Excursion to the Falls.

The Excursion party leaving here next Wednesday, for Niagara Falls, will start at about 5 o'clock in the morning, by Special train, and all wishing to go must make the same known to the agent at this station by Tuesday noon, in order that arrangements can be made to accommodate all. You will never get a better chance to visit the Falls than now, and at so low rates of fare: only $3.50 cents to go to Niagara and return.

Concert.—Lemuel Rockwell, the blind vocalist, and his daughter, Miss Abbie Rockwell, will give one of their popular musical entertainments, at the Baptist church, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 24th, 1871. Mr. Rockwell has devoted his life to music, from which as well as from circumstances, and sings and plays with the enthusiasm of an amateur as well as the precision of the professionalist. Miss Abbie has a pleasant voice evincing much cultivation. Go and hear them. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents.

The History of the War between Germany and France, by James D. McClellan, has just appeared. It is published in both English and German. The book is sold by subscription only and good five agents are wanted in every town in the State. For particulars address the N. & A. Publishing Company, Philadelphia, Pa. We shall give our readers a more thorough description next week.

Accident.—On Saturday last a sad accident happened while some of the Andover people were returning from a Sabbath school picnic at Hudson's young man by the name of Orestis and Miss Caroline Weaver, of Andover, were after starting it commenced to rain and Orestis attempted to ride on the umbrella when the horse became frightened and started to run. Orestis in endeavoring to hold him, broke the reins, leaving the horse free—Miss Weaver, leaving a break up, jumped from the buggy and broke her leg just above the ankle joint. Orestis remained in the buggy for a few rods, when he was thrown out, without being injured in any manner. The horse ran about a mile and stopped of his own account without using any device to hinder or hinder. Miss Weaver was taken home and attended by Dr. W. M. Smith and doing well.

First N. Y. Dragons Reunion.—Having obtained the views of nearly all of the Executive Committee and many other ex-members of the Regiment, we have decided to hold our second annual Reunion at Plattsburgh, N. Y., on Tuesday, September 12th. It is hoped that every surviving soldier will be present, as well as some of the present and former officers. Members in this vicinity will please have no fear in notifying these absent of the meeting. Circulars can be had by addressing the Secretary at Mr. Morris, N. Y. All soldiers and sailors engaged in the late "War for the Union" are cordially invited to unite with us, and the public generally are requested to be present. Mr. Morris, and Mr. Morris's Band of Music, will furnish music. RITES SQUAD, Pres. CHARLES HARDING, Sec.

Any respectable person wishing to take or adopt children, can be informed where they may find two-year-old, respectively eight and four years, applying at this Office. 2w
