LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Charles Slocum has been very ill for the past five weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arling Baker entertained the 500 Club Wednesday evening.

Miss Veronica McAndrew returned to school this week after a week's illness.

The Alfred firemen are advertising a dance at Firemen's Hall in Alfred, this Saturday evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the S. D. Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Lottie Drew Tuesday afternoon.

The King's Daughters will meet next Thursday evening, January 24th at the home of Mrs. John E. Cannon.

Four couples from Alfred Station gave Mrs. Carlton Greene of Railroad Valley a surprise visit in honor of her birthday, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Esther Temple received word this week that she had passed the State general insurance examination held last month and is now qualified to write policies.

Word has been received of the arrival on Tuesday, Jan. 8th, of a daughter, Patricia, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers of New York City. Mr. Powers is well known in Andover having visited his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Kemp several times.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGraw, life-long residents of Whitesville, observed their golden wedding anniversary with open house on New Years Day. A unique feature was the fact that Mrs. Eva Foster of Bath and William N. Rice of Whitesville, bridesmaid and best man at the McGraw wedding, were both able to attend the reception.

Home Bureau

The Home Bureau will hold its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Tracy. The lesson is on "Home Management," under the leadership of Mrs. James Lynch. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Carl Clarke Home Bureau Director

Mrs. Carl Clarke, Andover, was chosen director of the County Home Bureau to succeed Mrs. Clyde Depew, who resigned, at the annual meeting of the board of directors, held in Belmont last Thursday.

Officers named at the organization meeting of the Allegany County Extension Service, include:

Farm Bureau directors chose Leon W. Benjamin, Cuba, as chairman of the executive committee, re-elected; Wallace Wingert, Caneadea, vice chairman, re-elected; and A. L. Middaugh, Friendship, secretary, re-elected.

In the Home Bureau, Mrs. Paul Regan, Willing, was chosen chairman, succeeding Mrs. Clyde Depew, Petrolia, who declined renomination. Mrs. Harold Chaffee, Angelica, was chosen vice chairman, and Mrs. Ezra Gilbert, Canaseraga, secretary.

William H. Garwood, Canaseraga, succeeds himself as chairman of the 4-H Club executive committee, while E. E. Foster, Alfred, aids him as vice chairman with Mrs. Lester Rees, Fillmore, secretary.

Post-War Remodeling Starts in Wellsville

Post-war remodeling started this week on Wellsville's Main street when workmen took down the time-honored balcony on the front of the Hotel Fassett and started work on the front of the Danahy Faxon store. The front of the entire block will be modernized and the present Danahy Faxon store converted into a modern cocktail lounge.

The Danahy Faxon Co. is reported to be making arrangements for the opening of a new super market at the present location of Nick's bowling alley in the Baldini block.

Banns of Marriage Announced

Banns of marriage were announced Sunday at the Blessed Sacrament Church at late Mass by Rev. Charles J. Keller, between Loretta Baker, daughter of John C. Baker and Catherine Reynolds of Andover and Robert Beebe, son of Ernest Beebe and Ruth Miller.

The wedding will take place Saturday, January 26th at 9:30 at Blessed Sacrament Church, Andover.

Annual Meeting of Andover Free Library

The annual meeting of the Andover Free Library will be held at the Library Wednesday evening, January 23rd, 1946, at 8 o'clock. Annual reports will be given and such other business transacted as may come before the meeting.

Annual Meeting Of Presbyterian Church Held

The annual business meeting of the Andover Presbyterian church and congregation was held following a fellowship dinner on Sunday, January 13 in the church parlors. There was a good attendance considering the fact that some of the members were ill and unable to be present. During the dinner hour music was furnished by the choir, and a duet by Mrs. Kenneth Cook and Miss Jo Ann Theetge was enjoyed.

Reports of the various officers were most gratifying, since they showed the church is free from all indebtedness and has a good balance in the treasury.

It mourns the loss of four members, who have been called to the Great Church Beyond, but several new members have been added during the year.

Two trustees, O. J. Whitaker and Richard Harder were elected for terms of three years and two new elders were elected to become members of the session, Almon Wood and R. J. Sootheran, who will be installed at an early date.

Almon Wood was re-elected as Sunday School superintendent and Miss Frances Baker Sunday School secretary and treasurer.

The Rev. A. N. Rogers, who has so ably filled the pulpit and performed all duties as stated supply pastor, will continue in that capacity. His efforts have been untiring and greatly appreciated and he has won the esteem of a host of friends.

Kuttner—Snyder

Miss Kathryn J. Snyder, daughter of Mrs. Rose Snyder of Hornell and David Kuttner, son of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Kuttner of 1558 Townsend Avenue, Bronx, N. Y., were united in marriage by Justice Evans in New York October 31, 1945 at 4 p. m. They were attended by Miss Muriel Kuttner, sister of the groom and Charles Dorfman, both of the Bronx.

Mr. Kuttner left with his orchestra for California last Monday, from where he will go abroad with a USO show. Mrs. Kuttner returned to Hornell for the present to care for her mother who is seriously ill.
