Clark—Hillis

Miss Jeanette Hillis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hillis of Hornell and Ansel D. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Clark of Greenwood were united in marriage May 22 at 11 a. m., in the Methodist church at Andover by Rev. Eugene Hoyt in a double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white gabardine suit, blue suede accessories and a corsage of orchids. Her maid of honor, Mrs. Ernest Clark, wore a gown of black crepe, black accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds.

A luncheon was served and reception held at the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark in this village. The couple left for Virginia on their wedding trip immediately following.

For traveling the bride wore a raspberry gabardine suit.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Clark will reside at 11 West street, Hornell.

The bride attended Susquehanna High School, Ridley's Business School, Binghamton and was employed by the New York State Department of Public Works. The groom served in the A.E.F. four years and is employed by the N. Y. S. Department of Public Works.

Prenuptial events included a luncheon by the women employees of the Department of Public Works and a variety shower by Mrs. Harold Poss and Mrs. Elliott Hartman.

AUTOMATIC
Clothes Dryer

SAY GOOD-BYE FOREVER to CLOTHES LINES and the UNCERTAINTIES OF THE WEATHER!

No More Washday Blues . . . .

due to lifting and lugging wet clothes — Worry over showers, sleet or snow — Worry over dust, smoke or soot.

THE HAMILTON operates on an exclusive patented principle, giving maximum high drying temperatures, and rapid drying action. . . . The high drying temperature—190 degrees—sanitizes clothes in many respects more effectively than the sun. . . . Hospitals, hotels and commercial laundries use high heat for drying and sterilizing clothes. Towels, seersucker garments, and blankets, etc., dry wrinkle-free.

THE HAMILTON is easy to operate and is so scientifically and conveniently designed, so sturdily built that with ordinary care it will give you years of economical, satisfactory and carefree performance. . . . No oiling or greasing is required. . . . Demonstration at any time with no obligation.
