Churches and Societies. St. Andrew's Church. Rev. M. H. Davis, Pastor. Regular services every Sunday at 10 1/2 a.m. and 7 p.m. Prayer meeting each Thursday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.

The weather is quite cool. Today is Decoration Day. Decoration Day is to be observed at 10 a.m.

Work has been commenced upon our streets. A circus is to be in town one week from today.

The Green's Corners cheese factory is turning out about 11 cheeses per day.

The New Time Table on the Erie Railway goes into effect on Monday next.

Supreme Court at Belmont commencing on Monday, June 17th, 1872.

L. B. Morris is putting up a very fine iron fence in front of his residence.

A new stone culvert is to be built under the cross walk in front of Hunt & Burrows.

It is reported that no licenses will be granted in Cuba or Friendship the coming year.

If you are going to attend the National Convention, buy your ticket via the Erie Railway.

The Elmira Gazette says that Saml. Taber is no longer connected with the Elmira Advertiser.

J. C. Green has improved the looks of his house very much by giving it a couple of coats of paint.

If you are thirsty, call at Benton & Crandall's and get a glass of soda-water, the best you ever drank.

Remember that Andover has a reliable Insurance Agency in the person of Rev. M. H. Davis.

We heard several ladies finding fault because they were obliged to walk through mud and water, and thought that a man who would not build a walk was the meanest man that lived, verbatim. We second the motion.

We would like a good correspondent in every town in this county, from now until the close of the campaign, and to continue thereafter for all time to come, in which case all the necessities will be readily complied with.

It is reported that "Sieb," of the Cuba Post, is undergoing a great deal of manual labor, preparatory to attending the Editorial Convention at Watertown, next month.

A letter addressed to Miss Mary J. Wiley, Alfred, N. Y., is held at this office for postage. It is not called for within thirty days and will be forwarded to the Dead Letter Office.

Those wishing to take a pleasant trip through one of the finest countries in the world, can do no better than to buy an excursion ticket to Philadelphia, via the Erie Railway.

RENEWAL.—On Saturday last a team belonging to a man by the name of Cory, became scared at something near the depot and started on a lively run around through the wood-yard and up Center street, where they ran into the fence in front of Amos Fyfe's shop, completely demolishing the wagon-box and a few pickets in the fence, when they were caught without doing any more damage.

The Marlow case which was to be argued before the Supreme Court at Oswego, two weeks ago, will be heard at Buffalo on the first Tuesday of June.

The Hornellville Times says that there has been a lodge of the Knights of St. Crispin instituted in that village, and we notice that our friend J. S. Sheridan has been elected to the office of "K. K."

As the season of croquet has arrived, it may be well to give H. Greely's views on the subject: Mr. Greely says croquet plants should be set in May, and manured thoroughly for the mullet harvest.

In view of the anticipated demand for tickets to Philadelphia and return, incident to the assembling of the National Republican Convention in that city on the 6th of June, the Erie Railway Company have placed on sale special tickets from Elmira to Philadelphia and return, at the moderate rate of $8.00.

County Lodge. The Allegany county Lodge of Good Templars met with the Allegany Lodge at their rooms on the 14th day of May, 1872.

Delegates from eight Lodges were present, representing 682 members in good standing.

The afternoon session was taken up with business pertaining to the Lodge. There was a public session in the evening at the Court House, which was largely attended by members of the order and citizens.

A morning session was held on the 15th, at which the committee on the part of the order, reported the judges of the county in a very thriving condition, many successes having been made during the last quarter.

Resolved, That we make a special effort during the coming year, to indoctrinate the people throughout the county in temperance principles, having a reference in this to voting at elections.

Resolved, That the Secretary furnish a copy of the proceedings for publication in the county papers and the Watch-Word.

The session closed after interesting discussions, and adjourned to meet with Grand Lodge, No. 635, on the second Tuesday of July next.
