Scribner's Monthly for February is before us, fruitful of information and richly illustrated. There is a saying which goes thus:—The way to get out of a tight spot, is to sit still and fire the spot out.

TO KEEP out of a tight spot you must buy your Harness, Trunks &c., at H. E. Miner's Harness Shop, on the corner of Main and Greenwood Sts.

Mr. Miner has the largest stock of trunks, valises, satchels, carpet bags, sleigh bells, harness, bridles, whip &c., ever kept in this county and he will sell at prices that can't be beat in Western New York. He has also in his employ one of the best workmen in this county. Give him a call.

PERSONAL—We received a call on Monday of this week from V. A. Willard, local editor of the Belmont Reporter.

That jolly, whole-souled Joseph Gillies, paid us a visit on Tuesday. You can spend an hour as pleasantly with Joseph as any man we know of in Allegany county.

We received a call from Mr. Joseph Crandall, of Whitesville, yesterday.—He reports things moving on lively there. Joseph is to have P. M. (which is postmaster) affixed to his name again.

The Regency at Alfred made a distribution of the Literature Fund, on the 12th inst., and the amount received by the several schools in this county, is as follows:

Alfred University,	$376,02
Friendship Academy	79 20
Genesee Val. Seminary,	214,47

Alfred University Academical Department for the instruction of Common School Teachers also receives $200, ranking among the first and highest in the State.

DRAMATIC.—On Saturday evening last we were furnished, as advertised, with about two hours of pleasant pastime at Ellis' Hall. The Almond Historical Association rendered to us a Drama, entitled Charles XII of Sweden, in which the characters were sustained in a manner that reflected much credit on the troupe; it being the third time which they had appeared upon the stage. Their afterpiece, entitled Family Jars, was well executed. Every character acted their parts ably. We understand that they have a new Drama nearly ready called the Chimney Corner. We hope the troupe will visit us again soon; yes, come again.

FIRE.—On Monday evening last, about 6 o'clock, an alarm of fire was given, when it was discovered that the farm residence of J. A. Robinson, situated about three-fourths of a mile west of the village, was on fire. Every team that could be got was loaded and driven to the place as fast as possible, but when help got there the whole upper story was in flames. With great effort the furniture and nearly all the other things on the first floor was saved. There were but few things up stairs. A south west wind blowing at the time was what saved the barn, which was on the west side of the house some six or eight rods distant, containing some 30 or 40 tons of hay, and 40 head of cattle. The house was large and built entirely of pine and burned rapidly.—nothing in the cellar was saved. There is no means of knowing just how the fire originated. The circumstances are as follows: About 4 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Robinson and his wife came home from Mr. Stephen Robinson's, whose daughter was lying, as supposed, at the point of death, and opened the damper in the coal stove that was in the dining room, so as to start the fire up, and a fire was started in the kitchen stove in the wing, adjoining the main building. After eating supper they went back to Mr. Robinsons where Mr. J. A. Robinson left his wife and drove up to the village. He had been up there some over half an hour when the alarm was given. Those who first saw the fire supposed it was the chimney burning out, and watched it until it went out, but in a few minutes afterwards it re-appeared along the ridge of the roof. Several neighbors living near by, on reaching the house found it locked, and broke in, but were unable to go up stairs.—Mr. Robinson had an insurance on the house of $1,500; the loss is estimated at $2,500, and an insurance of $500 on provisions, clothing and furniture, on which he receives for damages and loss, $305,50.

We wish to say to the good folks of this village, and everybody else, that good teeth are a great blessing. Sound healthy, natural teeth we mean.—What of it? Why, just this: If any of you are so very unfortunate as to possess a tooth that is not sound and healthy, the very best thing for you to do, our word for it, is to call at the office of Dr. F. J. Baker, Ellis' Block, Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan 30th & 31st. You will find there, J. N. Forbes, who has for more than twenty years, made the Human teeth his study and has paid especial attention to filling and saving the natural teeth.

He will be here two or three days of each week, and wishes particularly to see all who have teeth that other Dentists have condemned to extraction.

Office hours from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Report of the Proceedings of the Allegany County Lodge. I. O. of G.T.

The Allegany County Lodge of Good Templars held their regular quarterly session at Cuba, N. Y., commencing Tuesday, Jan. 9th, and continuing through two days. A fair delegation was present, although all the Lodges of the County were not represented.

The following were the Lodges reported by delegates present:—Rushford, Short Tract, Centerville, Scio, Belmont, Canealea, Angelica, Bolivar, Friendship, Andover, Whitesville and Cuba. The first day's session was devoted to examination the credentials of the delegates and hearing reports from the different Lodges.

In the evening, Rev. Henry Ward, G. W. C. T., addressed the people of Cuba and vicinity upon the subject of temperance. He handled the subject in a manner both novel and interesting; presenting facts and figures quite astounding, unless one has considered the financial side of the whiskey question. He seems to be the right man in the right place.

The time of the second day's session was taken up in electing and installing officers, and in transacting the general business of the Order.

The following officers were elected, and installed by G. W. V. T., Mrs. Martha B Dickinson:

C. C. T. Dr. J. L. Cutler, Bolivar,
C. V. T. Mrs. Furgeson, Short Tract.
C. S. Sheridan Gorton, Belmont.
C. A. S. Miss Flora Hughes, Friendship.
C. F. S., E. B. Hunt, Cuba.
C. T., Miss Mary Loomis, "
C. M., W. H. Wardner. Rushford.
C. D. M.; Miss Mary Pratt, "
C. I. G., Mrs. J. Huff, Canealea.
C. O. G., Mr. Bean, Centerville.
C. C. E. L. Newman, Rushford.
R. H. S., M. Strickland, Short Tract.
L. H. S., M. White, Rushford

Resolutions were passed extending the thanks of the Lodge to Superintendent Boggs, of the Erie Railroad, for detaining a train for the convenience of those attending the Lodge; to the members of the Cuba Lodge for their hospitality in entertaining the delegates; and to the G. W. C. T. and G. W. V. T. for their presence, words of cheer, and wise counsel.

The Baptist Church was kindly tendered to us for the evening session and was well filled with an audience who seemed greatly interested in the subject of temperance.

The Order seems to be in a flourishing condition in most parts of the county, but it can be advanced. Work is what is needed; true and earnest labor by Christian men and women.—Let us put our shoulders to the wheel, and roll on the reform until the majority of the people of Old Allegany enlist under the peaceful folds of our protecting banner.

SHERIDAN GORTON,
County Sec., I. O. of G. T.

Teachers Association.

The recent session of the Teachers Association for the Southern District of Allegany County, held at Cuba, was very much of a success. The plan of calling out a younger class of teachers for practical work at these educational gatherings, operates well thus far.—The appointees who were present, did themselves and the Association much credit. The work presented was of a high order while it was thoroughly practical. The speech of welcome by E. D. Loveridge, Esq., was thoroughly characteristic of the man, and just what might be expected. Mr. Loveridge is himself a worker and is not ashamed of it; and any teacher who listened to his speech, ought to be ashamed of himself if he still finds himself longing for a more honorable or a less laborious calling. His theme was "Work in this world—rest in the next," and it was ably handled. H. J. Swift, Esq. reported himself absent. Mrs. Allen, of Alfred, made some very good suggestions accompanied with practical illustrations for teaching drawing.—The discussion for Thursday evening came near falling on account of the absence of both disputants. Mr. Sheridan Gorton was detained very much against his will, by a specious engagement. No reason was assigned for Mr. Jenkson's absence. Citizens and others finally came to the rescue, with extempor speeches, music, &c., and made the evening quite an enjoyable, if not an instructive occasion. The evening session was held in the Universalist Church, and the house was well filled.

Miss Lawyer's class in Map Drawing did nicely, and Miss Coon's Primary class read well.

S. Mc. Norton read a paper on "The True Aim of the Teacher." Miss Brown also gave a good exercise in Mental Arithmetic. Spirited discussions succeeded each of these exercises, and various methods and suggestions were offered.

Miss Douse, of Alfred, gave a succinct off-hand expose of the method of teaching Language, or Grammar, as practiced in nearly, or quite, all of our State Normal Schools, but technically known as the "Oswego Method."—Miss Simons of Andover, read a carefully prepared essay on Methods of instruction and recitation in general, in which she had condensed many valuable suggestions in a limited space.—If she practices as she rites she does well. Mr. Frank Sibley of Cuba, gave a practical talk on school government, and the session closed about half past twelve o'clock Friday, P. M.

Several of the appointees failed to come to time, and among them, some who have never been known to do otherwise, and nobody expects they ever will. Trustees and Boards of Education will do well to look after those teachers who habitually and voluntarily hold themselves aloof from Associations and Institutes. All such will bear watching. In every such case, there is sure to be rottenness in in Denmark, and proper vigilance will not fail to discover it.

The next session is to be held at Genesee, between the 1st and 15th of June. Mr. Blakeslee merits the thanks of the Association for the able manner in which he presided over its deliberations.

Communication.

EDITOR ADVERTISER:—I heartily endorse many of the sentiments expressed in your last (Jan. 18th) issue, in an article under the heading "A Good word for Local Papers." The local paper does (or should) reach all, and it does (or should) give all a means of expressing themselves on all questions which pertain to the public good, or the interests of the locality in which it is published. But when it is used as the medium for advancing the interests of a certain faction, placing itself in the debasing attitude of a parasite to such faction; at the same time turning a deaf ear to the voice of any who may chance to be outside the "ring,"—it deserves not to be called, and is not, the herald of the popular voice of the community, no more than the certificates of cure in the advertisement of Walker's Vinegar Bitters are an expression of the medical profession of our land in regard to its merits. It is our representative in just so far as we are permitted a voice in its columns; and just in this proportion are we responsible for its prosperity—no less—no more.

Now, Mr. Editor, this is no new feeling in regard to your paper in this community. You cannot charge this people with being dilatory in rallying to your support. They responded with alacrity to the "first call," and have well supported you up to the present time. They have a right, then, to demand an impartial place and hearing in your columns. Has this been the case? I answer, No! It requires no keenness of perception to discern its one-sided tone throughout. As you have a right to expect the support of the public, so has it a right to exact from you a paper that shall be eclectic, able, high-toned. We pay the educator to educate our children; we pay the editor to educate the people in regard to the demands of the times, one is as responsible as the other. I write this, not from a spirit of censure, but from an honest conviction that it is a wrong sustained by your supporters which you can, and should, remove.

Respectfully,
F. J. B.

Andover, Jan. 20th, 1872.

The above we give place to, more for the reason of allaying an impression that a few of our citizens have, or, rather, think they have. The correspondent first charges us with using our paper top advance the interest of a certain faction, and turning a deaf ear to the voice of any who may be outside the 'ring.' First, we deny that the paper is published in the interest of any certain faction, or has in any way showed partiality, knowingly, to any person, persons, or society; nor have we turned a deaf ear to the voice of any person, persons, or society. What, then, does our correspondent mean? Some time ago we published a receipt for the cure of the small-pox, from a scientific journal, and the week following, this correspondent furnished us a reply, wherein he claimed it all "bosh!" but not having room for it that week we laid it on our table, intending to give it publication the following week, but it was mislaid and forgotten, and, therefore, was not published. Soon after we noticed, in the news columns of the Elmira Advertiser, a statement that the receipt above mentioned had been used very successfully in Philadelphia. We conclude that this is where he intended one of his shots should hit. We do not deny that we may have showed a preference, by way of notices, to the merchants who advertise with us, and that we shall continue to do.

And further, we deny all that the correspondent would have our readers understand,—that we are publishing a paper in the interest of any "ring" or set of men. And, now that he has made charges, we ask this offended man to explain himself.
