Vacation Bible School Well Attended

An enrollment of well over a hundred was in sight for the first week of the Vacation Bible School sponsored by the Protestant churches of Andover. Attendance Monday was 88 and Tuesday increased to 102 with some absences due to swimming class in Wellsville and the inevitable minor sicknesses.

The Primary department grades one through three, was largest. Meeting in the Methodist church under the direction of Miss Carol Walton were 38 children. Mrs. Carl Keil and Miss Anna Marie Green were assisting with this group.

Kindergarten boys and girls met at the Presbyterian church with Miss Margaret Grossman supervising and Mrs. Helen Dunham, Mrs. Glenn Ruger, Mrs. Hervey Thorne and Miss Lois Honegger. Their enrollment was 31.

According to plans previously announced, the Junior department was divided with the fourth grade people meeting in the Seventh Day Baptist church under the leadership of Mrs. Harriet Schwarzenbach assisted by Mrs. George Reil. Rev. Eugene Hoyt is teaching the fifth and sixth grades at the Baptist church with the assistance of Mrs. Hoyt in music. Enrollment for these two groups totalled 25 and in the Intermediate class led by Rev. Raymond Taylor there were eight who met in the Methodist manse and in the church sanctuary.

Frank Burrows has organized the transportation with the help of Mrs. Arthur Genung, Everett N. Clair, R. J. Sootheran, Rev. Albert N. Rogers, and Mr. Hoyt and Mr. Taylor. Cars are picking up pupils and teachers on Pingrey Hill, Greenwood Hill and Independence, and in Elm Valley, East Valley and Shovel Hollow.

The school will continue thru next week and pupils will be permitted to enroll on Monday for the second half of the period.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Thursday, July 8th with open house at their home on Davis Hill in the afternoon and evening.

Approximately 100 relatives and friends called at the Slocum home to congratulate them on this occasion. Mrs. Harry Lynton and Mrs. Mabel Halsey poured at the tea table which was centered by a large four-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Bobbie Slocum, a granddaughter, rendered several selections.

Miss Beula Henderson and Floyd Slocum were married at the Andover Methodist parsonage by Rev. W. B. Wagoner July 8, 1898, with Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Slocum their attendants. They have always lived in this area, where Mr. Slocum has worked at the carpenter trade and farming.

They have a daughter, Mrs. Barney Schreiner of Wellsville, a son, Clyde L. Slocum of Trumansburg; four grandchildren, Kathleen Slocum Alexander, William and James Schreiner and Eugene F. Slocum, and two great-grandchildren, Mary Alexander and Kristi Ellen Slocum. Another daughter, Glenola, died in infancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Slocum are both in good health and able to carry on their usual activities.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Slocum of Rahway, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Guinn of Port Jervis; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kronk of Interlaken; Myron Kronk, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Slocum, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Slocum and daughter Kristi, Mrs. Julia Wilcox of Trumansburg; Mrs. William Grossman and son of Houston, Texas; Miss Marilyn McQueen of Allentown; Mrs. Laura Holbert of Almond; Mrs. Nellie Spencer and Mrs. Nellie Brague of Alfred Station; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zurfluh of Ridgeway, Pa.; Mrs. Marcus Scheumann of Cincinnati, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Barney Schreiner and sons William and James and Mrs. Kathleen Alexander and daughter Mary of Wellsville.

There were four generations present from each side of Mr. and Mrs. Slocum's family.

Honored on 88th Birthday

Mrs. Elizabeth Regan entertained at dinner Sunday, in honor of her mother, Mrs. E. Gallagher who celebrated her 88th birthday that day. Those from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lester Regan of Rochester, D. H. Mulcahy of Wellsville and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Gallagher of Hornell.
