ANDOVER NEWS

A PROGRESSIVE FAMILY NEWSPAPER FOR ALLEGANY COUNTY PEOPLE — IN POLITICS INDEPENDENT BUT NEVER NEUTRAL.

VOL. 63, NO. 8. For the Week Ending Thursday, Feb. 19, 1948. $2.50 year; 7c copy

New State Plan Would Give Andover $96,200

The proposed new basic formula for State aid to central schools as released the past week by the Governor's committee on the State Educational Program would raise the state aid for Andover Central School from $81,500 to $96,200, an increase of $14,700.

The above figure includes emergency state aid for teachers' salaries, but does not include state aid for adult education, transportation, or special classes.

Under the new formula Belmont Central School would receive the largest increase of Allegany county schools, $19,900. The total Allegany county state aid for central schools under the proposed formula would be $175,400.

Elm Valley Hustlers Win Second in 4-H Contest

Announcemet is made by the 4-H Club office that three of Allegany county's clubs won awards in the third annual "Better 4-H Club Programs Contest" which is conducted through the office of Dairy Specialist, H. A. Willman of Cornell University and sponsored by the Sears Roebuck Foundation.

Topping the list of blue ribbon winners was Maynard Boyse's club at Scio which won a $50.00 award. In the red ribbon class the Elm Valley Hustlers led by Lawrence Perkins won a $30.00 award. The Peavy Progressive 4-H Club led by Glenn Lilly led in the white ribbon group winning $10.00.

The winners were selected on a basis of all-round program activities for 1947, including dairy management practices, demonstrations, judging, exhibiting, record keeping and completions. Ninety clubs having a total of 1948 boys and girls participated.

Ernest G. Greene

Ernest G. Greene died at his home on Center street about 8 o'clock Sunday evening, February 15, 1948 following an illness of five years' duration.

Ernest Germaine Greene was born in the town of Alfred January 26, 1893, a son of Maxon A. and Mary Capin Greene. Before enlisting for service in World War I he was employed by the University Bank of Alfred, and after returning from the war engaged in banking in Cleveland, Ohio, until retiring on account of ill health about five years ago.

He was married in 1926 to Minnie L. Brandt, who survives together with three brothers, Edward V. Greene of Alfred Station, Harry C. Greene of Tampa, Fla., and Clarence E. Greene of Silver Valley and a sister, Mrs. Milford A. Crandall of Independence.

Deceased was a member of Brooklyn Post No. 233, American Legion of Cleveland. He enlisted as a private in the army during World War I, was commissioned second lieutenant on July 11, 1918, and received his honorable discharge on August 6, 1919, after serving overseas.

Services were held at the home at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. Albert N. Rogers officiating. Burial, with military honors in charge of the Lynch-Burgett Post, American Legion of Andover, was in Alfred Rural cemetery.

News Briefs of Local Servicemen

New York Port of Embarkation, Brooklyn—Private 1st Class Eldon L. Kaple, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kaple of Andover has been assigned as a military train guard to accompany the bodies of returned American war dead on their final rail journey home.

Like the majority of men in a specially-trained, 375-man Escort Detachment, Pfc. Kaple volunteered for specific war dead duty. As a train guard, he travels on funeral trains composed of special mortuary cars used to transport remains from the Port of Embarkation to the 14 distribution centers which make final delivery of the bodies to next of kin or to National cemeteries.

While enroute on his official duties, Pfc. Kaple travels in a regular pullman specially set aside for use of the train commander and guards. Each train guard is responsible for the safe transport and dignified handling of remains in his charge, each mortuary car containing approximately 60 caskets.

The New York Port of Embarkation is the port of entry on the east coast for all American war dead being returned from European battlefields.

Pfc. Kaple's new address is:

Pfc. Eldon L. Kaple, 12295816
1300 A.S.U., Det. No. 5,
N.Y.P.E., Brk C.,
Brooklyn N. Y.

Concert Date Changed to Saturday, Feb. 28

The date of the organ concert at the Presbyterian church has been changed to Saturday, February 28th at 8 p. m.

Melvin Denson, organist from Watkins Glen, will play organ music selected for your enjoyment. Assisting Mr. Denson, Margaret M. Wolf of this village will play several violin numbers and Carolene D. Milligan, daughter of Mr. Denson, will present a vocal solo.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the King's Daughters and at the Baker's Hardware store.

Alonzo P. Taylor

Alonzo P. Taylor, 71, a former Andover resident, died Wednesday, February 11, 1948 at the home of his son, Edwin Taylor of 28 Brooks street, Canandaigua.

A retired farmer, he was born in Emporium, Pa., Feb. 3, 1877, son of Fred Z. and Fannie Peck Taylor.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Harold Lehman of Andover; two sons, Edwin A. Taylor and Andrew I. Taylor, both of Canandaigua; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Hann of Andover and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 1 p. m., from the Kennedy Chapel, Bristol street, Canandaigua, the Rev. Stephen S. Pratt, pastor of Chapin Methodist church officiating. Due to adverse road conditions interment will be made at Andover at a later date.

Appreciation

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy during my illness and in the loss of our infant daughter.

Mrs. George Mickle

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my thanks to friends and neighbors for their kindness and expressions of sympathy in my time of sorrow.
