Republican National Nominations

FOR PRESIDENT, OLYSSES S. GRANT, of Illinois.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, HENRY WILSON, of Massachusetts.

The Georgia Democratic Convention met at Atlanta yesterday and elected delegates at large to the National Convention.

A dispatch from San Francisco states that the second trial of Mrs. Fair is postponed until the first Monday in September.

"Let us clasp hands across the bloody chasm that has divided us too long and elect a Liberal Republican President," says Mr. Greeley.

The man with the iron jaw lives in Taunton. He takes a thick, heavy flint glass tumbler and bites large pieces out of it with perfect ease.

August Belmont says the Democracy must endorse Greeley or die. An African clergyman, in a fervid sermon, once exclaimed: "Bredrin—Dah is too good; do one leads to perdition, and do other to damnation; which will you take?"

The Tribune announces with joy and exultation that Mr. Mungen, formerly a Democratic Congressman from Ohio, has come out for Mr. Greeley.

The Governor on Thursday last sent to the Senate the following appointments for confirmation, to be commissioners to propose amendments to the State Constitution.

First Judicial District—John D. Van Buren, Augustus Schell, Geo. Opdyke, and John J. Townsend. Second District—Erastus Brooks, John J. Armstrong, O. Cloze, and B. D. Silliman.

Third District—W. Cassidy, G. C. Bardett, R. H. Prugn, C. L. Tracy. Fourth District—A. B. Waldo, J. W. Jackson, James M. Dudley, E. W. Foster.

The Case in a Nutshell. Why do Democrats support Mr. Greeley? The Tribune tells us because they have suddenly and wondrously become the advocates of "freedom."

Vetoed.

The bill passed by the Legislature requiring notices of citation to next of kin in case of estate, to be published in the papers where the deceased resided, instead of the State paper as heretofore, has been vetoed by Governor Hoffman.

We cannot help but to censure the official integrity of the chief executive of this State, when such a flagrant case is brought before the attention of the public as his withholding his executive sanction from the bill which provided for the publication of citations in the papers published in the counties in which such citations are issued.

This is a matter of public importance and a demand was made for a change. New York, we believe, is the only State where the law has not been changed, and had we had an official who had any honor or integrity about him it would have been done away with here.

We would call the attention of everybody to letters on our first page this week from Anthony Alliance and Wm. H. Draper, members of the Liberal Republican National Committee.

Treaty of Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—When the information was received last week that the Geneva Tribunal had decided that the claims for indirect damages could not come before the arbitrators, gentlemen occupying high official positions here considered that this was in effect a settlement of the question and terminated the pending negotiations relative to the additional article to the treaty of Washington.

This view, however, was based on the supposition that the decision was to be formally announced at a subsequent meeting. It will be in accordance with the repeatedly declared position of this government, namely, that those claims would not be withdrawn, and that they were presented not as claims for which a specific demand was made, but no losses and injuries consequent upon the acts complained of, and necessarily to be taken into equitable consideration in the settlement and adjudication of differences submitted to the tribunal, or in the diplomatic language used, "the decision of what was equitable in the premises, the United States sincerely and without reservation surrender to the arbitrator designated by the treaty."

The additional article to the treaty of Washington, as just published, is imperfect, the following paragraph having been accidentally omitted, viz: "Whereas, the government of the United States has consented that said indirect claims were included in the treaty," &c.

The following in the vote on the adoption of the amended article: Yes—Senators Alcorn, Anthony, Bayard, Boreman, Buckingham, Caldwell, Cameron, Chandler, Clayton, Craigie, Ferry of Conn., Ferry of Mich., Flanagan, Frelinghuysen, Gilbert, Hamilton of Md., Hamlin, Harlin, Hill, Hitchcock, Johnson, Kellogg, Logan, Morrill of Me., Morrill of Vt., Morton, Pratt, Ramsey, Ransom, Schurz, Sont, Sherman, Stockley, Vickers, West, Winham, Windom and Wright—43.

Nays—Senators Casserly, Corbett, Davis of W. Va., Edmunds, Hamilton of Tenn., Kelly, Sumner and Tipton—8. Absent or not voting—Senators Ames, Blair, Brownlow, Carpenter, Cole, Conkling, Cooper, Davis of Kentucky, Fenton, Goldthwait, Howe, Lewis, Osborn, Rice, Robertson, Salisbury, Sawyer, Spencer, Sprague, Stevenson, Stewart, Thurman and Trumbull—23.

This is what Mr. Greeley said of the Grant Brown and Carl Schurz bolt in Missouri in Nov., 1870: "The Missouri bolt was arranged in Washington last winter and then proclaimed in the free-trade organs. The game was to get a minority of the Republicans to unite with all the Democrats and revolutionize the State. To this end an issue on enfranchisement was indispensable. The Democrats were not all free-traders but they all wanted the rebels enfranchised and would vote any ticket to secure that end. The Republicans were divided on enfranchisement, some believing that the time for it had come, others that it had not. When therefore Carl Schurz in a bullying, irritating speech insisted that the Republican Convention should make enfranchisement a plank of its platform the answer was obvious: "You ask us to assert a falsehood; namely, that we are all in favor of enfranchisement when some of us are not." The Republicans adopted a platform which left every one free to vote for or against enfranchisement as he judged best. Hereupon the predetermined bolt was made. We warn the Republicans that the present vote is a sham; that enfranchisement was certain to be carried anyhow; that the real object of the bolt was to hand the State over to sham Democracy and free trade. And that is the naked truth."

Anti-Greeley Movement. New York, June 26.—The following call was issued here to-day: "A conference having been had on the part of many Democrats of the city and State of New York, who are opposed to the nomination of Horace Greeley at Baltimore, and who will not support him if nominated, to take such measures as principle, duty and self-respect demand; in view of such event it is deemed the most practicable method of giving expression to such opposition to invite all Democrats in every part of the Union, who are willing to co-operate in such a movement and can reasonably attend, to be present at Baltimore on the 8th of July, to confer together and take such action as then may be deemed advisable."

It was a common remark among the colored delegates at Philadelphia: "If Mr. Greeley had his way, the Southern States would have been suffered to go out of the Union and we should still have been in slavery." Could fewer words express the average estimate of Mr. Greeley's untrustworthiness?

Fearful Accident on the Grand Trunk Railroad.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., June 22.—The noon express went past this place at 12:20 this morning full of passengers. Among the number were many ministers of the English Church en route homeward from the Synod of Toronto.

About eleven miles below Belleville the engine jumped the track, carrying death and fearful torture to scores of passengers in the forward cars. The baggage car remained on the track and telescoped the smoking and second-class passenger car, tearing them on top of the engine exposed to the escaping steam from the boiler. Here the poor creatures were hopelessly pinned in for some time, breathing vapors of death and suffering all the agony of immersion into a boiling cauldron of superheated water.

Mr. R. M. Roddy, an eye witness, says that immediately after the accident he went to the second-class car. It and the smoking car were telescoped and on the locomotive, the steam was so dense that he could see nothing. One after another of the scalded victims were crawling from the openings. Crowlers were immediately put into requisition by the passengers from the first-class cars, all of whom escaped unhurt, and openings were made—Many were found entangled and were extricated with the utmost difficulty, timbers having to be broken.

Five persons were found dead and were carried to the roadside, where the wounded lay for nearly three hours in the utmost agony. Dr. Burdett, of Belleville, arrived at this time and had them removed to a Pullman car. On their arrival here everything was promptly done to allay their sufferings. Medical men of the town were summoned, mattresses procured, and a large freight shed turned into a temporary hospital, where the patients received every possible attention. The sight was one to baffle description. The terrible cries of the sufferers rent the ears of the lookers-on, who made every possible effort to grant their requests for water and food, and their condition under the influence of their terrible injuries was fearful to witness, whilst prayers and cries of premonition of approaching dissolution, were here and there heard. After the injured arrived here, some some of them died. Sixty-five men and women were fearfully scalded and otherwise injured, six of whom died on the spot and their bodies were brought to this place. Four more have died and others are dying every hour. Not more than one-third of the injured will live.

John Hibbert, the engineer, was instantly killed, and the fireman badly injured. One of his legs will have to be amputated. H. Nelson, the conductor, and other train hands, escaped uninjured. The wounded and dying are lying stretched on mattresses on the floor of the freight shed, so much disfigured as to be unrecognizable. Five of the wounded, who were able to walk, left by the express train at 11 a. m. for Toronto.

Evening.—Since the report sent this afternoon, twelve more of the injured by the railroad disaster have died, making twenty-three dead now, and others dying. Medical men say that not more than six or seven of the sixty-five injured persons will live. The suffering and appearance of the wounded is frightful. The killed and wounded are all second-class passengers. The first class all escaped uninjured.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills. For the relief and cure of all disorders of the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild and efficient purgative. Being purely vegetable, they do not hurt the system, and are perfectly safe in all cases. Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Pill, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure: For Constipation or Indigestion, Headaches, Languor, and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action. For Bilious Complaint and the various symptoms, Bilious Headaches, Sick Headaches, Flatulency or Green Stools, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action, or remove the morbid cause. For Dyspepsia or Stomach Troubles, but only after the morbid cause has been removed. For the Obstruction of the Gall Bladder, the Bile, Mucous, and Livers, they should be judiciously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these Pills make him feel decidedly better. For Dropsy and Rheumatic Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge. For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, to produce the desired effect by osmotic action. For Hemorrhoids, Piles, and other hemorrhoidal affections, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge. For Dropsy and Rheumatic Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.
