking.

There are about one hundred different items available as frozen foods, fifty of which Mrs. Shaff has in stock in her cabinet.

If you are not familiar with this method of preserving foods drop in at the Red & White store and they will gladly explain it to you.
