Col. Williams of Postage, has filed his claim for $5,000 damages against the State by the fire flood which destroyed his dam at Porterville at the time the canal aqueduct was carried away.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—James Seymour, of West Bloomfield, aged twenty-nine years, fell from a straw stack and was buried under it on Tuesday last. He was taken out in about ten minutes but life was extinct.

Mr. Billings says, "Women are heroes on a thousand strings." Yet there is nothing they appreciate more than a ride after a horse with one of those sweet-humored, such as H. E. Miner sells at the corner of Main and Greenwood streets.

No mail was taken from this station from Thursday morning of last week until Monday of this, which is the reason our papers were delayed in reaching our eastern subscribers. Mails both ways have been very irregular for two weeks past.

The Potter County Journal says: "Mr. A. N. Carpenter of Ceres, Allegany county, New York, an uncle of Frank Allen, is in town, as we learn, to satisfy himself respecting the circumstances of the accident at Oswayo, whereby his nephew lost his life.

PERSONAL.—Jeff. Bundy and family, from Scituate, Mich., have been spending a few days in this place, visiting among their friends.

We received a call one day this week from D. S. Bradley, a merchant of this place. Come again.

A chilling domestic drama, in five acts, entitled "THE DRUNKARD," or, "THE EXCESSIVE," will be produced by the members of Forest Home Lodge, at Ellis Hall, on Saturday evening, Feb. 17th.

The Rochester Union states that it has been decided to hold the next Western New York Fair the last week in September next commencing on the 24th. Officers from surrounding county agricultural societies will be included in the managing officers.

At a recent social gathering in Otse, Catt. Co., attended by Mr. Kuziger, of Perry, there were present four women whose united weight was 862 pounds—as follows: Mrs. R. A. Taylor 205, Mrs. Betty Bullard 235, Mrs. D. Hester 205, Mrs. P. Ferris 215.—Warren News.

Thodore S. Pratt, son of Dr. Pratt, of the Corning Journal, died on Saturday, the 5th inst., at Riverdale, St. Lawrence Co., Cal. He was in his twenty-second year. His friends have the consolation of knowing that he was a sincere Christian in this hour of their anguish.

The Dunkirk Journal says the Brooks Locomotive Works at that place have turned out an average of four locomotives a month for the past year. The capacity of the shop has lately been nearly doubled, and this year the average will be seven a month.

There are five papers published in Cattaraugus county, as follows: Cattaraugus Republican, Little Valley; Cattaraugus Union, at Elliptical; Randolph Register, Randolph; Gowanda Gazette, Gowanda; and Olean Times, Olean. The leading papers in the county are the Republican, Union, Register, and Gazette.

Good for the Jamestown girls! A lot of them have joined together and issued a call for a meeting of all the girls in the neighborhood to take into consideration the project of establishing a reading room for young men.—That's a kind of leap year and woman's rights business that even the fogies will hardly oppose.

A FRAUD.—A man signing himself "Geo. E. Harris," and writing from Burlington, Vt., is endeavoring to defraud soldiers of the late war. In his letters he writes that he is engaged in securing back pay and bounties for soldiers and had learned that a large sum is due the man addressed, and he will send him to fill particulars and the law blanks to obtain it, on receipt of one dollar.

BANKS IN BANKING HOUSES.—The cashier of the First National Bank, St. Paul, Minnesota, who is a nominal descendant of John Knox, & Co., and a famous Sunday School man, had occasion to notify the cashier of a bank (probably a Sunday School man also) that his account was overdrawn. For answer he receives the following letter:

Dear Sir:—June 10, 1871. Cashier First National Bank, St. Paul. See Matthew 10:10. Yours, Cashier.

The following was the quick reply: Dear Sir:—June 10, 1871. Yours, Cashier.

Stubbs said to one of his debtors, "I'm it about time you paid me that little bill?" "My dear Sir," was the consoling reply, "it is not a question of time—it is a question of money."

A good story is told of an engineer, who runs on the Erie Road between here and Hornellville. One day a squaw, holding a papoose in her arms, was standing on the depot steps at Salamanca. As the engineer was drawing his train up to the station he observing her, called, "Hello! have you got a little Injun there?" "No," said she, "It's half Injun and half Injuner!"—Dunkirk Journal.

FIRE IN LITTLE GENESSEE.—Burck's sash, door and blind factory, at Little Genessee, was entirely destroyed by fire, on Tuesday morning last, together with a large amount of lumber. How the fire originated we did not learn. Mr. Burck had the new Presbyterian Church edifice in this village and had them nearly completed at the time of the fire. They also were destroyed. No insurance.—Cuba True Patriot.

SINGULAR CASE.—For the past three years or more, Mr. Wm. A. Mills, of Mt. Morris, had felt a painful, pricking sensation in one of his arms, which at times has troubled him very much. While attending court in this village last week, he experienced no inconvenience from it that he called Dr. E. C. Chase, who, after examining the arm, expressed his belief that there was some foreign substance in the affected part, and with a lance he removed a good-sized needle. How it got there Mr. Mills is unable to state.—Livingston Republican.

DIRECTING LETTERS.—Postmaster General Creswell, in a circular just issued, states that owing to the rapid increase in the mails and the great amount of many new post offices throughout the country, the Department finds it necessary, in order to facilitate the distribution and to secure a speedy transmission of the heavy mails now passing, particularly over the trunk lines of railroads, to request of the public that in all cases the name of the county as well as the post office and state be superscribed upon letters, circulars and newspapers, and other matter to be forwarded by mail.

The A'moon correspondent of the Hornellville Tribune says: Some weeks ago a couple of men who drove their teams as usual and out of Oxford, New York, were around collecting royalty on the Clip Kingbird. They secured most of our carriage makers to pay $25 for shop rights to use them. One shop came down with the thing. These men are impostors. From all we have been able to learn they have not dared to follow up a suit for the last six years, nor do they attempt to interfere with our large shops.

These same impostors made a raid upon all stores of our carriage shops, and got their notes for $45 each.

The latest stationary engine in the world was put in operation a few days ago at the Lehigh Engine Works at Friendville, Lehigh county. It is of three thousand horse power, it weighs 650 tons, and is capable of pumping if necessary, from 15,000 to 17,000 gallons of water per minute, and this from a depth of 300 feet. The heaviest pieces of machinery in being weigh 24 tons. The cylinder is 110 inches in diameter, and the length of the stroke is ten feet. Two wrought iron shafts weigh 10 tons each. Fly wheels 75 tons each. Crank pins one ton each. The piston rod is fourteen inches in diameter. The crossheads weigh eight tons each, their length is 41 ft. 2 in.; in the neck and fifteen inches in the saddle.—Waverly Advocate.

Andover Union School. SCHOOL EXAMINATION, &c.

The seats in our school rooms, made vacant by Messrs. are filling up quite rapidly, and nearly every day restores one or more pupils to their regular work. Of course those who have been thus interrupted are behind their positions in class by far, and work. Some of them seem to realize this and apply themselves with diligence, while others do not yet awake to its importance, and will probably fall so much behind as to drop back into lower grades.
