DEATH IN A WELL.

A most horrible calamity occurred yesterday on the farm owned by J. O. Diemer, a gentleman well known to many citizens of Columbus. The farm is situated near St. Mary's academy, four miles from the city. The circumstances are as follows: Water being scarce on the premises, Mr. Diemer some days since determined to sink a new well in order to get a more abundant supply. To accomplish the task speedily, he engaged the services of three Katzmeyers, who have a reputation in this vicinity for well-digging.

The well had been sunk to the depth of 63y feet at noon yesterday, when digging was temporarily stopped for dinner, as supposed. At that time Mr. Diemer told his boys that he wanted to go down into the well to see how it was coming on, but was busy and could not go down at the moment.

Before he was ready to make the descent, however, his second son, William, aged fourteen years, asked his brothers to lower him down into the well by means of the windlass used in bringing up the dirt excavated.

The request was complied with neither of the brothers fearing any harm could come of it. The father, who was but a short distance away, thought of no mishap, and allowed the boys to go on with their sport.

But just as William reached the bottom of the well, one of his brothers called to his father in the startling horror-producing words, "Willie is dead." Mr. Diemer fearing the truth of such shocking intelligence, hastened to the well. Peering in to the excavation which penetrated so far toward the bowels of the earth, he saw his dear son Willie lying apparently lifeless, at the bottom. To repeated cries of "Willie!" "Willie!" no response came. The next thought of the distracted parent was to descend into the well and rescue his beloved son; but just then George Katzmeyer, one of the diggers, appeared at the scene, and grasping the rope let three fingers down the father and man seeming ready to pull him and the venturesome youth up." Arriving at the bottom, Mr. Katzmeyer sized the boy, cold in death, and getting into the dirt elevator called to those at the windlass to "pull up." Eager and breathless they did as directed. For a few terms of the crank they felt the weight of the two human beings, and were confident that within the next moment both George and Willie would be borne to the surface of the earth alive. But alas for the expectations of father and sons above! and alas for George Katzmeyer, and Willie Diemer below.

Suddenly the former felt that the elevator had been robbed of its genial freight. The pail in which no human being can for a moment live, the damps, overcome George Katzmeyer also, and both bodies fell to the bottom, never to come up again alive.

Beecher on Church Dressing

Some good plain talk and advice, which ought to be heeded, in regard to dressing for church, is given by Henry Ward in the Christian Union. He says: There was a time when good taste demanded the use of the plainest clothes in the sanctuary, when the wealthiest were distinguished from their conspicuous absence of personal adornment, and sartorial display was a mark of vulgarity, at such times and places. But now-a days, in the congregation on the Sabbath, rich and poor alike seem on a desperate strain, the one to make some faint approximation to the other, in point of extravagant display, and the other to demonstrate to the one the utter hopelessness of the attempt. It would almost appear as if whatever might be thought of the propriety of a modest grab in other places, the proper costume for the House of God, where, theoretically, we all go to be reminded of our common origin and destiny, whose an aged generation of all the jewelry, and all the edgings, and all the paniers, and all the feathers and furbelows in one's wardrobe. The wagger is to carry all this old agony to the sanctuary as to a fair—as if her errand were not so much to praise as to be appraised—and there employ the sacred time in envious comparison of her own mountain of millinery with the Himalayan triumphs of her neighbor.

An Irishman one morning went out very early in search of game on an estate where the game laws were strictly enforced. Turning a corner whom did he meet but the gentleman who owned the estate. Paddy, seeing the game was up, coolly advanced toward the gentleman and said: "The top of the morning to your honor, and what brought your honor out so early this morning?" The gentleman replied by saying, "Indeed, Paddy, I just strolled out to see if I would find an appetite for my breakfast;" and then eyeing Paddy rather suspiciously said, "And now, Paddy, what brought you out so early in the morning?" Paddy replied, "Bedade, your honor, I just strolled out to see if I could find a breakfast for my appetite."

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

FOR THE LOW CONPEARANCE, whether in compound with Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the victim on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative powers.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find it impure, and you will find the health of your system will follow. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow. Keep the blood pure, and good health will be the result. Keep the blood pure, and good health will be the result. Keep the blood pure, and good health will be the result.
