Legion Team Wins And Loses in Last Week's Games

The Andover Legionnaires rode to a 62-55 win over the sharp Hornell Modern team on the home court last Wednesday evening and the following evening journeyed to Canaseraga and dropped a close one to the Canaseraga Legion team.

The Hornell game was the best played game of the two and the locals were hot and played what was probably their best game of the year. The Hornell Modern team is recognized as one of the best cage teams in the Steuben area and the locals had to go great guns to beat them. "Slip" Karcanes and George Joyce each racked up 21 points followed by "Whitey" Gorsuch with 10. The Legion got off to a flying start and led the Hornell team 18-8 at the end of the first quarter. It was a well played game, clean all the way; Karcanes dropped them in all evening from the midcourt area on set shots while Joyce and Gorsuch were dropping them in from around the bucket.

O'Neal led the Hornell team with 16 points, but it was the sharp floor work and ball handling of lanky Modern center, Jim Dagan, which was one of the high lights of the evening; he also dropped in 15 points for the Hornell quint.

The Canaseraga game was quite different with the locals being strictly off and missing several lay-up shots. The Canaseraga team insisted on playing 12-minute quarters which added up to the longest game the locals every played, along with some green high school refereeing was enough to beat any team.

Canaseraga's "Okie" Archer was high man for the evening with 28 points, 20 of which he racked up in the first half. G. Joyce was high for Andover with 10 markers followed by Karcanes with nine and Dugan and Gorsuch with eight each. The Canaseraga Legion team is composed mainly of Hornell players this year instead of being strictly a Canaseraga team.

Following are the summaries for the two games:

State Aid for Schools Increased For First Quarter

Allegany county residents who are concerned over the probability of higher taxation on real estate due to the increases in school costs and teachers' salaries are somewhat relieved by an increase of $85,000 in State aid for schools in Allegany county over that received for the same period last year.

County Treasurer Frank L. Gere has announced that $332,037.41 has been made available in state aid for schools for the first quarter of the 1947-1948 school year, as compared with $246,788.00 for the same period last year. The increase is to be divided as follows: $44,516.00 in state aid and $40,733.41 more available for teachers' salaries.

Andover's share of this fund is $18,855.

To the People

The Boy Scouts of America (Troop 42, Andover, N. Y.,) wish to express their thanks to those people of Andover who willingly assisted in making the Paper Drive and Bake Sale successful last Saturday, January 30th. Our sincere thanks to Donald Kent and Joseph Hemmer who furnished trucks with which the papers were collected.

Papers will be collected once a month in the future.

Boy Scout week, February 6th-13th, is a week during which citizens of today lend aid through contributions, etc., to the citizens of tomorrow. — Everyone will be asked for a donation and those who give will be well repaid by our future citizens.

The Troop has been run haphazardly in the past few years but now they are really going. Four hundred dollars are needed to equip the Scouts and we hope we may depend on you.

Never get the idea that the Boy Scouts are a bunch of "rummies", for they aren't. It is necessary that we depend on you for aid so please don't let us down.

Supervisors Turn Down Health Department Plan

The switching of two supervisors, Robert Green of Scio and Clair Baker of New Hudson, who had formerly supported the County Health Department plan to the opposite side defeated the proposed plan at the regular meeting of the Allegany County Board of Supervisors held Tuesday in Belmont. The final vote was 16 against to 13 in favor.

January Sets Record for Low Temperatures

For the past three weeks the weather has held a prominent part in local discussions which in many instances was "cussing."

In making out our monthly report to the U. S. Weather Bureau for the month of January we note a few interesting points in regard to the latter part of the month.

The outstanding feature is the fact that we enjoyed ten below-zero temperatures ranging all the way from 1 below to 26 below, as follows:

This is by far the longest continued cold spell on the records at the News office, which have been kept since April 1922.

While the 26 below on January 31st is exceptional, it is not the lowest temperature recorded in Andover. The low is 34 below zero on the morning of February 9, 1934. This cold spell, however, only lasted three days, being 19 below on the 8th, 34 below on the 9th and 24 below on the 10th of that year. The 26 below of this year, however, is second best.

The highest temperature for this January was 38 above on the first day of the month. The snowfall for the month was 20½ inches, which contained 2.01 inches of moisture.
