How Your Contribution Helps Fight Cancer

Under the direction of the nations leading scientists, more than 250 research projects are under way in our greatest medical and educational institutes. These soldiers of science are devoting their lives to the cause of finding a cure for cancer.

Learn to recognize cancer's danger signals:

Any sore that does not heal, particularly about the tongue, mouth or lips.

A painless lump or thickening especially in the breast, lip or tongue.

Progresive change of color or size of a wart, mold or other birthmark.

Persistent indigestion.

Persistent hoarseness, unexplained cough, or difficulty in swallowing.

Bloody discharge from the nipple or irregular bleeding from any of the natural body openings.

Any change in the normal bowel habits.

Local Cub Scout Troop Lists Many New Members

The Masonic Lodge of Andover has become the latest organization to accept and give to the boys of its community the Cub Scout program. Although a Boy Scout Troop has been in existence for many years, this is the first opportunity given the younger boys the benefit of Scouting.

The following "Den Mothers" are planning their first Den meetings for the coming week: Mesdames Howland, Pelton, Clarke and Loescher.

Boys already registered here include: James Connor, Jerry Rogers, Charles Howland, Avery Mead, David Conde, Robert Grossman, Charles Loescher, Patrick Crandall, Paul Vincent, Harold Rifenburg, Jerry Clarke, Clarence Halsey, Norman Pelton, Roger Phelps, Michael Thisse, Ralph Mix, Donald Lewis, Lynford Dill and James Mickle.

Paul Vincent has been selected as Cubmaster, Donald DeRemer is institutional representative to the Southeast District and the Seneca Council; Clifford Howland is Pack chairman and James E. Burgett and Erwin Lewis are committee members.

With the addition of Pack 77 in Andover the Southeast District now boasts of nine Cub Packs, 16 Scout Troops and four Senior Units for a total of 29 Scouting units.

McAndrew—Evans

Mrs. Emily Louise Evans and Richard Bernard McAndrew were married Saturday, April 3. 1948 in a ceremony at St. Birnedette Drexel Hill, Pa., at 2 o'clock, by Father O'Brien. The bride who lives at 1105 Edmonds Ave, is the daughter of Luther K. Heyd of Drexel Hill. Mr. McAndrew is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McAndrew of Andover, N. Y.

The bride wore a dress and hat of aqua with cocoa brown accessories and chose a corsage of three brown orchids.

She was attended by Mrs. Jean Lobb of Philadelphia, who wore a pearl grey dress with black accessories and chose an orchid corsage.

Howard McAndrew of Andover, brother of the groom was best man.

A reception was held at 3 o'clock at Saint David's Golf Club, Wayne Pa., for 75 guests after which the couple left for a trip to New York City. After the honeymoon they will make their home in Andover where the groom is employed in the oil fields.

The mother of the bride selected dark blue for her gown with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The groom's mother was attractively attired in pastel shades wearing an orchid corsage.
