LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Word was received last week by Harry Lynton of the death of his sister, Mrs. John Raver of Harrisburg, Pa.

Attorney Clarence H. Brisco of Corning has been appointed Steuben County Judge to succeed the late George King also of Corning.

Following the C. M. A. prayer meeting last Thursday night the group gave Frank Maulby a surprise visit at his home in honor of his 78th birthday.

The many friends of Mrs. Adah Mullen of Canisteo are sorry to learn that she is very ill with pneumonia at St. James Mercy hospital, Hornell.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Mayme Joyce has recovered sufficiently from her broken arm as to resume her duties as night operator at the telephone office this week.

Mrs. Kenneth McClure entertained the Sewing Club at her home Wednesday night, assisted by Mrs. Oliver Kemp. A social evening with the members busy with sewing and mending was followed by refreshments.

A family dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greene Monday, celebrating the birthday of Mr. Greene. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Crandall of Independence and Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Greene of Railroad Valley.

A family dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nobles of Rochambeau avenue Thursday, January 29th in honor of the 87th birthday of Mr. Nobles. Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Sutherland and family of Shovel Hollow were among those attending.

The Woodruff cheese employees held a 6:30 o'clock supper and shower at the home of Mrs. Mildred Woodruff Sunday night, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Louis Snyder. The evening was passed with games and the honored guests presented a gift from the company.

Mrs. Alta Hoagland and Mrs. Leona Slocum have received word of the announcement of the engagement of their niece, Mrs. Marion Mead Crane to Senator Ives. The wedding will take place this summer. Mrs. Crane was the daughter of Orin Mead, formerly of Andover.

Announcement has been made that deputy collectors will be at the Post Office in Wellsville from February 23rd to March 15 to assist taxpayers with the preparation of their 1947 income tax returns and 1948 estimate tax return.

A pen of 39 single comb White Leghorn hens owned by Glenn Wagner, operator of the Snow White poultry farm at Cuba has been announced as high honor pen of New York State in a national egg laying contest conducted by the American council. Over a three year period entries of Mr. Wagner layed 239.3 eggs per bird.

At a recent meeting of the Allegany County Federation of Sportsmens Clubs held at the Belmont Conservation Club the following officers were elected for 1948: Dr. R. J. Behringer, Friendship, president; Robert A. Reed, Belmont, vice president; Wilson Kopler, Fillmore, secretary and L. R. Pickup, Wellsville, treasurer.

The home and contents of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Stuck on the Knights Creek road, Scio, was totally destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon. The entire inside of the house was in flames when discovered by Mr. Stuck when he returned from Scio village late in the afternoon. The fire is thought to have started near the chimney.

Monday, February 2nd was not only "Ground Hog Day" but was also the birthday of Mrs. Mary (Grandma) Linsler of Ellicottville, Pa., who was 106 years old on that day. Mrs. Linsler, believed to be the oldest person in the eastern part of the United States, was born in Baden-Baden, Germany, Feb. 2, 1842, and came to this country with her parents at the age of four. She now resides with her daughter, Mrs. Erton Brewer of Ellicottville.
