Father Dies in Toronto

Herbert James Sootheran, father of Attorney Reginald J. Sootheran of Andover, died Thursday, June 3, 1948 in Red Crevron Military Hospital, Toronto, Canada, following a long illness.

Mr. Sootheran was born in Niagara Falls, N. Y., 65 years ago moving to Niagara Falls, Canada, in 1916.

He was a veteran of two wars, serving in the U. S. Marines in the Spanish-American War, and at the outbreak of World War I he enlisted in the 213th Battalion of the Canadian Army. The battalion was composed entirely of American citizens. He was later transferred to the First Division, C. E. F., as quartermaster sergeant. He served overseas and was wounded several times.

Surviving are his wife, Emma Brewer Sootheran, Niagara Falls, Ontario; two daughters, Mrs. O. Steele of Trenton, Ont., and Mrs. Wallace Beattie of Buffalo, N. Y.; and four sons, Herbert J., Jr., of Niagara Falls, Ont.; Attorney Reginald J. Sootheran of Andover; William R. and Charles Sootheran of Stamford., Ont. Another son, Pilot Officer Arthur Sootheran was killed in World War II.

Services were held Saturday in Niagara Falls, Ontario, with interment in Fairview Cemetery.
