Angelica Fair Opening Day Record Broken

First Day Featured by Third Annual Dog Show. Fair Will Continue Until Saturday Night.

Angelica, Aug. 25.—With all opening day records broken and patrons singing high praise for the free entertainment provided, Allegany county's 94th annual fair and exposition went into its second of a four-day run here today. Midways, one for amusements and another for industrial exhibits, are the biggest in history.

Hundreds packed the grounds during yesterday and until late last night. With the opening day featured by the third annual dog show, sponsored by the Southern Tier Kennel Club, figures reported by Financial Secretary Clair Evans showed that last year's record opening day attendance was surpassed by more than 1,200 giving substantiation to all pre fair predictions of a "biggest year."

Boasting the showing of 12 champion dogs and an entry list including canines from several foreign states, Dr Thomas Howe, Friendship superintendent of the show, declared that the third annual show had set a new record for attendance and interest, predicting that next year would see as a result of this show, even greater interest and entries. More than 200 dogs were entered in the competition this year, to break last years record.

Crowds were enthusiastic in their voicing of the free professional acts. Without doubt the program being presented this year is the most lavish one shown in the history of the fair. There are six acts, including not than a score of performers, all varied from singing, dancing, aerial balcies, tumbling aerial performances to that of an animal act for adults and children alike. In addition the Crimson Heart Riders of Bolivar, as of last year, held the audience aghast, as they went thru thrilling stunts; especially Joe Dumbolton, as he crashed thru a flaming wall of boards, as his cycle raced at high speed.

The motorcycle daredevils will be present for the last time tonight. In their place tomorrow and Saturday night will be presented the third annual amateur contest. Children will be competing tomorrow night with adults on Saturday night. Also a special feature on these two nights will be a double program, opening and closing each of the programs tomorrow night and Saturday night, a big program of fireworks.

The main hall with its 34 booths filled has an outstanding commercial display. Many persons took advantage of the Olean Times-Herald rest and first aid tent. Seneca Council, Boy Scouts of America also have a tent, where first aid treatment is administered.

The Andover American Legion band will play at the fair Friday and Saturday.

Rod & Gun Club Meeting Postponed

The regular meeting of Andover Rod & Gun club which falls on this Friday evening has been postponed until next Tuesday evening, August 30, on account of the Allegany county fair this week.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting next Tuesday evening.

Presents Program At Dansville

Mrs. Alice Baker and Archie Monte of Andover, in company with Miss Helen Wolverton and Richard Boyd of Wellsville are in Dansville tonight (Thursday) where they are giving a concert program of violin, vocal and classic dancing numbers at the Bernarr MacFadden physical culture hotel.

O'Hara, Donnelly Game Protectors

Ray O'Hara of Wellsville and George Donnelly of Belmont have been appointed game protectors for Allegany county, according to word from the State Conservation Commission.

Mr. O'Hara has been serving as game protector for the past year under a provisional appointment. Mr. Donnelly, formerly of Rochester, is a former State trooper.

Harvest Home Was Usual Success

The annual Harvest Home of the Andover Presbyterian church was successfully carried out again this year, with the fine chicken dinner served on the church lawn. About 250 dinners were served under the chairmanship of Mrs. R. V. Harder.

The American Legion band played during the dinner hour, which was followed by an impromptu program presided over by Rev. Lucien H. Kerns, pastor of the church. Dr. Willard Sutton of Foochow, China gave the assemblage a few interesting remarks as did Mrs. Floyd Richardson of Hornell.

As usual, a goodly number of former Andoverites were greeting their old friends and neighbors, thus making the annual Harvest Home celebration complete.

An interesting fact was brought out in that Henry Horan of this village has not missed a Harvest Home dinner since its beginning, driving to the Grove with horse and buggy in the earlier years of the event, when a picnic dinner was held there.

Octagon league officials will meet this week to make arrangements for the playoffs. Plans were considered whereby Canaseraga, unbeaten in both halves of the schedule, would withdraw, to play a series of three games with Arkport, winner of the Steuben American Legion league crown. In such an event, Scio, winner of second place in the last half of the Octagon schedule will meet Angelica, winner of second place in the first half, for the league championship.

Milk Market Order Gets Big Vote

The first release on the proposed Federal-State milk marketing order is that it was favored by a large majority in New York State.

Commissioner Holton V. Noyes states that out of the 95 per cent of the ballots which have been counted, 86 per cent favor its adoption.

Annual Flower Show Was Very Successful

Two-day Event of the Local Methodist Church Drew Good Attendance. Fine Programs Given, With Parade Tuesday Night and Baby Show Wednesday.

The flower and baby show has commanded a great interest on the part of the people of Andover. The flower display was beautiful, the walk of the Methodist church being lined with many magnificent exhibits in which practically every class on the schedule was represented. Besides the floral display, a fine array of specimens of quartz, petrified wood from the Black Hills of North Dakota was also laid out in one section of the room, exhibited by Dr. Robert Common.

The program on Tuesday at 4 p. m., was a great success, consisting of tableaus and singing followed by an address by Mr. Post of Alfred the floriculturist, who acted as judge for the flower exhibits. Information on plant culture was given thru the medium of questions asked by members of the audience.

The supper was a pronounced success, being well cared for by Mrs. Emily Caple assisted by a large staff of ladies.

The parade, which followed, contained over 30 entrants, and aroused much interest. The route taken was across from the M. E. church by the Presbyterian church, to Dyke street, thence to Main, on to Elm street, turning from Main into Church, to the church corner. Much praise is due to R. E. Shaff for the skillful way in which he directed the proceedings.

On Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., was the baby show, engineered by Nurse Hattie Eggleston and Mrs. Glenn Roger. Mrs. Carroll Roger assisted by a number of others. There were 33 entrants and the church auditorium for the program which followed was well filled. A program of singing was enjoyed together with a brief address by Nurse Eggleston on the care of babies. A film picture on "The Life of a Healthy Child" was shown in the lecture room, procured by Mrs. George Carpenter and presented by Mrs. Harder with her splendid machine.

Ice cream, popcorn and tarts were sold by a group of young people directed by the Misses Marion Cook, Catherine Coryell and Bernice Williams, which netted a nice little addition to the treasury.

The program at 8 p. m. was received by a crowded house. "Gretchen in Mother Goose Land" was the subject, with over 40 children taking part. Miss Ruth Robinson was mainly responsible for the preparation of this program. A film picture by Dr. Robert Common on "Travels in the West" completed a good local celebration.

All Regents Papers Stay in Albany

Every one of the 178 Regents papers sent in by the local school were accepted as passing papers by the State Education Department, according to a report made by Principal Glenn E. Bretsch. This is a rather unusual record, particularly for the June examinations, and bespeaks the accuracy of rating and high standards of the local teachers as well as a commendable accomplishment by the pupils.

In the June 1938 examinations there were 196 papers written and since all of the 178 papers sent in have been accepted, the per cent of passing papers stands at 90.8%.

Bolivar Approves School Project

Voters of the Bolivar central school district approved the proposed $71,500 bond issue for the construction of a $130,000 addition to the Bolivar centralized school, at a special election held Monday, by a vote of 53 to 38.

Will Conduct a School Question Box in News

Questions Regarding the Andover School Centralization Will Be Answered in the News.

For the benefit of those who are in doubt regarding questions which have arisen in connection with the proposed centralization program for Andover schools, it has been decided to publish a question box in the Andover News, where questions will be answered.

Anyone having any questions will kindly get them to the News office by Tuesday night, so they can be answered in Thursday's issue.

This column is open to everyone and the more questions the better, so that everyone can be correctly informed on any phase of the proposed centralization so that they may be in doubt.

Send in your questions, all of them, the more the merrier!

Belongs to Same Club As Famed Corrigan

Earl Kemp of this village has the distinction of being the only one in this section of the state who belongs to the same club as the much talked-about Corrigan. The club is the Burlington Liar's Club, to which Mr. Kemp has belonged for some years.

Corrigan was admitted to the club after telling his "tall story" before flying westward to Europe.

First County Woman Drawn for Jury Duty

Mrs. Irena Miller, town of Wirt, is the first woman to be drawn for Grand Jury duty in Allegany county under the new law, which made women eligible for Jury duty.

Allegany county has had several women setting on trial jury, but Mrs. Miller has the distinction of being the first woman to be drawn as Grand jury in this county.

Andover will be represented at the September term of court by W. D. Clark as Grand juror and Peter Joyce as trial juror.
