Building is lively here just now. New goods just received at Harman & Son's. Grass is looking good in this section just now.

Remember the big circus one week from to-morrow. Bath, Steuben county, is to have a steam fire engine.

Wm. Richardson has put up a set of scales near his tannery in this village, and hereafter all bark will be bought by weight.

On our first page this week we publish for our readers the declaration of Principles of the Republican party. Read them.

Remember, the greatest show now traveling will exhibit in this village on Friday of next week. Don't fail to see the procession.

See advertisement of Hay, Pitcher and Mower in another column.

Any one wishing a good quality of sand will find it to their advantage to read the advertisement of E. A. Cottrell, in another column.

J. W. Fuller is building a large carriage manufactory on West Greenwood street, and has also commenced work on the cellar for a brick residence on the same street.

WELL DONE.—We were showed the other day a child's high-chair, made by Robert Bundy, and presented to Delancy Porter, and the only tool used was a common jack knife.

It is reported that Wellsville has several cases of small pox in their village. Great care is being taken to prevent its further increase, although many have been exposed already and fears are entertained of its spreading.

The person who mailed a letter at this office, May 26th, 1872, addressed to Sydney Shepard & Co., Buffalo, N. Y., making certain inquiries, will hear of something to their interest, by calling at the Post-office.

LOST.—Mr. Homer Davis lost in this village the other day a bunch of keys, on a silver ring containing a key check with the following address:—Homer Davis, Connersville, Ind. Any person finding the same and leaving it at Bin's Hotel will be liberally rewarded.

This number commences a new year to all whose subscription began with the first issue of the Andover Advertiser, and we shall, if they wish to continue their subscription, insist upon payment in advance for the coming year, and all those who are in arrears must settle the same forthwith or measures will be taken to collect it. We must have our pay in order to keep our business going.

We fail to see yet, one Republican paper in this State, of any amount of influence, beside the Tribune and one Syracuse paper, that goes to the support of Greeley & Brown.

A freshet at Whitefield N. H., on Monday night, destroyed property valued at one hundred thousand dollars. Several dams, bridges and buildings were washed away, and the tracks of the Boston, Concord and Montreal railroad were destroyed for a distance of a mile and a quarter.

Wellsvillians are becoming a little scared over the railroad question; but from all appearances their fears are some a little too late. With two roads running south of them, one through to Olean to connect with the Buffalo creek road and another into the Pine Creek country, it can but injure their business prospects considerably.

At the public meeting of Forest Home Lodge, No. 567, I. O. of G. T. held at the Good Templars' Hall in this village, June 11th, 1872, the following officers were duly installed for the current term:

Wellsvillians are becoming a little scared over the railroad question; but from all appearances their fears are some a little too late.

The biggest flea on record is owned by the Titusville Courier local. He thus describes it: "An exchange says, the happiness of life is made up of minute fractions, no bigger than a flea. That may be the case with some, but ours weighs one hundred and sixty pounds, good!"

A NEW CEMETERY.—Messrs. Hunt & Duke are making arrangements to fit up a beautiful cemetery on the south side of Maple street, about half a mile from the village, and a plan of the grounds will be ready for exhibition in a few days.

Correspondence. Dear Advertiser.—I have been here for some time taking cognizance of passing events and things in general, and concluded to give you the benefit of my observations.

ALL RIGHT.—Comstock & Son, having obtained a good blacksmith, are now prepared to do first-class horse-shoeing, and repairing of all kinds.
