SENIORS START WORK ON YEAR BOOK

This week the senior class is starting the work on the year book. They are selling subscriptions to students and people in the halls in the morning, and at noon and after school. If pupils who wish to purchase year books, well please get your subscription in and make a small down payment, the seniors will know just how many books to order. Also the advertising committee is taking advertisements from local merchants this week to be published in the book.

Last Tuesday during a meeting with Mr. Bartz, the editor, Earl Richardson, and assistant editor, John Bridge, discussed plans as to the make up of the book and the arrangement of the material. The make up of the material will start immediately so that the book will be ready to be put on sale by the first of June.

The book will be indeed worthy of everyone's praise, for the covers are of heavy blue padded material with gold lettering. The pages have glossy finish and the book will be filled with reports of all school events both athletic, social and scholastic. There will be individual pictures of all the members of the Senior cass and a picture of all the grades as well the extra organizations.

members of the year book have been chosen as fol-

BAND AND CHORUS ANTICIPATE FESTIVAL

Andover Central School's music department has received an invitation to attend the Genesee County Music Festival, to be held in Cuba this Spring.

The selections that will be played and sung by the band and chorus have not yet been determined.

Although the exact date for the festival has not yet been set, the music department is beginning to choose selections for the occasion.

ACS STUDENT BODY APPLAUDS SERENADERS

The Serenaders entertained the students and teachers in the Andover school auditorium February 5th at 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Bloem have an enviable reputation as vocalists and instrumentalists. In her private life, Mrs. Bloem is rated as one of the finest pianists in the Hollywood movie capital. Mr. Bloem, a bass-baritone soloist, has traveled thruout the country with outstanding singing organizations. With them was their son, also a soloist, who was just graduated from high school.

ROVING REPORTER

Since our basketball team has made such a fine showing this year, with eight straight league victories, we thought it would be quite appropriate to see how a number of the students would respond to the question "Do you think Andover will represent the "C" League of Allegany county at Rochester this year"?

Coach Chaffee: "I think Andover should go, unless we have a very poor night at one of the playoffs. Although we lack the height for the rebounds, lately we have been making up for it with a lot of 'scrap'."

John Karl Fisher replied quite confidently: "Well, personally, I think they will."

Madge Collins, who would be overwhelmed with joy to be able to cheer at Rochester, is quite confident in the team's ability by replying: "Yep, I sure do."

Bill Holt: "I hope so, it would be great to play at Rochester for a change, instead of going to see another team play."

Jim Burgett, who is one of the first five, and real good at swishing in those neat long shots, thinks it's quite probable that we will be fortunate enough to go farther than we did last year—maybe even to Rochester.

Don Mulconery, who is another of the first five, said: "If we keep playing ball like we have been, and stick together, I think we should."

All in all the students we have approached seem quite confident that Andover will and should represent the "C" league at Rochester in the finals. PJD-HKY

ANDOVER WINS 10th STRAIGHT GAME

Tuesday, February 10th the local tanglers racked up their tenth straight league win on the home hardwood. As you perhaps know, the competition arrived from Genesee.

Richardson was high with 11 points in the 36-20 victory for the varsity. Don Scott flipped in 12 points for honors on the Junior Varsity. Duane Hackett moved up a peg and is now playing on the varsity. It is Coach Chaffee's idea to have more reserves ready just in case we journey to the playoffs.

Thursday (tonight) the locals wrangle at Richburg and this will be the game of the season. If the Panthers are victorious it will clinch the section title. Richburg has a tough team and the boys will have to be on the ball.

WHO? ALLENTOWN

Last Friday, February 6th a jolly bunch left the home stamping grounds for inevitable victories against the Allentown quints. The Junior Varsity started the slaughter when they rolled up a 59-12 score behind the 10-point final quarter leadership of Paul McCormick. "Pudge" really got hot and just flipped the old pill through the net for five fourth-quarter field goals.

In the varsity onslaught Bill Holt held honors, with seven field scores giving him a grand total of 14 for the evening's performance. Coach Chaffee was able to substitute freely in both games.

Allentown was the victim of the Panthers ninth straight league conquest which helped the locals in their rule as the undisputed league leaders.

Saturday evening the locals will tangle with the Bolivar Bulldogs on the latter's court and are in for a tough time and possibly a shellacking.

GRADE NEWS

CHIT-CHAT

It seems that the Seniors have survived more or less from their bake sale Saturday, and from all reports, it certainly turned out to be a good investment.

Lila Childs enjoyed herself over the week-end, although she worked some, she spent most of her time eating and sleeping, except when she was with Miles.

Some of the Seniors are busy filling out applications for college, and this is what we found Helen Yannie and Pat Dolan doing, completing the information needed by having their physicals.

Madge went to Pennsylvania over the week-end, and spent all day Saturday going through the stores in Scranton.

One of the most prominent Seniors, Rosie Baker, experimented on her cooking ability by making cookies for the bake sale.

Phyllis Burdick was stuck in her driveway for the week-end and therefore she did not have too much fun, but a lot of exercise digging the car out of the ditch.

Is Maxine Filler's latest flame Bruce Nye or Bob Baker? We see her with both.

Did Barbara Wintemberg enjoy herself Saturday night?

We see Nedra and Teddy O'Dell are still going together.

Who is Joan McAndrew's new interest this week? She seems to like the name Joe in the town of Hornell.

Who was Frances Baker with Friday night at the Allentown game? Could it be one of our handsome Juniors?

Why is Teresa Padden so quiet lately?

From all reports we heard Teresa Joyce enjoyed the basketball game with Alfred-Almond.

Who is taking Dean Fisher's mind from his work lately?

Why is it that Janet Hall likes Saturday nights so well? Could it be because that "certain someone" comes around then?

Who is this young man that would cause Maxine Baker to have heart failure if she couldn't go skating every Friday night?

Who is keeping Lena Bridge out so late she can't get to school on time lately?

It looks as if it's love in vain for Vic Daley with Dale Green hanging around all the time. Too bad Vic.

Dick Hancock, don't forget what Mr. Reil said, or there's going to be trouble in general science class.

For whom did "Connie" McAndrews save a seat on the bus? It couldn't be a certain Junior boy, could it?

We wonder if Alice Bostick is still receiving those letters from Curly Benedict.
