VOL. XIII. ANDOVER, N. Y. FEB. 19, 1948 NO. 25

By Rose Mary Baker

Upon whose shoulders does the responsibility of our future nation rest? As strange as it may seem this responsibility lies with an alarming degree upon the teachers of the children of all ages in America today.

In high school, students get a great deal of basic knowledge for continuing education. This is very essential if young people are to make a success of themselves in future years. In the elementary grade we find more of a general education stressed and it is here where opionions are molded and take form. It is the responsibility of these teachers of younger students to teach their pupils to think clearly, without prejudice and to understand that this is the basis of [illegible] democratic way of life.

[illegible]ry teachers both in gram[illegible] and secondary schools have the responsibility of showing the [illegible]s how our nation has grown and how it differs from other nations, but it is up to all teachers to preserve this heritage.

If a young person cannot carry out the responsibility put upon his shoulders when he votes, of what worth is he to his country? The teachers of today from kindergarten through high school must show the students how the America of the future depends upon their own action. These mere youngsters of today must soon take up the battle of upholding the ideals of their nation and let no nation or group of nations, men or group of men, lower them into submission.

Careful supervision of youngsters by teachers who are interested in the peace of the world will insure within the students themselves the proper attitude towards tyrannical idealisms and monarchies.

If the voters of America have the right attitude towards freedom it cannot help but spread throughout the world in these days when nations and peoples are so interdependent upon each other.

Visualize for a moment the number of students taught by one teacher alone during his or her career in this field. Would not the opinions formed by these students, under the careful guidance of one of these teachers, cast a shadow on the public opinion of America in the future?

The responsibility of teaching is great and those who enter the field of teaching must, as a necessity, keep in mind that, when their job is done and their duty performed, it is the students they taught who must carry on, and will do so with the ideals the teachers themselves have stressed.

So lies the future of our nation—in the hands of the teachers of today!

"If you stand with your back to the south what have you on your left hand?" asked the teacher during the geography lesson.

The small boy thought, considered his hands, and gave the right answer. "Fingers."

Andover Panthers Section Two Champs

by Ray Smith

Last Thursday evening February 12th the local tanglers indulged in perhaps what is one of the toughest wrangles of the current season, that of the decisive battle for Section Championship. The 40-37 victory over Richburg's Eckhart men sends the panthers to Bolivar Friday February 27th for the county title tilt in which Friendship will provide much worthy competition.

Earl Richardson proved top man in the scoring limelight with 12 markers. Don Mulconery flattened out for nine including the final minutes field goal which gave Andover ample lead to insure victory. Bill Holt, although not famous for scoring ability was a determining factor in the victory as he held back many a Richburg basket with his wonderfull floor game. Jim Burgett and Bob Burger were the sparkplugs of the teamwork as they brought the ball from front court into scoring position. Dick Lynch did not remain on court for the entirety of the game due to illegal use of body in contact.

Andover has this season a team that can play ball when the chips are stacked against victory. Many a season has passed that due to lack of spirit Andover teams have remained at home while other teams represented class C in Rochester. Well, we hope this will not happen and with all due good luck and an on night the locals will journey to Rochester.

The Junior Varsity trampled the Richburg Juniors 37-17 and this also clinches the Section title for them and they will journey side by side with the Varsity to Bolivar where they will perform in a preliminary J. V. title match against Coach Ambrose Dewey's Angelica giants.

SATURDAY NIGHT

In a Saturday February 14th wrangle the local boys were trimmed 48-38 by an excellent Bolivar team an the latter's court. Mulconery with 11 scored high for the locals and Shaner, (Bolivar) was high for the evening. Andover ripped through the Bulldogs defense for an early lead which was not maintained. This was a good game and it also gave local talent a chance to learn the Bolivar court for the playoffs.

In the J. V. tangle we were downed again to the tune of a 29-20 score. The boys didn't do much the first half but rallied too late in the second half to win the game but early enough to slow down an overwhelming defeat.

ROVING REPORTER

In view of the great amount of talent possessed by our grand old seniors, it seems only fitting that they should present a Senior play. Therefore, to incite interest among the seniors, we decided to get their opinions on the question "How would you like to be in the Senior play?"

Karl Fisher: A short part would be fine.

Madge Collins: I'd like to be the sound-effects man.

Lila Childs: If it's a comedy I think I'd shine.

Dolores Snyder: My secret ambition would be fulfilled.

Philis Mascho: I'd love to.

John Bridge: Uh-huh.

Pat Dolan: Anything to get us out of debt.

Phyllis Nye: I'd enjoy it providing it was a good play.

Earl Richardson: Dandy.

From these comments it is quite evident that the seniors are all in favor of a play this year, so be prepared, everyone, to see our seniors displaying their talent in the near future.

GIRLS PROVE STIFF COMPETITION IN NOON SPORTS

During the noon hours of the week a great roar is heard coming from the gymnasium. Inside we find the very competitive sport of basketball in session. In these games we fnid the girls playing against the boys.

The rules followed are alternately boys and girls and we find that the girls are the winners when playing their own rules and the boys likewise when playing their rules.

The total scores of the fifth and sixth grade boys and girls were Helldivers (boys) one win and Four Leaf Clovers (girls) one loss when playing boys rules.

In the high school competition we find Slocum's Raiders (boys) with two wins and two losses and tied with the apposing team, Shutt's All Stars who have two wins and two losses.

The girls' rules were played twice and the boys' rules twice.

GYM CLASS SCORES ARE ANNOUNCED

The seventh period gym class basketball scores as totaled to January 29th are as follows:

Indiana tied Notre Dame with eleven wins, four losses and two ties. The Globe Trotters followed with six wins, ten losses and one tie. The Bisons bring up the rear with three wins, thirteen losses and one tie.

The play offs of these teams of 7B and 8B students resulted with Indiana leading after beating Notre Dame 62 to 22 giving them first and second place respectively. Third place is held by the Bisons who beat the Globe Trotters 26 to 24 thus placing them in fourth place.

SENIORS TO HOLD SECOND BAKE SALE

Saturday morning, February 21st at 9 o'clock in the Legion hall the Senior class will hold their second bake sale.

We hope we can depend on all of you to buy from us again. So we shall see you Saturday at the sale.

CHIT-CHAT

Hello, fellow classmates, again we shall try to let you in on some of the more interesting aspects in the private life of some of our friends.

Since, we realize you were all very jubilant over the fact that Andover won this half of the County Championship, we would like you all to know that we are very proud of our two stars, Earl Richardson, who was high scorer, and "Jim" Burgett, who influenced the results by his "neat long shots".

Our ex-classmate "Jo" Theetge spent the week-end in Andover, and she informed us as to how much she enjoyed R.B.I.

Helen Yannie found it quite a difficult task to write an autobiography, without giving them (the directors at Strong Hospital in Rochester) the impression she was a trifle conceited. (but we are aware of the fact that Helen isn't)

Harold Dodge has been thinking strongly of either starting a taxi service, with a fee, or adding an extra seat for himself to sit on, since his car or truck is so loaded at noon-time that he doesn't have any room at all.

"Madge" Collins enjoyed herself immensely over the week-end by taking a trip to Buffalo.

John Karl Fisher was greatly elated over the fact that he played in the Bolivar game.

Dolores Snyder busied herself by taking care of children during the week-end.

We are afraid Lila Childs' fiance is going to be quite put out due to the fact that she is expecting another ring, but this one is to be from her charge, little "Billy" Ford, you can find him most usually surrounded by the "weaker sex" in Greene's Soda Bar. (Fifty cents please for the tip)

Philis Mascho took care of her brother's baby over the week-end.

"Pat" Dolan waited quite patiently over the week-end to journey to Bradford but due to adverse weather conditions was unable to make it.

Joan Joyce is having a tough week. We understand "Dick" is in the hospital and is on the "Road to recovery" and Rita Goodridge doing in Wellsville, Saturday, besides skating?

From all indications Bob Baker has a new flame. It couldn't be Marion Milligan could it?

Does Joan McAndrews have a new flame or are there other reasons for her staying down town so often. Basketball games aren't that interesting are they, Joan?

Annabelle O'Dell seemed to have a nice time on the way home from Richburg Thursday night with Dick Fulton. Why were you so anxious for the lights to go "Annie"? You had better watch out or Matt will get jealous.

The Seven-up Club held its monthly meeting and from all reports everybody had a good time.

Bob Marsh was all excited the day Norma Short was in town. He had a hard time keeping his heart in his chest.

Barb and Teddy were really thrilled over the valentines Alfred Davis gave them.

We didn't know Alfred C. was an authority on women until we read that sign on the bulletin board. Remember that old saying "Still water runs deep."

Who did we see Maxine Filler on the bus with Saturday night? It couldn't be Kent Harder could it?

All the sophomore girls are flashing such pretty new material around we can hardly wait to see what kind of dresses that they will make.

We see Harry Foster and Clarice Nye are back together again! What happened in the first place, Harry?

We see Jack Perrin is taking up Pat Sackett's free time now.

Dean Fisher! Why are you so interested in sitting at that certain study-hall table? Is it because Teresa Joyce sits there?

Marcy Smith is looking around for someone different. What's happened, Franklin?

Say, that's a pretty flashy ring Agnes Davis is wearing. Who is it from Aggie?

Alice Bostick still receives those daily letters from Curly Benedict!

We see Abe Davis has his eye on Louise Loucks now. How about Louise?

GRADE NEWS

On an inspection tour of the grade rooms, this reporter finds that all of the grades had a fine time celebrating Valentine's Day.

Mrs. Helmer's third and fourth grade, along with their Valentine party, enjoyed cookies given to the class by Ruth Huffcutt which she had made herself. Mrs. Helmer gave each member of her class a valentine with a chocolate heart.

The second grade class taught by Mrs. Bennett, enjoyed a Valentine party which consisted of cards, and ice cream and cookies.

Miss Baker's fourth grade class has settled down to work after their Valentine party, and are now making booklets on the life of Abraham Lincoln. They have finished their booklets on the life of Eskimos.

Mrs. Schwarzenbach is having her class work on a program concerning George Washington after having finished the play about the life of Abraham Lincoln in their English class.

Two birthdays were celebrated along with Valentine's day in Miss Jordan's grade last week. They were the birthdays of Barbara Clark, and Larry Brown, and eveyone had their fill of ice cream, cake, and cookies.

The fifth and sixth grade enjoyed a Valentine's day party, and Miss Church would like to thank Mrs. Conde, along with the rest of her class, for the delicious cookies Mrs. Conde made Also in this class the two teams in the arithmetic race headed by Carol Curtis, and Eddie Harkenrider are still tied in their race against each other.

BASKETBALL LEAGUES AT NOON

The Senior League Basketball teams who play during the noon hours consist of Freshmen, and members of the eighth, seventh, and sixth grade. The names of their teams are Blue Jays, Michigan, Notre Dame and Red Sox, respectively.

In the totals we find that as of January 29, 1948 Michigan has moved up from second place to the lead and have twelve wins and four losses.

The Blue Jays take over second place with eight wins and six losses as Notre Dame moves down to third with six wins, eight losses and one tie. The Red Sox hold fourth place with one win, nine losses and one tie.

In the new league formed, the Junior League, the Basketmakers have taken the lead with no defeats and nine wins.

The Shooters are second with two wins, six losses and three ties. The Fortbreakers hold third place with one win, four losses and two ties. The Passers have fourth place with two losses and one tie.

In the non-league games between the Senior and Junior league teams, we find the Basketmakers first with ten wins; the Red Sox second with seven wins and Notre Dame third with three wins.

DID YOU GET YOUR'S YET

Have you purchased your subscription for the year book yet? If not, you had better hurry, for this week Madge Collins is taking subscriptions for the book in the halls mornings, noons, and nights. Just a small down payment of one dollar, or the purchase price of the book will reserve you one of the best year books ever put out in Andover Central School. So take my warning, people, and reserve yours, while there is still time. You will never reget it.
