

THE ANDOVER ADVERTISER.

VOL. IV. NO. 23.

ANDOVER, ALLEGANY CO., THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1872.

[WHOLE NO.]

Advertisement for Andover Advertiser, including publication details, subscription rates, and a list of various businesses and professionals in the community.

Advertisement for Erie Railway, featuring a steam locomotive illustration and details of train routes and schedules.

Advertisement for furniture, highlighting various styles and materials such as upholstered and veneered pieces.

Advertisement for A.D. & S. Browns, a hardware store, listing a wide range of goods available for purchase.

Advertisement for plain furniture, emphasizing simplicity and quality in their offerings.

Advertisement for wooden frames, specifically for picture and document frames, made of various woods.

Advertisement for plain coffins, focusing on durability and affordability.

Advertisement for Venetian blinds, detailing their benefits for window privacy and light control.

Advertisement for pine lumber, suitable for various construction projects, with contact information for a supplier.

Advertisement for ironing presses, promoting a new and improved design for household use.

Advertisement for a building project, specifically a house on a hillside, with architectural details and location information.

Advertisement for a legal notice regarding a property dispute, providing details of the parties and the court proceedings.

Advertisement for a public notice or summons, possibly related to a court case or official business.

Advertisement for a building project, similar to the previous one, but with different specifications and a different contractor.

Advertisement for marble works, showcasing their craftsmanship in creating various stone monuments and structures.

Advertisement for a veterinary surgeon, listing services and contact information for a local practitioner.

ROMISH CRUELTY.
That cruel and murderous spirit, a trait of the dangerous classes who are found in most Romish countries, has received a new exemplification in a probably fatal assault upon a teacher in Pennsylvania.

Sunday School Teachers' Institute.
The Spring meeting of the Allegany Co. Sunday School Teachers' Institute was held in the M. R. Church at Randolph, beginning Tuesday evening, April 30, and closing the next evening.

Rev. Mr. Gardner, Mr. Bruce and Mr. Taylor spoke earnestly of specific prayer; the necessity of good superintendents, and the fault of parents in not interesting themselves in the children.

After singing and recess, reports from towns were in order. Interest in the Sunday School work was discussed earnestly by Mr. Bruce and others. The Institute then adjourned until 7 o'clock.

After singing and recess, reports from towns were in order. Interest in the Sunday School work was discussed earnestly by Mr. Bruce and others. The Institute then adjourned until 7 o'clock.

The Business Committee then reported that the Sabbath School took a religious temperance paper. This recommendation was also adopted.

Rev. Mr. Webster opened the next subject, 'The Training of Children in Christian Benevolence.' This he thought a great and positive duty.

After the long meeting doxology, sung by all present, and the benediction by Rev. Mr. Boyd, the Institute adjourned until 9 o'clock A. M.

California is bragging of Lerley five feet high.

filled; and then he could teach them the truth.

Rev. Mr. Reid condemned the tendency of the age. He did not believe in sweetmeats and nuts in place of religion. He thought the tendency degenerate. He would rather lift up the people, refine them and instead of cultivating a taste for the material and sensual, implant within them a true desire and holy aspirations.

Rev. Mr. Gardner, for the Business Committee, reported that in the absence of Rev. O. M. Leggett, Rev. John Reid, of Angellea, would take his place in reporting the next subject.

Rev. Mr. Gardner, for the Business Committee, reported that in the absence of Rev. O. M. Leggett, Rev. John Reid, of Angellea, would take his place in reporting the next subject.

Rev. Mr. Gardner, for the Business Committee, reported that in the absence of Rev. O. M. Leggett, Rev. John Reid, of Angellea, would take his place in reporting the next subject.

Rev. Mr. Gardner, for the Business Committee, reported that in the absence of Rev. O. M. Leggett, Rev. John Reid, of Angellea, would take his place in reporting the next subject.

Rev. Mr. Gardner, for the Business Committee, reported that in the absence of Rev. O. M. Leggett, Rev. John Reid, of Angellea, would take his place in reporting the next subject.

Rev. Mr. Gardner, for the Business Committee, reported that in the absence of Rev. O. M. Leggett, Rev. John Reid, of Angellea, would take his place in reporting the next subject.

Gold 114.