Oh! my Achin' Back

While you watch your garden grow —
And worry 'bout bugs and blight,
Will your corn be knee high
By the Fourth of July?
Do you water it every night?
When you lean on your hoe at the end of a row,
With vision of fruit on the vines;
Such succulent flavors, results of your labors,
'Tis a heart-warming thought, that is right.
Well come in and see mine,
They're the beautiful kind
That you find in the seed catalog.
They'll give inspiration—to keep on a'breakin'
Your back while you hoe every night!
