Wentworth—Dennis

A pretty summer wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Methodist Church in Bolivar when Rev. Homer E. Cole, pastor, heard the nuptial vows of Miss Helen Marie Dennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dennis of Bolivar and Carl Nelson Wentworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wentworth of Andover. The double ring ceremony was performed amidst a setting of white gladioli and palms.

Mrs. Willis Irvin, church organist, played wedding music and the traditional wedding marches on the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white marquisette, made with tight bodice buttoned down the back, an off the shoulder neckline edged with a chantilly lace ruffle and long pointed sleeves. Her full skirt fell into a court train with a ruffle of the lace extending from the hip line down the train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white asters and white sweet peas tied with a ruffled white net ribbon which matched her veil.

Blue marquisette, made with tight bodice, round neckline and full skirt, with short train, was the choice of Miss Marlene Dennis who acted as maid of honor for her sister. She wore a rose colored halo hat and matching ruffled mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweet peas tied with blue satin ribbons.

Miss Angeline Italiana and Miss Joan Ryan, bridesmaids, wore gowns of rose marquisette made similar to Miss Dennis'. Their halo hats and mitts were of blue and their colonial bouquets were of blue sweet peas tied with pink satin ribbons.

Mrs. Dennis chose a navy print gown with white accessories and a pink corsage.

Mrs. Wentworth wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

Mrs. William Ryan, grandmother of the bride was in a black and white print gown with white accessories and white gladioli corsage.

Dewey Notrhrup, Jr., acted as best man for Mr. Wentworth, while Harold Joyce and Neil McCormick were ushers.

A wedding luncheon followed for 60 guests at the home of the bride's parents. The table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Pink gladioli completed the table decorations.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Canada after which they will make their home in Andover.

The bride is a graduate of the Bolivar Central School and is employed in the telephone office in Wellsville. Mr. Wentworth finished school at Andover Central School and is employed by Bausch & Lomb in Wellsville.

The bride was honored at the following prenuptial events: A shower given by Mrs. William Ryan and Mrs. Kenneth Martin; shower given by Mrs. Herbert Brundage, Miss Barbara Brundage and Miss Mary Lou Brundage; a shower given by employees of the New York Telephone Company of Wellsville.

Guests were present from Bolivar, Andover, Olean and Wellsville.

Home Bureau

Attention, Home Bureau members: The annual membership drive of the Home Bureau will be held from September 1st to September 15th.

The first project to be taught will be aluminum trays. Any member of the community who may be interested in these trays please contact Mrs. Nellie Mead, Mrs. Pearl Mesler or Mrs. Irene Lynch before August 15th.

Plans Complete For Local Celebration

The general committee of the Andover Fire Department and Firemen's Auxiliary for the Andover Old Home Week celebration to be held here next week announces the stage all set for a full week of amusement to all starting Tuesday and continuing until Saturday night.

The celebration will open on Tuesday afternoon when the Eastman Amusement Enterprises opens its big midway at the athletic field with all the rides, glides and attractions connected with a good midway. The company announces 50 midway attractions this year.

Tuesday evening's extra attraction will be a hilarious softball game between the American Legion members and the Andover firemen. George Karcanes captains the Legionnaires while Ex-Fire Chief "Cupe" Rogers will lead the fire eaters. The game is scheduled for 6:45 at the athletic field with no charge for admission.

Wednesday evening will feature a fire equipment demonstration and big Boy Scout parade at 7:30 p. m. More than 30 Scout troops from Southwestern New York will participate in this parade, with music, colors and a good line of march laid out for the Scouts.

Thursday evening at 7:30, an industrial parade will be held under the direction of Andover Grange with floats, novelties, etc., in the lineup.

Friday night the big firemen's parade will get under way at 7:30 sharp with fire companies, bands, drums corps and auxiliaries from this section and Pennsylvania taking part. Awards will be given to the best band, company, drum corps and auxiliary unit taking part.

Saturday afternoon the midway will be turned over to the kiddies as a special matinee with reduced prices prevailing all afternoon.

Saturday night at 11:30 the committee has arranged a fine display of fireworks at the carnival grounds to complete the week's entertainment.

The midway will be open each afternoon and evening and no admission will be charged to the grounds during the week.

The local firemen have spared no expense in arranging for a full week of amusement to those who attend, and weather permitting, the boys look forward to one of the most successful Old Home Week celebrations held in many years.

Local G.L.F. to Hold Annual Meeting Aug. 18

Local patrons of G. L. F. will hold their annual meeting at the Andover Grange Hall on Wednesday, August 18, starting at 8:30 p. m. daylight saving time, Everett Clark, local committee chairman, has announced.

District Manager George Vivian, Olean, will report on last year's operations of G. L. F., and the program will include a full-color, sound motion picture entitled "From These Roots", which depicts the story of how farmers have worked together from the barn raisings of early days on down to their modern cooperatives which they use to secure their farm production supplies and to sell farm products.

Other reports on local G. L. F. matters have been scheduled. Patrons will have an opportunity to discuss G. L. F. policies. An interesting and varied entertainment program is being planned.

Two members of the Patrons' Committee will be elected to succeed Erwin Lewis and William F. Joyce, both of Andover, whose terms are expiring. Floyd Pease, Greenwood, Everett Clark, Clifford Burdick and Howard Green all of Andover, continue as committeemen. Farmers Feed Supply is the agent-buyer.

Chairman Clark pointed out that local patrons' annual meetings provide farmer-members with the machinery for controlling their co-operatives. Local committeemen elected at these meetings not only determine policies for G. L. F. operations in the community, but also play an important part in deciding policies of the Cooperative G. L. F. Exchange system which is used by more than 83,000 farmers in New York, New Jersey and Northern Pennsylvania.

Cabbage should be cooked only a short time to save flavor and vitamins and to reduce the amount of cabbage odor in the house.

Temple, Mrs. Helen Vankuren, Mrs. G. A. Wereley, Mrs. Howard McAndrew, Mrs. George Karcanes, Mrs. Charles G. Lynch, Miss Margaret Daley, Miss Mary Alice Horan.

Dean—Manning

Miss Sarah Catherine Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Manning of Arkport became the bride of Donald Patrick Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Dean of Andover, in a double ring ceremony in St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Hornell, N. Y., at 10 a. m., Saturday, July 31. The Rev. Daniel F. McCarthy performed the ceremony before the Nuptial Mass.

The altar was decorated with palms, white gladioli and lighted candles in tall candelabra. William Loree, 11-year-old cousin of the bride was organist and Mrs. Killian Schneider of Arkport sang "Ave Verum," "Ave Maria" and "O Lord I Am Not Worthy" during the Mass.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white French marquisette, styled with a fitted bodice, with yoke and long sleeves of illusion. Ruffles formed the full skirt which fell over a hoop into a long circular train. A princess crown of lilies of the valley held her finger tip veil of French illusion and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli. She wore a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Mary Teresa Manning of Buffalo was her sister's only attendant. She chose a gown of blue brocaded organdy and matching lace mitts. Her head dress was of matching camelias and ribbon and she carried a bouquet of pink snapdragon tied with pink satin ribbon.

Edward Dean, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were George Joyce of Andover and George Loree of Hornell. Philip Loree and John Weyand of Hornell were altar boys.

The bride's mother wore a gray crepe dress, with white accessories and a corsage of sweet peas. The bridegroom's mother wore a green silk print dress with white accessories and a corsage of sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Maple Inn for the immediate families, followed by a reception in the afternoon for 140 guests at the home of the bride's parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Loree. The bride's table was centered with a fourtiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. White gladioli and sweet peas completed the decorations.

Miss Mary Alice Manning of Rochester and Miss Mary Elizabeth Loree of Hornell, cousins of the bride, poured. Mrs. Leon Loree cut the wedding cake.

The bride has been employed in the office of Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester for the past six years. The groom is employed by Kemp's Trucking Service of Andover.

For traveling the bride wore a brown silk print dress with white accessories. After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada they will reside on Center street, Andover.

Prenuptial events included a variety shower by Mrs. Anna Loree of Arkport, and a variety shower by Mrs. Josephine Albert of Rochester and employees of Eastman Kodak Company.

No Firemen's Meeting This Friday Night
