ROSEMARIE BAKER BECOMES 1948-49 HI HERALD EDITOR

At 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the Hi Herald staff held a meeting in the English room to elect the editor and assistant editor for next year. The majority favored Rosemarie Baker as editor and Betty Isaman as assistant.

Both of these girls are engaged in various activities throughout the school. Rosemarie is a member of the orchestra and the string quartet. She belongs to the Library Council and has been on the Hi Herald staff for two years. She is majoring in business and hopes to enter Rochester Business Institute for further training in 1949.

Betty Isaman, who is a member of the Library Council, the Hi Herald staff and the F. H. A., belongs to the chorus and is majoring in business. Betty expects to enter a business school after completing her high school work.

We wish these girls success as editor and co-editor of next year's Hi Herald. We are sure that they and the staff will work together and cooperate to the fullest extent.

Since the present editor and co-editor are busy seniors, the new editor and her assistant will take over the management of the Hi Herald immediately.

by Bob Baker

burg edged out a close 12- over the Andover Panthers on the Bolivar field June 1st.

Mulconery started the game for dover and was relieved by Richardson after giving up five hits and seven runs in two and two-thirds innings. Lack of support gave Richburg five runs with the other errors not contributing to the scoring.

Richardson and R. Smith led the Andover batters with three hits each. Richardson connected for a double and homer while R. Smith managed two singles and a double. Dodge smacked out a triple in the first inning to plate three runs.

CHIT-CHAT

The students of the whole school were very much elated because of the long Memorial week-end.

The Senior Class on the whole reported a good time over the week-end. Some of the underclassmen wonder what the grand old Seniors consider a good time.

Kay Joyce says she didn't do much of anything over the week-end except march in the parade Monday.

Phyllis Nye attended a wedding and went hunting. (We forgot to ask her what she was hunting).

Dolores Snyder attended two ball games over the week-end and went to the movies in Wellsville Monday night.

Madge Collins spent the week-end in Pennsylvania.

Earl Richardson says he slept and ate.

Did "Bob" Burger have a good time at the Camera Club picnic Wednesday? From what we hear he did.

Say, Mary Ellen Driscoll, what is the formula for getting out of school at this stage of the game? Don't mind us, we want you back in circulation again — and soon.

From all reports Rosemary Mead's surprise birthday party was one of the best of the season. Even the lights went out. Did someone blow a fuse or was it on account of the storm?

I'm sure everyone will join us in wishing Rosemarie Baker and Betty Isaman great success in editing our school newspaper next year.

The ambition to do something worthwhile sure lies in the category of the Junior girls. The future forecast for this summer of some of them are: Joan Woodruff and Reta Goodridge, packing cheese. — Eve Glover and Rosemary Mead serving from behind the (?) bar. (Don't take it wrong though).—Barbara Marsh slaving away in Olean.—Ann Marie Green driving the tractor for Carl Clarke. (What fun!)—Ruth Halsey laying in the sun up on the farm.—All the others plan to do something, but as yet are quite undecided.

For the benefit of those fellows who are planning to go to the Junior-Senior Prom—the date is June 28th, so step right up and ask that certain girlie. She'll get tired of waiting after while.

Billy Slocum has been transferred to Whitesville school.

Sandra Bostwick is back after having the chicken pox. The sixth grade put on a social studies play written on Japan.

Victor Burch spent his vacation in Whitesville. Also Mrs. Hall's grade made crepe paper sashes for the Memorial Day parade.

Carol Ryan and Mary Brown had birthday parties and were treated with ice cream and cake.

The St. Louis Cardinals won the English contest and had a treat Tuesday afternoon.

The sixth grade is starting study of Africa in Social Studies. They also have finished all new work in spelling on spelling booklets.

Mr. Carmody's room is having class review.

Where did Eadie Dunham and Carl Kuhn go over the week-end? Could it have been Brookville?

Did Pat Dolan, Teddy Vankuren, Don Burger and Bob Jackson journey to Cuba Lake Monday night? I guess Teddy was lucky at playing bingo there, as a result they carried home a lamp.

Did Dick Fulton and Annabelle O'Dell have fun at the game Monday? You almost got left behind, didn't you, Annie.

We see Lois Honegger had company Sunday night. The boys got the brush-off, didn't they?

Betty Smith and Duane Hackett had quite a day Monday. Going to the movies in the afternoon and to the carnival at night is quite a day.

By the looks of things that survey Mary E. Connor and Teddy Vankuren are taking, the people of Andover are sure surprising.

Agnes Davis and Lena Bridge seem to have a new liking for skating.

We still see that Marcy Smith and Franklin Cornish aren't getting along too well.

Donna Nobles is said to have a new "flame" from Olean.

Alice Bostick had a nice time on her trip to Pennsylvania over the week-end.

We all see Abe Davis and Joyce Linza are still getting along very well.

It's too bad, Harry Foster, that you and your friend from the skating rink had a disagreement.

John Dougherty can't seem to make up his mind over Marcella Smith and Janice Fulton.

We see that Phyllis Burger actually passed some Latin tests. Can't be she's worrying about anything.

We wonder how everyone likes the change of scenery in science class.
