Call for the Republican State Convention.

REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE,)
New York, April 11, 1872.)

A Republican State Convention will be held in the city of Elmira, on Wednesday, the 15th day of May next, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of electing delegates to represent the Republicans of the State of New York in the National Union Republican Convention, which is to meet at Philadelphia, on Wednesday, June 5th, next.

The Republican electors are respectfully invited to meet in their several localities at the call of the proper local authorities, and select the usual number of delegates to represent them in said Convention.

By order of the Republican State Committee. A. B. CORNELL, Chairman.
JOHN N. KNAPP, Secretary.

New Hampshire Speaks for the Nation.

Yesterday, at Concord, the representatives of the Republican party in New Hampshire met in State Convention. The attendance was full, the sentiment most enthusiastic for the re-election of Grant and Colfax, and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That in General Ulysses S. Grant we recognize a statesman as well as a General, a man patriotic and wise; in peace as brave and skillful as in war; a man who, by a judicious Administration, has gained the confidence of and endeared himself to the American people; and as expressive of the Republicans of New Hampshire inaugurated in the recent election, we sincerely desire his renomination and re-election.

Resolved, That we fully and cordially acknowledge the great merits and services of the Hon. Schuyler Colfax.

Similar in tenor is the expression of every Republican State Convention which has been held during the past Winter and Spring. They one and all express the satisfaction of the true Republicans in their several States upon the discharge of the delicate duties which the people thrust upon Grant and the intention of the party to place him in nomination for the next term.

Not alone do these resolves indicate the judgment and choice of the great party whose record is so glorious—whose mission is so beneficent; but they reflect the general feeling of the people at large—of those honest men who have formerly voted with the Democratic party, but who, when that party became arrayed against the country left it, to vote with and fight for the nation and human rights against the slaveholders' rebellion. The consistent men follow the banners of Gen. Grant in the hard fight with Confederate chivalry and State rights' sophism. His victories at Fort Donelson and Vicksburgh cheered their hearts in the days of darkness, despondency and gloom; they applauded his desperate determination to "fight it out on this line," and when his persistent pushing at last hemmed in the rebel Lee, and constrained his surrender at Appomattox Court-House, they, with the Republicans, acknowledged that the country owed mainly its life and its triumph over a monstrous combination of treason, to the firmness, the military ability and the unswerving confidence in the success of the right, evinced by the great general who led our armies to final and decisive victory.

Andrew Johnson's abortive attempt at administration brought the country into such a vortex of internal disorder and financial embarrassment that the people and the Republican party looked again to the great soldier who had delivered us out of the dangers and disarrangements of the war as the only man in whom the country had confidence to extricate us from the anarchy in which we were fast drifting under Andrew Johnson. The Chicago Convention of 1868 spoke the nation's choice, as well as that of the Republican party, when it placed Ulysses S. Grant in nomination for the Presidency. Loyal votes elected him against the machinations of the Copperhead Democracy.

Three years of faithful and prudent administration have fully borne out [illegible] fully confirmed the [illegible] of the nation. It looks with [illegible] upon the repression of disloyalty, the rapid rate at [illegible] debt incurred in re[illegible] being paid, while [illegible] are largely re[illegible] and ex[illegible]

For this change it credits the same faithful Chief Executive, whose sword conquered the hosts of the Confederacy. It calls for his continuance in the Presidential chair for another term to perfect the work he has so auspiciously begun.

In the New Hampshire resolutions we read the wish of the nation. Next month's convention at Philadelphia will have no occasion to seek its duty. It is plainly pointed out—to renominate President Grant.—N. Y. Standard. May 9.

County Convention.

Our County Convention, which met at Friendship on Wednesday of last week (and after we had gone to press) appointed as delegates to the State Convention the following gentlemen: M. S. Blun, W. Moses, M Butts, John Folan', and Wilkes Angel; all good Grant men. They also passed the following resolution, introduced by Dr. R Stebbins, of Friendship, which was unanimously adopted, and was by far the noblest act of the convention:

Resolved, That Senator James Wood has disgraced his constituency, and disgraced the office to which they elected him, and that he be, and here by is, requested to resign.

We were in hope that every County in this Senatorial District would pass a resolution similar to the above. Old Allegany will always be found on the side of honesty, and opposed to corruption in every form; which accounts we suppose, for the few Cincinnati men in the county.

Already we have three "Reform" Presidential tickets in the field put in nomination by parties, or sanguine forms of parties, in opposition to the People's Republican ticket, which will be formally issued from Philadelphia next month. Judge David Davis of the United States Supreme Court and Gov. Joel Parker of New Jersey are nominated by the "Labor Reformers;" Hon. Horace Greeley and Gratz Brown are running wild as nominees of the "Liberal Reformers," while Widow Woodhull and Frederick Douglas are put up to be bowled down by the "Radical Reformers." There will be a fine field for speculation on the chances of these various reforms to swallow themselves and hurt nobody before November.

We lost faith in "gentle Anna" when we found her blowing her bugle for Cincinnati, and we weakened on her most emphatically when we found her hobnobbing with the innocent old caperer of the New York Tribune Now, as Horace is nominated for President, if Anna don't stand by him to his bitter end, (which isn't afar off now) she need never come around us again with her good sense about "Demagogues and Workingmen," nor her nonsense of what she knows about politics. Fair warning!—Bath Courier.

Three hundred and eighty delegates so far have been appointed by Republican State Conventions to the Philadelphia National Convention, three hundred and sixty eight of them instructed to vote for President Grant—enough to nominate him on the first ballot. Of these only ten are office holders, a significant commentary on the pretense of the "Reformers" that Grant is an "office holder's" candidate.

Horace Greeley sent a dispatch to David A. Wells, saying if the tariff plank proposed was adopted at Cincinnati, "he could not support it, as it was a hypocritical trick." After his nomination the venerable aerolite thanked the Dolly Varden convention of sorcheads for placing him on that plank which he denounced as a "hypocritical trick." That's one of the tricks Horace takes.

A fight took place at the head of Bird Creek in the Indian Territory, on Saturday last, between a posse under Deputy Marshal Peevy and a band of outlaws led by Pace or the murderer. Five of the Marshal's party and six of the outlaws were killed, and a large number wounded on both sides. Great excitement existed in the country over the affair.

Mr. Voorhees, of Indiana, Monday in the House, took occasion to declare that he would not support Mr. Greeley, even if endorsed by the Democratic National Convention. Other Democratic members denounced Greeley, but intimated that they would acquiesce in the decision of the Baltimore Convention.

Valuable chapters of history are embodied in the following brief paragraph from the Rochester Express:

The Sun says: "The South is up in arms for Dr Greeley." It is not eight years since the South was up in arms for Jeff. Davis. And the time is still less since Horace Greeley and Jeff. Davis were up in each other's arms.

None of the New Jersey Democratic newspapers support the Cincinnati ticket. In fact, very few "reliable" Democratic papers (so called) support [illegible]

Colored People's State Convention.

They Stand by the Republican Party and its Nominees.

IMPORTANT RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

TROY, May 9.—The Colored People's State convention, in session here to-day, adopted an address to the people of the State, urging them to support the Philadelphia nominations, and also the following resolution:

First—That the duty of every colored American citizen lies within the lines of the Republican party, and that any departure therefrom must inevitably lead them to the camp of the common enemy.

Second—That we are greatly endeared to the Republican party because in its ranks are to be found all that remain true to the ever to be revered Liberty and Abolition parties; and because the Republican party true to its baptismal vows, has during twelve years of its existence not only suppressed the most cruel and wicked rebellion that ever cursed a land and established the supremacy of republican institutions all over the country, but has forced traitors, great and small, wherever and whenever found, to bow in honorable submission to the majesty of law, and not only because this great party has through its legislatures, executives and its judiciary emancipated the American slave and clothed him with citizenship and political rights, but because it also has and does guarantee and vouchsafe to him and his, despite the opposition and protest of the Democratic party and its allies, the recognition of their manhood and a liberal share of the federal patronage under its control.

Third—That we endorse the administration of President Grant; that we regard it as being eminently wise liberal and statesmanlike and as fulfilling our expectations of what a Republican executive ought to be.

Fourth—That we will in the future, as we have in the past, support the regular Republican nominations when made, both State and national.

Fifth—That we recommend to the Republican State Convention, to be held at Elmira on the 15th inst, the propriety of sending a representative colored man to the National Convention at Philadelphia as a delegate at large, and respectfully but earnestly appeal to that State Convention to recognize the respectability and influence of the colored Republicans of the State of New York by naming as such delegate William T. Butler, of New York, our chosen representative.

Mr. Greeley's opinion of Gen. Grant last year, was thus given in the Tribune:

He (Mr. Greeley) deems it too soon by a year to discuss the claims or chances of Gen. Grant or any one else. So far as he can judge, the Republicans are generally satisfied with Grant's administration, and inclined to renew his lease of power. If there is not much enthusiasm in his behalf, there is a very general conviction that he is a safe and practical executive. Not hearing of any serious or formidable effort to prevent his renomination, it seems to us unwise in those who favor it to agitate the matter. The meeting of Congress next December is quite soon enough for that. Gen. Grant has not been quite two years in power. During these two years, many war clouds have loomed on the horizon, yet peace with foreign powers and with native Indians has been happily preserved. The taxes have been largely reduced, yet $200,000,000 of the national debt have been paid off and cancelled. $120,000,000 for interest, and $30,000,000 per annum for pensions to the widows and orphans of the late struggle. We doubt whether any government ever before devoted so large a portion of its annual income to the payment of debt. He misunderstands human nature who fancies that these facts will not tell in a Presidential contest.

The bill to regulate the salaries of County Judges and Surrogates passed the Assembly on Friday afternoon.—Should this pass the Senate and become a law, the County Judge and Surrogate of this county will receive $3,000 per year. Not that we would do anything to hurt the future prospect of our Judge but we must say, that the Bill, in our opinion, is rather exhorbitant for a reform legislature to pass.

The following gentlemen were chosen by the Assembly on Friday last, to act as managers in the impeachment trial against Judge Barnard: Messrs. Alvord, Prince, D. B. Hill, Lincoln, Niles, Jacobs, Husted and Hays.

The Democrats of Suffolk county at a convention held on Friday last elected delegates strongly opposed to Greeley. The sentiment of the convention was strongly against any precipitate action by the Democracy.

The Illinois Democratic State Committee have decided to hold a State Convention two weeks before the date fixed for the National Convention for that party. A resolution indorsing the Cincinnati nominees was voted down.

Greeley and Brown, the reform candidates for President and Vice-President, were only saved from defeat by the timely aid of that immaculate reformer, Frank Blair.

The Cause of Temperance finds some of its most insidious and dangerous foes in the many so called "tonics" and "appetizers," made of cheap whiskey and refuse liquors, falsified to suit depraved appetites, under the name of medicines Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are none of these. They are not a beverage, but a genuine medicine, purely vegetable, prepared from Californin herbs by a regular physician. For all diseases of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, skin and blood, they are an infallible and unrivaled remedy. o182d

When a discoverer of any scientific subject, asks the co-operation of the learned in science, to test the merit and truth of his discovery by severe tests and practical results, and then to indorse and recommend it, it is fair to presume it is valuable for the purpose intended. Such has been the course pursued by Messrs. Hall & Co., proprietors of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer. And all those who have tested it (among whom we may mention Dr. A. A. Hayes and S. Dana Hayes, Chemists, and State Assayers of Massachusetts; Walter Burnham, M. D., Prof. of Surgery in Penn. University, Philadelphia; Geo. Gray, M. D., Professor of Anatomy and Physiology) assert it is the best preparation in use for all cutaneous diseases of the scalp. Restores gray hair to its original color, prevents the hair from falling out, creates a new growth. It is certainly worthy of a trial.—Newburyport Herald of Gospel Liberty.
