Postal Rates to Be Raised January Next

Rushed through Congress on the last day a $125,000,000 boost in postal rates will become effective January 1 next.

Made partially to cover a $200,000,000 increase in mail carriers' wages, the revision leaves the 3-cent letter rate, the 1-cent postcard and second class rates unchanged. Parcel post rates, however, are increased 28 per cent, and charges will be higher on practically all other services.

Fees for money orders COD, insurance and registry service also are higher.
