September 20th is Primary Day!

WHEN you are casting your ballot for Sheriff I am hopeful that you will give fullest consideration to my record of the last three years. I urge you to look into that record from any angle and to familiarize yourself with economies and accomplishments which have been recently achieved.

When I sought election for my present term, I promised you the economies and efficiencies that a business requires. I welcome a comparison of my administration with that of any of my predecessors. The records are yours to inspect.

If nominated and re-elected I shall continue to be as efficient as in the past with relief to the pocketbook from which you pay taxes. I believe you will agree that it will pay to
