Robert Gorsuch Writes From Overseas

Robert Gorsuch who is aboard the USS Akron, has been promoted to Private First Class. A short letter from "Bob" reads:

Dear Mother:

Received your letter today and glad to hear from home. We leave Athens, Greece Monday night, then go to Malta for three days, then we go on fleet maneuvers for a week, then we go to Nice, France. While we are on maneuvers an Admiral from the States comes on board ship for a week. He is to have five orderlies and I am one of them; right now I am the captain's orderly. The King of Greece visited the ship next to ours yesterday, and the whole ship had to fall out in their dress blues; we fired a 21-gun salute to him.

I guess it's a good thing we got out of Trieste where we did. The radio news that came in says there is trouble starting there. Tito said we were walking around Trieste barefoot; he meant unprotected.

The Manchester is there now and they are quite scared because the Admiral is aboard.

I am sending you a few pictures of Athens. Greece is a nice place. It's warm here the year around. Will write more later.

BOB.
