ARE YOU PREPARED?

by Rose Mary Baker

This is a question that all students will soon be wondering about and one that causes many unhappy moments to students and teachers as well.

Back to school after the Christmas vacation means only one thing—study for mid-year exams. Pupils begin to bring home books and the worry is noticeable on some of their faces. The teachers also begin to stress the importance of study ever harder than usual and begin to review their students.

Since these exams come around every year at the same time, it would seem we should be all prepared, but every year finds us worrying over them just as we did the year before.

To the Seniors and others who take a Regents in January it is most important that they study hard or at least hard enough to pass these demons which worry us.

Now is the time to do something about these exams for this year, so let us all take advantage of our opportunity and get good marks this midyear. They will help us a lot if our marks are low at the end of the year. If they are Regents exams they may mean the difference between our graduating and remaining in school another year.

Surely such a prize as this is worth a little effort so let's all [illegible] home our books and really work and pass our exams with flying colors.

CHIT-CHAT

Louise O'Dell has a pretty new locket. Could it be from Archie?

Betty Isaman was really thrilled over her Christmas present. Who wouldn't be, it's a lovely diamond.

Has Joan Joyce and her Dick broken up? Those things will happen.

Ted O'Dell has some lovely curls. They aren't natural are they?

The junior class was really decked out in their Christmas finery Monday morning.

According to a rumor going around, Evelyn Glover's party was a success.

Anne Marie Green has a new ring. My guess is it's from Wayne.

No one seems to know where Ruth Shutt spent New Years Eve. I'll bet she had fun.

Everyone wonders how Janet Hall and "Pin" Connors are getting along.

No wonder Bruce Nye goes skating so much, with Carolyn Briggs spending quite a lot of time there.

John Dougherty is still admiring that cute blonde, Janice Fulton.

Dean Fisher also has a new heart throb but he just won't confess.

Charlie Dougherty is having a hard time making up his mind between Agie Davis and Colleen McAndrew.

So Charlie Snyder is still single! Aren't you lucky.

PEP ASSEMBLY HELD

The shouts of the students could be herd throughout the school as they were led by the cheerleaders of the varsity and junior-varsity basketball teams in the regular pep assembly before the game January 6th

Tuesday's game was played in Canisteo and judging from the shouts Andover was sure to win.

These assemblies are attended by Junior and Senior high school students.

SENIORS COMPLETE THESIS PROJECT

Each senior in Andover Central School was given the task of preparing a two thousand word thesis on his career or future vocation. As December was the scheduled deadline for these thesis to be turned in, Mrs. McFadden's bulletin board now displays our masterpieces, as well as our artistic ability.

Every thesis is composed of physical and educational qualifications with advantages and disadvantages that should be known about a certain vocation before a person proceeds to enter his life work. The thesis are patterned after a book, with index, chapters, table of contents, bibliography and footnotes.

The project covers a wide field of professions as follows:

Music as a Career—Kathryn Joyce.

A Future in the Extension Service—Rosemary Baker.

Advertising—Lila Childs.

Business in Everyday Life — Dolores Snyder.

Nursing—Madge Collins.

Basketball—James Burgett.

My Teaching Career — John Bridge.

Nursing—Phyllis Mascho.

Pattern for Life—Jo Ann Theetge.

The Nursing Profession—Helen Yannie.

Football—Harold Dodge.

Music As My Vocation—Phyllis Burdick.

Dentistry—Kevin Lynch.

Teaching—Karl Fisher.

Physical Education — Robert Smith.

Aviation as a Career—Lawrence Hoyt.

Photography As a Career — Philip Mascho.

Teaching—Doris Atwell.

Veterinarian — Harriet Herring.

The American Sport, Baseball —Earl Richardson.

Physical Education Teacher — Pat Dolan.

Interior Decoration — Phyllis Nye.

SENIOR DANCE RESULTS

The holiday dance, presented by the senior class on December 22 was quite well attended. Although the seniors profited very little from their tireless efforts, it is believed that everyone enjoyed themselves.

The decorations of the dance were the main attraction. The auditorium was decorated in a Christmas theme, complete with fireplace, Santa Claus, Christmas trees, candles and colored lights.

The seniors wish to extend to the public their appreciation for their cooperation at the dance.

ANDOVER LOSES TO CANISTEO

By Ray Smith

In a couple of non-league tangles last Tuesday evening on the Canisteo hardwood the locals were stamped out twice 34 - 24 in the Junior varsity game and 57 - 19 in the varsity wrangle.

Canisteo hit hard and fast behind the lead of forward Roysten who netted 22 points. Jim Burgett led the locals with 7 points. Canisteo has produced an excellent team and will without a doubt take the championship in their league.

If you will remember please that the baseball nine trampled Canisteo 6-0 in a no-hit, no-run game behind the smooth pitching of Jim Smith. It seems that Canisteo was out for revenge. They got it!

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO BE TAKEN SOON

Are you ready to place your name on the long list of subscribers who wish to remember their classmates by buying a year book?

The Senior Class has announced that they will be glad to take the money for all subscriptions starting February 1st right after mid-year exams.

Let's all try to help the Seniors out by backing them wholeheartedly in their yearbook campaign. MC

GRADE NEWS

In Mrs. Robison's room there was perfect attendance on the day before Christmas.

In Mrs. Connor's room, David Cook has moved to Alfred-Almond.

Mrs. Connor wishes to thank the children and parents for their efforts in helping her room during the Christmas week. Her room has maintained a 94% attendance for the year to date.

In Mrs. Hall's room, Carl Benedict has moved.

In Mrs. Helmar's third and fourth grade one of the pupils Ruth Huffcut has been on a trip to Florida and brought back a shell collection.

Dixie Appier and Jackie Baker are captains for their new spelling contest.

Mrs. Moran is substituting for Miss Gaus who is recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

In Miss Baker's room, Harriet Cook has moved to Alfred-Almond.

The pupils are collecting Christmas cards to send to underpriviledged schools for art work.

TEACHERS ENJOY VACATIONS IN VARIOUS PLACES

This year we find that the teachers of A. C. S. spent their vacation in various places and some of them doing very interesting things.

Miss Catherine Recktenwald spent her vacation in Hornell with her family while Mrs. Martha Robison spent hers in Andover, sleeping, resting and doing the things she liked to do.

Mrs. Monica Connor spent her Christmas and New Years at her home entertaining guests from Wellsville, Friendship and Olean and also attended the McAndrew -Wintemberg wedding.

Mrs. Laura Hall entertained twenty members of her family for Christmas dinner and spent most of her time at the hospital visiting members of her family who were ill.

Miss Jean Parsons went home to Rochester.

Mrs. Dolores Bennett visited her family in Fredonia.

Mrs. Carolyn Helmer stayed at home in Canisteo.

Mrs. Mary Moran, who is substituting for Miss Mary Gaus until she recovers from an operation, went shopping in Olean and played bridge.

Miss Ruth Baker stayed at home and doctored a cold.

Miss Doris Church just worked

Miss Ruby Jordan went to her home in Friendship where she just had a good time and can boast of having read five good books.

Mrs. Harriet Schwarzenbach went to Rochester and Canandaigua and spent Christmas day in Wellsville. She also entertained her nephew, David Henry.

Mrs. Margaret Joyce spent part of her vacation in Rochester and the rest in Andover.

Mrs. Ethel Gath spent a couple of days at her home in Silver Creek and the rest in Andover.

Mr. Carlyle Carmody traded cars, worked with a dance band and went to his home in LeRoy.

Mrs. Marie McFadden spent five days in Brookville, Pa., visiting her parents and her husband's family.

Mr. Murlyn Conde spent his time in Andover sleeping, fishing and skiing. He also attended the Senior dance at which he states he had a most enjoyable time.

Mr. George Reil went to Buffalo but spent most of his vacation in Andover.

Mrs. Feeley spent part of her vacation at her parent's home in North Tonawanda and enjoyed Xmas shopping in crowded stores. She also visited all her old acquaintances, rested, read, took in a few plays and ended up her vacation on New Year's Eve in New York City.

Mrs. Florence Greene spent most of her vacation in Andover entertaining and worked very little.

Mrs. Dahl spent the first half of her vacation in Alabama, N. Y., and the rest in Andover. She did nothing that amounted to anything, she reports.

Mr. Lawrence Bartz spent his sleeping and refinishing tables for the art room.

Mr. Lynford Chaffee went to Lafayette, Ind., where he attended some high school and college basketball tournaments. He also visited the coach of the Physical Education College of Perdue. He attempted to teach his dog Rusty to do tricks—we don't know who won Rusty or coach.

Mrs. Eleanor Briggs spent her vacation in Horseheads.

Mr. Glenn Bronson spent part of his vacation in and around Corning and did numerous things among them sleeping and eating, just taking life easy and playing with his children's tractors. (A real farmer at heart.)

Miss Agnes Taylor spent her Christmas in Canisteo.

Prin. Kessler enjoyed the vacation in Andover.
