Deer Take in 1947 All Time High Record

The Conservation Department has announced a harvest of 17,322 legal buck deer taken in New York State during the 1947 open season, which is an all time state record for antlered deer and a ten per cent increase over the 1946 take. The kill, estimated on the usual number of delinquent sportsmen and those who neglect to report their kills at all, was undoubtedly in excess of 20,000, declares the Department.

As in 1946, the Southern Tier reported the greatest kill—6,462 bucks. The Adirondacks area was second with 6,094 and the Catskill area third with 4,787.

In the Southern Tier counties Allegany county led with 816 bucks reported in 1947 as compared with 893 in 1946. Cattaraugus was second with 738 and Steuben third with 703. In 1946 the Cattaraugus county take was 686 and the Steuben county take 917.
