S. GRANT,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
HENRY WILSON,
of Massachusetts.

Some Figures for Tax-Payers.

Mr. Daves, of Massachusetts, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, has published in the Globe a table of figures which he gave to the committee and had published in the Globe. This table proves by authentic statistics that the actual expenses of the Government last year, apart from the interest on the debt, pensions, and other expenditures growing out of the war, are but six millions more than the aggregate expenses for 1860, under a Democratic administration.

Mr. Greeley's wonderful hold upon the affections and confidence of Republicans is well illustrated by the fact that 280 country Republicans newspapers, only twelve adverse to his claims for the Presidency.

These figures for 1871 exclude what may be termed war expenses, interest on debt, pensions, &c., as well as two or three other small items not properly chargeable to the present Administration, but they do not exclude the permanent outlays for public works, including the items deducted in the table of 1860.

Mr. Daves has compiled his figures from the official records, and all his figures, including the items deducted, are given with the utmost fulness in the Globe of June 5. The opposition papers have thus had a week in which to examine and refute them, but so far have been unable even to explain them.

The fact remains, and it must be said, that notwithstanding the great inflation of prices, which largely enhances the cost of everything, from labor to land, the ordinary current expenses of the Government are very much less per head now than they were before since 1840.

The new postal law makes many changes of great interest in existing postal regulations. The most important is the authorization of the one-cent postal card for correspondence or for small matter, similar to those which were introduced in Great Britain some years since.

The price of the card stamp will be one cent, although the card itself is manufactured by private parties, and the Government is to receive a three-cent postage will be the postage on circulars, letters, &c., which under the law now costs for every four ounces or less. The change is now in force. The change is now in force. The change is now in force.

Mr. Greeley, when he heard of the nomination of Senator Wilson, is credited with the observation that "it is a hard team to beat." The World, as if by a coincidence, makes use of almost a similar expression, but it adds, "his eye never be beaten with Horace Greeley."

The sugar refiners of New York and Brooklyn have decided to suspend operations and have recalled their available stocks to keep the market from cornering. Prices have advanced a half to one cent per pound.

The Stokes trial was put down for yesterday (Wednesday). It would be strange, however, if he should be brought to trial.

Secretary Stanton and General Grant.

Mr. Sumner opens his indictment of the President with the statement of an opinion which he says Mr. Stanton expressed to him within a month of his death. Mr. Sumner called upon the Secretary, and Mr. Stanton said to him that it had been his official duty to study the President, and that he could not govern the country. Mr. Sumner reminded him that he had nevertheless supported him for the Presidency. But he says that Mr. Stanton replied: "I spoke, but I never introduced the name of General Grant. I spoke for the Republican party and the Republican cause."

This is a point to be settled by reference to the reports of the time Mr. Stanton did not make many speeches, and the most important was at Steubenville, Ohio, on the 25th of September, 1863. A considerable part of it is devoted to the highest personal eulogy of General Grant.

Yet Mr. Sumner says that Mr. Stanton told him that he did not mention General Grant's name in any speech.

"The history of Grant," says the Secretary in that speech, "is known to you and to the whole world." And after briefly sketching his career, he adds: "And now I ask what reason has any man to vote against General Grant? His capacity and integrity for civil administration were equally manifest in the vast territories in which he operated." And he ends the speech by saying, "The election of Grant and Colfax and a Republican Congress will be a crowning blessing to you and your posterity forever."

Yet Mr. Sumner says that Mr. Stanton told him that he did not mention General Grant's name in any speech.

The alternative is unavoidable—Either Mr. Stanton's rapidly failing health had destroyed his mental faculties, or Mr. Sumner's recollection of the conversation is inaccurate. In either case the shaft falls harmless from the President.

Mr. Greeley's wonderful hold upon the affections and confidence of Republicans is well illustrated by the fact that 280 country Republicans newspapers, only twelve adverse to his claims for the Presidency.

It is impossible as yet to say what will be done with the Alabama claims. The Tribunal is yet in session and the question of adjournment has not been agreed upon. It is understood that our Government will oppose the adjournment, so it should.

Great Indian Raid into Texas.

St. Louis, June 28.—Information has reached here that a body of Indians variously estimated at from three to ten thousand, have made a raid into Texas and are over-running Young, Jack, Denton and Parker counties. The Indians announced their intention of proceeding to Huntsville to release Santana and Big Tree, imprisoned there. It is reported that all the Indians on the Fort Sill reservation are on the war path.

Already two fights have occurred near Weatherford, in which four whites were wounded and two Indians killed. Two Indians were captured and imprisoned.

Well informed Texans believe a big Indian war is imminent. The Kiawes are supposed to be the leaders of the raid, assisted by the Apaches and others.

Many of the settlers are leaving their homes in alarm. There was no six o'clock session of the Council up to last Thursday. It is reported that Gen. Augur has telegraphed for two more regiments of cavalry to report at the point threatened by the raiders.

Locomotive Explosion.

One Man Killed and Two Seriously Injured Saturday, just west of Hornsville, occurred one of those disastrous accidents that are past finding out. No. 1, the train leaving here at 2:25 p. m., left Hornsville on time, and when a few miles out, and while still in motion, exploded the boiler of her engine. The fireman was instantly killed, and a stranger riding on the engine was mangled or less injured, though not so badly but that he will recover. The baggage car was split in two, one side of it falling upon one side of the track the other on the other, the baggage car was severely jammed but not seriously injured. The name of the fireman who was killed, was John Miller, the engineer Jacob Thompson, and the passenger on the engine John D. Robinson. A lady passenger is slightly injured. No other injuries are reported to the cars or passengers, the cars not even leaving the track.—Elmira Ad.

The engineer, Thompson, died on Sunday night.

Alfred University Commencement.

The Anniversaries at Alfred will commence this year on Monday July 1st, and continue until Thursday afternoon. Monday afternoon and evening and Tuesday will be occupied by Sessions of the four Literary Societies. On Tuesday evening Eliza Barrett will deliver an address before the Societies.

The triennial meeting of the Alumni will take place on Wednesday the 3d, and with its various exercises will occupy the whole day and evening. Numerous of the former professors and students of the institution have given notice that they shall attend this meeting, and a good time is expected. Commencement Exercises Thursday. Visitors will find ample accommodations for their convenience and comfort.

In this age of scepticism, facts are required to inspire confidence in the minds of the people; but, with good inducements, they are willing to test any article claiming extraordinary merit. The proprietors of Hall's Vegetable Sillian Hair Renewer offer the following indorsement of the merits claimed by them for their preparation, by the Pittsburg, Pa., Christian Advocate; viz., "The public have so often been deceived by the use of worthless preparations for the hair, that an article of this kind, to gain their favor and secure their patronage, must possess real merit. We are glad to assure our readers that Hall's Vegetable Sillian Hair Renewer is meeting with the success which its merits so justly deserve; and we have reliable evidence, that it will perform all that is claimed for it, in restoring gray hair to its natural color, and, as a permanent dressing, is unsurpassed."
