The work of rebuilding the Boarding House of Chamberlain Institute will begin about the 10th inst. $25,000 has been raised for the purpose.

Wm. J. Harman, of Great Valley, had one foot crushed with the cars at Salamanca last week. It was amputated and the unfortunate man is now doing well.

The corporation of Ellicottville has passed an ordinance prohibiting "ball-playing in the streets of the village, under a penalty of $5 for each offense."

Most of the Democrats in this vicinity speak of their votes now-a-days as though his front was split with an m instead of an n.—Elmira Advertiser.

The new Park Church in Elmira will be built of Ralston stone at a cost of $100,000, and will be, when completed, the oldest building in western New York.

Hon. Thomas G. Alford member of assembly from Syracuse has been favored with a gold watch worth six hundred dollars by his friends and fellow members.

We are under obligations to Dr. Daniel Lewis for a report of the proceedings of the Elmira Academy of Medicine, which met in Hornellville, last Tuesday evening.

The residence, barn and out buildings of Frederick Douglas on South avenue, Rochester, were destroyed by fire on Saturday night. The loss will amount to several thousand dollars.

We see the Socio Express that the congregation of Disciples of that place have received subscriptions to the amount of $1,520, for the purpose of building a new house of worship.

The following laws can be found on our fourth page: "An act in relation to Co-partnership," "An act in relation to the Superintendents of the Poor," "An act in relation to Railroad Corporation."

The Cattaraugus Republican has been enlarged to an 8 column paper, and the make up materially changed. It is a live local paper, and well deserves the liberal patronage which it is receiving.

The Fredonia Board of Excise have resolved to grant no licenses except to hotels, and to grant no licenses to the hotels unless the bars are kept separate from the wash rooms and the billiard rooms.

The Hornellville Trotting Association has out bills for a two days' meeting, June 13th and 14th. Purse amounting to about $1,000 are offered. Some of the best horses in the State will be on the course.

Last year no license was granted in Yates county; this year nearly every town has license. And yet it is admitted that there about as many goods sold in Penn Yan as there had been any previous year.

Sunday hunting is expressly forbidden by the game laws. A little $10 fine awaits every offender. The law fines game constables themselves if they neglect to enforce the regulation as far as lies in their power.

A young lady seeking a situation, was interested in an advertisement for some one to do light bookkeeping. So she wrote to the advertiser asking where the light-house was, and if there was any way of getting to share on Sundays.

Porter & Barney have just received a large assortment of Agricultural implements, consisting of Scythes, Cradles, Pitchforks, &c., &c. Farmers wishing anything in the line of farming tools, can be supplied by calling on them. Be sure and do so.

Col. Adair, a wealthy merchant of Atlanta, remarked to the Georgia Press Association, recently convened in that city, that he owed about all he possessed to advertising. "Nothing," said he "costs so little and pays so well as a liberal use of printer's ink."

One of the finest selections of fancy cassimere, blue and black broadcloth, and doekings, to be found in town, just opened at the Elk Horn Store. Call and see them and leave your order for a good dress up. W. H. B. will "surround" you and guaranteed perfect satisfaction or no sale.

The Le Roy Courier tells this wonderful story: "In removing bodies from the Episcopal burying ground, recently, for interment in the new cemetery on North street, the remains of a lady aged about sixty years at the time of her death, and who had been buried nearly twenty years, was found in a complete state of putrefaction. To the touch it resembled stone, was of a dark color and quite heavy. The hair, especially in its natural state, still adhered to the skull."

Fifty dollars is the price of a season ticket to the Boston Peace Jubilee Concert. Said Jubilee commences June 17th and lasts till July 4th.—Five dollars is the price of single admission. There are but few persons whose cars are large enough to absorb five dollars worth of music at one sitting.

A MAN KILLED.—We learn that on Monday afternoon, last, June 8th, while Mr. John Moran, who resided at what is known as the Irish Settlement, about seven miles from this village, was at work with a stump machine, the chain broke, hitting him on the head and killing him instantly.—Free Press.

A QUEEN LAIN.—The Albany Post, of Friday, says:—Among the laws passed by the Reform Legislature, is one compelling owners of every stallion in the State to have his pedigree filed in the County Clerk's office, under a penalty of $50. Owners of horses will please notice, and keep in mind the law.

Forest Home Lodge, No. 567, I. O. of G. T. have postponed their Public Installation, on account of bad weather, until Tuesday eve, June 11th. Great pains have been taken to prepare an interesting programme, and together with the installation, the entertainment will be well worth the time and trouble of witnessing.

The soldiers of Chautauque county are having their discharges recorded in the County Clerk's office in a book kept for that purpose. That would be a good plan for the soldiers of other counties. Not only let their discharges be recorded, but their place of birth, parents, and place of enlistment, and the record will be valuable.

The Belmont Reporter states that an old man and woman were on the track walking to Portage to get relief from the Superintendent of the Poor, when the express train came. The woman was so frightened she could not escape, and was killed, and the man in trying to help her was hurled into a cattle guard, and mortally wounded.

We learn by the Bath Courier that a fire broke out in Bushnell's shoe store last Saturday morning, burning buildings owned by Dr. Wiley, W. H. Parry and Mrs. Ives. Loss $15,000. Two other fires occurred in the village at the same time. The residence of Mrs. James Gansvoort was also destroyed on Wednesday morning. All of which was the work of incendiaries.

The Teachers' Association for the Northern District of Allegany county, will hold its Summer session at the Town Hall, in Almond, Thursday and Friday, June 20th & 21st, 1879. All friends of education, whether teachers or otherwise, are cordially invited to attend and participate in the exercises.

Lewis McHenry, Secretary.

Mary Root, President.

An exchange states that a scoundrel, calling himself Ira Brown, from Auburn, N. Y., is traveling around the country with a patent cut bar for a mower and reaper. He appoints agents in the townships, and takes contracts with them, which he cuts in two, making a note of them. The farmers of this section want to keep their eyes opened against such swindlers. They are liable to receive a visit from some of them any day.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—About half past nine o'clock last Tuesday morning, the house of Levi Hann, 2d, near Elm Valley was struck by lightning and badly damaged. Mr. Hann and his wife were in the house. He was only defended by the shock, but Mrs. H. was seriously injured, both by the shock, and by fragments of the ceiling and furniture, which were thrown violently in every direction. She is now doing well, and will probably recover.

Mr. B. F. Peck, of East Bethany, Genesee county, last year set out fifteen hundred forest trees on his farm. They were of the varieties European Larch and Scotch Pine. This winter he ordered Robert Douglas & Sons, Waukegan, Ill, thirteen thousand young trees for spring setting, of the same varieties, with the addition of Norway Spruce. Next year he proposes to add largely of white pine, so on until he has fifty acres in process of transformation from clay hills to incipient forest.—Warsaw New Yorker.

At last the sewing machine monopoly is destroyed. Wilson has withdrawn his petition for the further extension of his patent. The press generally denounced the requested extension, and Congressmen even opposed the scheme. The Wilson patent gave a monopoly of sale and manufacture of the sewing machines to a certain combination, and enormous profits were annually made by the companies in the clique. The public will be in possession soon of not only cheaper, but better sewing machines.

EXPRESS STOCK.—Few villages in the country took more stock a few years ago in the Merchants' Union Express Company than Warsaw.—The severe competition between the Company and the American Express Company reduced the prices greatly. A consolidation took place between the two, and now those who have held on to the stock, find that they can sell for enough to pay its original cost. We predict that it will go higher. It now pays over seven per cent per annum on its cost.—Warsaw New Yorker.

ERIE RAILWAY.—One of our editors, just returned from the West, states that the Erie Railway afforded the best sleeping cars and traveling accommodations out of twenty-four first class roads which he traveled over. The fame of the Erie sleeping coaches is well deserved, for they are superb in every respect.

Any who wish to go West or come East will find the Erie in every way desirable. The new management, with Geo. Dix as President, intend to recover and maintain a good name for it in every respect.—N. Y. Independent.

ANOTHER BURGLARY IN HORNEVILLE.—Last Wednesday morning, about 4 o'clock, the family of F. M. Conkrite, on Elm street, were aroused by the cries of Miss Jesse Kellinger, a sister of Mrs. Conkrite, who was awakened by a noise in her chamber. Supposing it was a pet kitten she went to get it, and discovered what proved to be a burglar, who had probably mistaken her room for that of Mr. Conkrite's, adjoining. Her screams brought Mr. C. and the rest of the family to the scene, but too late to secure the intruder, who escaped by the back window, through which he entered, and which he had propped open for an emergency of the kind. All the booty he secured was $25 from the pocket of Mr. Kellinger, whose room he had ransacked before going up stairs. No clues have been obtained as to his identity.—Economic.

The regular meeting of the Elmira Academy of Medicine was held at the residence of Dr. Dolson, of Hornellville, on Tuesday evening, June 4, at 7:30, P. M. Among the members present were Dr. P. H. Flood, President of the Academy, Dr. Wey, Squire and Chubbuck, of Elmira, Dr. Woodward of Big Flats, Drs. Graves, and May, of Corning, Dr. Mitchell, of Canaan Mills, Dr. Lewis, of Andover, and others.

The usual order of exercises, comprising essays and reports of cases, with discussion of the subjects introduced, was unusually interesting and instructive. Drs. Trumbull and Hubbard, of Hornellville, and Dr. Smith, of Toga, Pa., were elected members of the Academy.

A sumptuous repast was furnished by Dr. Dolson, and after a most pleasant and profitable meeting the Academy adjourned to meet at the house of Dr. May, in Corning, on the evening of the first Tuesday in July. D. L.

SENIOUS ACCIDENT.—A German traveler named James Alven had a leg crushed under the cars last Saturday morning, injuring it so severely, that that amputation necessary. It was a passenger on train number five, which reaches here about two o'clock in the morning. Half-awakened, just this side of Canisteo, by the brakeman with the announcement of a change of cars at Hornellville, he walked off the platform, thinking he had arrived at the station, and fell under the wheels, which horribly crushed one of his legs. From the place where he fell, near "Sconner's Switch," he crawled nearly a half mile to a house where he tried to get help. But the occupants, thinking perhaps he was some stranger, paid no attention to his calls, and he lay there until morning, when he was picked up by train number seven, and brought to this place.

Policeman Scott M. Kress, prompt to render all needed aid, had him taken to the house kept by Charles Braun, where he has been kindly cared for.

His leg was amputated Saturday evening by Dr. J. W. Robinson, and he is now doing well, with every prospect of recovery. He was traveling alone but has friends at Oskosh, Wis, whether he was going.—Hornellville Times.
