...Assembly, do enact as follows:

...Blossburg Coal Company, the successors and assigns of the "Blossburg Coal Mining and Railroad Company," a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to hold real estate for the purpose of its business.

Passed April 10, 1872.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Blossburg Coal Company, its successors and assigns of the "Blossburg Coal Mining and Railroad Company," a corporation of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, is hereby entitled to all the rights and privileges granted to said Bloss Coal Mining and Railroad Company, by chapter fifty four, of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty eight.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAP. 48.

AN ACT in relation to superintendents of the poor.

Passed Feb. 19, 1873; three-fifths being present.

The people of the State of New York represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Every person who has been duly elected superintendent of the poor of any county in this State previous to the passage of this act, and who has neglected to take the oath of office, or to execute his official bond, as required by law may, within thirty days after the passage of this act execute and file in the office of the county clerk, his official bond with such sureties and conditions for the payment of such an amount as shall approved and prescribed by the county judge in and for such county, and within the said thirty days, may take and subscribe the oath of office required by law; and when he shall have so filed his said bond, and taken his oath of office, he is hereby invested with all the powers and duties of the said office. And all the official acts of any such person, done and performed by him previous to the passage of this act, are hereby confirmed and declared valid, and of as full force and effect as if the statute in such case made and provided, had been fully complied with by such person; and he is also hereby released from any penalties imposed by law to which he may have been liable previous to the passage of this act, by reason of his neglect to execute and file his official bond and take his oath of office within the time provided by law; but nothing in this act contained shall in any way affect any proceedings under any existing law already instituted or in progress against any such person.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

...lare, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

For building a dump boat for State dredge eight hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

For completing the improvements on the berme bank of the Cayuga and Seneca canal, near Geneva, two thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

Fifteen thousand dollars in lieu of the sum of ten thousand dollars provided by chapter seven hundred and seventy eight of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy one, for building such dam, bulk-heads and other works at or near the site of the present State dam at Waterloo, as the canal board may deem necessary for the uniform maintenance of navigation having due regard to the rights of the owners and occupants of hydraulic privileges on the Seneca outlet. Said dam shall be built in such manner and of such material as shall be approved by the canal board, and sufficient to restore and maintain the waters of Seneca lake to their original natural height, but not above said natural height; and the Canal Commissioners shall construct such other works and erections as may be necessary for such purpose and to carry into effect chapter four hundred and seventy-nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and fifty seven to such extent as they shall deem meet, and also move all bars and obstructions in the channel of the Seneca outlet or river and the canal above the upper lock at Waterloo to the depth required by said act, so far as they shall deem meet. The whole expense not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars.

Provided, however, that the unexpended balance of the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, appropriated by chapter eight hundred and seventy seven, laws of eighteen hundred and sixty nine, for the construction of flash creek feeder, and re appropriated by the act hereby amended, may, in the discretion of the board of Canal Commissioners, be applied and expended as the y shall direct in the construction of any feeders or reservoirs, which will furnish an additional supply of water on the Rome level.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
