Band Notice

A band rehearsal will be held at village hall Monday evening in preparation for Memorial Day.

All band members are urged to be present.

Poppy Day This Saturday

Again this year the local American Legion Auxiliary is offering for sale the poppies made by disabled veterans of World Wars I and II. Buying these poppies helps both the boys who made them and the Auxiliary's local welfare work for veterans and veterans' children.

These poppies are not worn for their beauty, they are worn in solemn memory of those who have served our country so faithfully in every time of need. They are perhaps a small symbol for such brave people, but they are recognized as such and everyone is proud to wear one.

Mrs. Helen Boyd is local chairman in charge of the poppy sale this year. Our "Poppy Day" date has been changed to Saturday, May 22nd. Look for the ladies selling the poppies that day and the following week, and give generously for those who gave.

Home Bureau Achievement Day Here May 27th

Homemakers of Allegany County Home Bureau will hold the Achievement Day in the Andover Central School auditorium next Thursday, May 27th. Here the work accomplished by 1,512 members in 42 units will be on display.

Mrs. Harold Chassee, chairman of the executive committee of the county Home Bureau announces that there will be a fashion show of cotton dresses and anyone having an old-fashioned dress within the last 30 years, is invited to enter the show, given in the morning. Have your own name and unit on the material. The session will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the founding of the Home Bureau and recognition will be given to the women who have been members in good standing for 15 years or more.

On the list are the following from Andover unit: 30 years, Mrs. Mizpah Greene and Mrs. Ida Williams; 25 years, Mrs. Elizabeth Greene, Mrs. Lelia Livermore, Mrs. Mabel Wightman, Mrs. Ada Tracy; 15 years, Mrs. Edna Burdick, Mrs. Erma Lewis, Mrs. Lula Pease, Mrs. Cecil Ruger, Mrs. Jennie Smith.

The main speaker of the afternoon session will be Mrs. Martha Eddy. Subject, "Trip to Holland," highlights of the convention of the Association of County Women of the World which Mrs. Eddy attended.

Midday meal will be served in the dining rooms of the Eastern Star, Rebekahs and Grange. Reservations for the dinner should be sent in by May 22nd to Mrs. Glenora Pelton.

The public is invited to attend the meetings.

The Folsing Store will have a window display of work accomplished by members of the Andover unit and the material for the window display should be left at the store May 20th. Those to be taken to the school May 27th at 9 a. m.

Frank Holmes Injured

Frank Holmes received painful injuries to his left knee while assisting in raising a pulling pole on the Marsh oil field Saturday.

Appreciation

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all for the many acts of kindness and the help extended to us at the time and following the fire at our home. Especially do we thank the Andover and Greenwood firemen, members of West Greenwood Grange and all who donated money, furniture or clothes.

Mr. and Mrs.

Author-Lecturer Commencement Speaker Here

The Commencement speaker for the Senior Class of 1948 of Andover Central School this year is Mr. Harry C. Heffner, noted author and lecturer, who is nationally known for his practical and highly entertaining addresses in lecture courses and conventions and before business, educational and social groups.

Mr. Heffner is the author of "Dan Patch," "Excuse My Laziness," "What About Detroit" and "Speech-Making".

He is well recommended by many of the people whom he has addressed and should provide an educational and entertaining address at the Commencement exercises which are to be held in the Andover Central School auditorium June 29th.

Andover Rebekah Lodge Honors Local Couple

Andover Rebekah Lodge feted Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ruger after regular meeting of the lodge Wednesday evening in honor of the 50th wedding anniversary of the couple, at a surprise party and renewal of their marriage with a large number of relatives and friends present. Rev. Raymond R. Taylor, pastor of the the Andover Methodist Church officiated, using the single ring ceremony.

The bridal party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ruger of Detroit, Mich., brother and sister-in-law of the couple as best man and bridesmaid, with little Shirley and Jackie Vickers as flower girls. Mrs. Bertha Hardy played traditional wedding march and recessional on the piano and Mrs. Pauline Yorton sang "I Love You Truly."

After the ceremony the wedding party and guests adjourned to the lodge dining room where a delicious supper was served, the bride's table being centered with a two-tiered wedding cake topped with golden bell and arch. The dining room was decorated with white bells and streamers.

The members of the lodge and degree team presented Mr. and Mrs. Ruger with a dozen yellow roses and a vase, the roses tied with gold ribbon, presented by the Noble Grand Mrs. Ora Gath. The event also marked the 70th anniversary of the birthday of Mr. Ruger who has retired from the employ of the Empire Gas & Fuel Company after many years with that company.

The "young" couple thanked their friends for the honor bestowed upon them at this time and for the gifts received.

The dining room was under direction of Mrs. Pauline Yorton and Mrs. Marion Theetge, with Mrs. Ora Gath in charge of the kitchen.

Village Clean-up Friday, May 28

The Village Board has announced the annual clean-up day in Andover on Friday, May 28th.

Junk for collection should be placed at the curb the night before or early Friday morning as the trucks will only make one pick-up on a street.

Lester Regan Married At Rochester

Miss Laurette Alice Same, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Edward John Cleary, became the bride of Thomas Lester Regan, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Regan of Andover Saturday morning, May 15.

The Rev. Felician Berkery, OFM of St. Bonaventure College performed the ceremony in Old St. Mary's Church, Rochester, which was beautifully decorated with white roses, palms and candelabra.

The bride, daughter of the late Mrs. Helen A. Same, was given in marriage by her brother, Eugene Edward Same. She was lovely in a gown of ivory slipper satin en train, with a veil of illusion caught to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

As the bride's only attendant, Miss Rosemary Upson chose a gown of hyacinth blue taffeta and carried American Beauty roses.

Best man for his brother was John Regan of Andover. Ushers were Robert Reeves and Robert Rigner of Lakeville.

Mrs. Cleary chose a gown of aqua crepe trimmed with lace. The groom's mother wore a grey frock with black and white accessories. Both had orchid corsages.

Following a wedding breakfast at the Normandie, Mr. and Mrs. Regan left on a wedding trip to Washington and Williamsburg and Virginia Beach, Va. Upon their return they will reside at 61 Nichols street, Rochester, where the groom is affiliated with the National Clothing Co.

Mr. Regan is an alumnus of Alfred University and Rochester Institute of Technology.

Ralph T. Coats

Ralph Thomas Coats died at 10:45 Wednesday morning, May 19, 1948 at Jones Memorial hospital, Wellsville, where he had been a patient since Sunday, following a long illness.

He was born in Irish Settlement, Pa., March 8, 1881, the son of Samuel and Augusta Burrett Coats and resided in Wexford, Mich., for 20 years prior to coming to Andover 28 years ago.

Mr. Coats was twice married, his first wife being Lena Cornell and his second Lulu Rennells, both of whom are deceased.

Surviving are two sons, Floyd Coats of Andover and Jack Coats of Belmont; a daughter, Mrs. Anna Boser of Allegany, N. Y.; a sister, Mrs. Emma Gleason of Andover and a brother, Elmer Coats of Andover.

Services will be held at the James B. Mulholland funeral home Friday afternoon at 2:30, the Rev. Eugene W. Hoyt officiating, with burial in Hillside cemetery.

Arthur R. Temple Wins Newman Scholarship

The Rev. Francis J. Blakely of Charlottesville, Va., awarded the Newman Scholarship for the University of Virginia recently to Arthur R. Temple, son of Mrs. Ralph E. Temple of Andover.

The Newman Scholarship is awarded to an outstanding student showing a well rounded life both scholastic and spiritual.

Mr. Temple is a graduate of Andover High School, was an ensign in the U. S. Navy and is attending engineering school in the University of Virginia.

Plans Announced For Memorial Day Observance

Ralph Allen, commander of Lynch-Burgett Post No. 397, American Legion, has announced the following plans for the observance of Memorial Day in Andover, as arranged by the various committees.

The parade will form in front of the Legion home on Main street Monday morning at 9:30, so as to move promptly at 10 o'clock. The line of march will be the same as in previous years, proceeding up Main to Elm street, up Elm to East avenue, with the school children and school band falling in at the school; out East avenue to Greenwood street, down Greenwood street to Main and up Main to Hillside cemetery where the following services will be held:

America—Band.
Introduction—Commander Ralph Allen.
Prayer—Chaplain.
Gettysburg Address — Carl Fisher.
In Flanders Field—Phyllis Burdick.
Memorial Address—Rev. Raymond R. Taylor, Chaplain's Assistant in World War II.
Decorating Graves of Deceased Comrades—by the flower committee of the Woman's Relief Corps.
Salute to the Dead—Legion Firing Squad.

The procession will reform and proceed to Legion Park where the flag will be raised from half mast.

In case of inclement weather the program will be carried out in Andover Central School auditorium.

The village hall will be open at 8 o'clock Memorial morning for the reception of flowers, and the Woman's Relief Corps will appreciate it if anyone having flowers for use in decorating the graves will bring them at that time.

Tribune League Season Opens This Week

The Evening Tribune Baseball League opens its 1948 season this Sunday, May 23rd, with Andover playing at Hornell. The first home game is Sunday, May 30th when Angelica plays here.

Manager Conrad also announces that an exhibition game with the Buffalo Harlem Giants will be played on the Andover diamond Memorial afternoon. The Buffalo colored boys are a popular exhibition ball team in Western New York and promise a fine afternoon's entertainment for local baseball followers.

Holt on Ithaca College Track Team

Ithaca, N. Y.—Charles M. Holt Jr., of Andover is on the Ithaca College varsity track team which will seek its fourth straight victory of the season Saturday at Cortland against the Cortland State Teachers. The Ithacans have defeated Rochester, Alfred and Scranton universities with Hartwick, Mohawk and Niagara as future opponents.

Holt won third in the 16 pound shot put against Rochester; won first in the javelin against Rochester; third in discus against Alfred; third in javelin aganst Alfred; second in shotput against Scranton and second in discus against Scranton.
