Legion Apollo Club Benefit Concert Here January 27th

For the third consecutive year, the Apollo Club of Wellsville will be sponsored by the Lynch-Burgett Post, American Legion in their forthcoming concert to be held in the Andover Central School Auditorium, at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, January 27th.

Entire proceeds of this concert will be donated to that very worthy cause, Infantile Paralysis Fund.

The Apollo Club needs no introduction to the people of Andover; having presented a concert here each year since its organization in 1936. The Club is considered the most outstanding male chorus in the Southern Tier.

This highly esteemed aggregation can be depended on to give a well balanced program of Religious, Folk, Spirituals and Modern music, under the able leadership of Mrs. Grace Harris Brown with Miss Marianne Dreher at the piano.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bostick of Andover announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to William Benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Benedict, formerly of Andover, now of Brookville, Pa. No date has been set for the wedding.

Admitted to Hospital

Albert Smith was admitted to Bethesda hospital, Hornell, last Wednesday where he is a surgical patient. He was given a blood transfusion Monday, Carlyle Myers of Andover being the donor.

Buy all the bonds you can. Keep all the bonds you buy.

18 Below This Morning

Somebody turned on the heat last night and took it all away from this area, as the government thermometer at the News office sneaked down to 18 degrees below zero and at 8:30 this morning had only gone up one degree.

Town Board Organization Meeting Held

The Andover Town Board held its annual organizaton meeting in the Town Hall last Thursday evening at which time the following appointments were made:

Marion Theetge, Deputy Town Clery.

Teresa McAndrew, Supervisor's Clerk.

Charles Sutor, Constable and Dog Warden.

Arthur Genung, Constable.

Andover News, official publication.

The Andover National Bank, depository.

Andover Man One of First to Donate Blood to Rochester Blood Center

John L. Cannon of Andover and John Marvin of Fillmore were the first from Allegany county to donate blood for the new Rochester Regional Blood Center.

Messrs. Cannon and Marvin went to Rochester Monday to represent the two Allegany county Red Cross chapters as "first donors" to this new project, which includes 11 Western New York counties.

Capt. Francis McAndrew Assigned to Air School

Captain Francis McAndrew of Wellsville, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McAndrew, has received appointment in the Regular Air Force and is assigned to the Air Weather School in Oklahoma.

This type of appointment, known as "Recess" is made directly by the President of the United States on the basis of efficiency records in World War II and competitive examinations. Captain McAndrew is among 44 appointed from this area from some 22,000 applicants.

He is a graduate of Alfred University and New York University School of Engineering, and was formerly employed as a chemist by the Sinclair Refining Co.

At the next meeting January 20th the unit will begin sewing on the gloves. All members please bring your thimble, No. 7 needle and scissors.

The Evening Unit was organized for the benefit of all those interested but unable to attend daytime meetings. If these qualifications fit you, why not drop in at the next meeting, January 20th at 7:30 p. m.

Rummage Sale

There will be a rummage sale sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary at the bus waiting station in the Legion Home, this week Friday and Saturday, Jan. 16 and 17. Anyone having anything to donate please leave at the waiting room the evening of January 15th.

Annual Meeting Local Bank Stockholders Held

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Andover National Bank was held Tuesday afternoon in the directors room of the bank at which time the following were re-elected as directors for the ensuing year:

Frank W. Burrows, Erwin D. Baker, John E. Cannon, Everett N. Clair, Samuel B. Crandall, A. D. Fuller and Jesse S. Phillips.

The annual report showed that the bank had enjoyed a very prosperous year with an increase in business over any previous year. Dividends at six per cent were paid on the capital stock during the year and a substantial amount added to surplus and undivided profits.

Following the stockholders meeting the directors elected the following officers:

John E. Cannon, Chairman.
A. D. Fuller, President.
Erwin D. Baker, Vice President.
John C. Lever, Cashier.
R. O. Snyder, Asst. Cashier.

Marshall Gurnsey Ill in Chicago.

We are sorry to report that Marshall Gurnsey, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Potter of Andover, was taken suddenly ill while attending an insurance meeting at Chicago last Wednesday.

He was removed to the St. Lukes hospital in Chicago where his condition is serious.

Mrs. Gurnsey is in the city with him.

Presbyterian Church Holds Annual Meeting

Following the morning service last Sunday the congregation of the Presbyterian church numbering about 85, enjoyed a tureen dinner in the church parlors after which the annual business meeting was held.

Dr. W. W. McCall of Hornell, moderator of the Session, presided over the meeting, expressing words of commendation on the splendid reports and financial status of the church, all pledges having been paid and a substantial balance in the treasuries of the various organizations of the church.

Last year's quota for the Restoration Fund has been paid and sufficient pledges have been made for the 1948 quota.

Erwin D. Baker was re-elected to serve as elder, his term having expired. Two new elders, Mrs. Sara Harder and Harry Baker were elected for terms of three years. The installation services will be held in the near future.

Miss Dorothea Snyder and William Lang were re-elected trustees for terms of three years.

Mrs. K. D. Bostwick was elected as co-chairman to act with Mrs. Orville Kupp on the Harvest Home committee.

The appreciation of the work of the Sunday School superintendent, Almon Wood was fittingly spoken and he was re-elected. Miss Frances Baker was also re-elected Sunday school secretary and treasurer.

Rev. A. N. Rogers, stated supply, gave his report expressing a deep appreciation for the very friendly relations that exist between himself and the entire church.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer for the continued prosperity of the church.
