Andover Junior Legion Makes Good Showing In All-Star Game

Members of the Andover Junior Legion baseball team who played in the all-star game at Wellsville last week made a good showing. Donald Mulconery started for Andover with two triple hits and a single for four times at bat and also was the winning pitcher. Joseph Smith caught the entire game and Ray Smith, Richard Lynch and Sonny Lehman also played in the game.

In the awards presented before the game to participants in the season's Junior Legion baseball, Mulconery was presented the trophy for the most extra base hits during the playing season, and William Dugan, manager and coach of the Andover team was presented a certificate of merit for junior baseball.

Miniature silver baseballs were presented all players on the two all-star teams.

Mrs. Mary Moran to Teach in Canisteo

Mrs. Mary Moran has accepted contract to teach a second grade in the Canisteo Central School the coming year. She will succeed Miss Frances Dolan who has resigned to accept a position in the Hamburg school.

Mr. and Mrs. Moran and family will move to Canisteo in the near future.

Rebekah Meeting Next Wednesday

At the regular meeting of Andover Rebekah Lodge to be held next Wednesday evening, August 18, members having birthdays in July or August will be the honored guests. Members are asked to bring a tureen for the supper unless otherwise solicited.

Hospital Notes

Roy Courtney underwent an operation at the St. James Mercy hospital, Hornell Wednesday of last week. Reports from the hospital are that he is making a satisfactory recovery.

Mrs. Fay Brown underwent a major operation at St. James Mercy hospital, Hornell, Wednesday morning. She is in room 223, North Wing.

Mrs. Frank Maulby returned Tuesday from Jones Memorial hospital, being a patient there since June 16 from a fractured shoulder and back injury.

Andover Firemen's Week In Full Swing

Industrial and Fraternal Parade Tonight; Big Firemen's Parade 7:30 Friday Night; Kiddies Pet Parade Saturday.

With the weatherman giving the Andover Fire Department the first break in many celebrations held here, Andover's Old Home Week celebration is going strong with a fine attendance at the midway set up on the athletic field and good crowds witnessing the several added attractions put on by the Andover department.

Tuesday found the Eastman Amusement Enterprise midway set up on the athletic field with 50 attractions and rides.

Tuesday evening's feature was a softball game between the local firemen and Legionnaires, which proved the most hilarious game of the season, the Legion boys finally taking the firemen into camp by a score of 8 to 4. The firemen's team, headed by Ex-Fire Chief Albert (Cupe) Rogers and the Legion boys headed by George Karcanes decided that this game was just a warmer-upper and Captain Rogers challenged the Legion members to another game for next Tuesday evening, August 17th, which was accepted by the Legionnaires.

After the ball game the midway took over for the balance of the evening.

Scout Parade and Fire Demonstration Wednesday

The Boy Scout parade of Wednesday evening didn't prove as successful as the committee expected, with the Wellsville Scout troop being the only outside organization to appear. More than 15 troops had accepted the invitation to take part in the parade but failed to make an appearance due to threatening rain.

The Dansville aerial truck gave a fine demonstration at the local school grounds, showing the modern and fast method of reaching the top of buildings when the power extension ladder placed a fireman atop the school building in record time.

Industrial and Fraternal Parade Tonight at 7:30

This (Thursday) evening the Industrial and Fraternal Parade will take place with the line of march forming on Dyke street. The parade will move to Main street, to Center, to East Avenue, to East Greenwood, to Main, to Church and to the carnival grounds.

All local organizations and business places have been invited to have floats in this parade, which is under the direction of the Andover Grange.

Anyone having novelty floats or anything to add to the interest of the parade are welcome to join.

Big Firemen's Parade Friday Night, 7:30 Sharp

Friday night has been turned over to the firemen and auxiliaries of this section and Pennsylvania, when the big parade of the week will be held. Fire departments, bands, drum corps and auxiliary units will line up on Dyke street and will move to Main, down Main to Elm, up Elm to East Avenue, over East Avenue to Greenwood, down Greenwood to Main, down Main to Elm, up Elm to Church and to the carnival grounds.

Kiddie Pet Parade on Saturday Afternoon

Saturday afternoon will be turned over to the kiddies when a pet and novelty parade for the children will take place at 1:30 sharp.

The younger generation are invited to enter anything in the line of decorated vehicles and all types of pets.

The balance of the celebration will be turned over to the midway, with reduced prices during the afternoon to the kiddies.

Mrs. Clarence Slaght

Mrs. Clarence Slaght, 77, died at her home on Greenwood Hill at 1:40 a. m., Monday morning August 9, 1948, following several years' ill health.

Belle Boyd Slaght, daughter of Andrew and Mary Wallace Boyd, was born April 3, 1871 in the Town of Greenwood. She was united in marriage with Clarence Slaght Jan. 1, 1902 and has resided on the Slaght farm on Greenwood Hill since.

She was a member of the Andover Presbyterian Church, Anna W. McArthur Chapter, O. E. S. of Andover, Andover Rebekah Lodge and the West Greenwood Grange.

Surviving are her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Marion Streeter of Greenwood, a brother Wallace Boyd of Andover and two grandchildren.

V. C. Stevenson Resigns As County Ag. Agent

V. C. Stevenson, Allegany County Agricultural Agent since May 1, 1947, has resigned that post effective September 1. He will be succeeded by Ira Blixt, assistant agent in Broome county for the past two years.

Mr. Stevenson came to Allegany county five years ago as assistant county agent, accepting his present post upon the resignation of Clifford Harrington. He has made no announcement as to his future plans.

Mrs. Emma Gleason

Mrs. Emma Gleason, 77, died about 10 o'clock Tuesday night August 10, 1948 at the St. James Mercy hospital in Hornell after a long illness.

Mrs. Gleason was born May 20, 1871 at Whitesville, the daughter of Samuel and Augusta Burrett Coats. She was married August 11, 1887 to Wallace C. Gleason who died June 17, 1929. Since moving to Andover from Genesee, Pa., 33 years ago Mrs. Gleason has been very successful in the operation of a boarding house here.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Grant Stevens and Mrs. Kenneth Greene, both of Andover; two sons, George Gleason of Bolivar and Charles Gleason of Andover; a brother, Elmer Coats of Andover, a grandchild, two great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Services will be conducted at the home on Main street Friday afternoon at 2:30, the Rev. Raymond R. Taylor officiating, and interment will be made in Hillside cemetery.

Notice to Ex-Servicemen

All ex-servicemen are requested to report at the American Legion club tonight (Thursday) at 7 o'clock, to take part in the parade here.

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation for the cards, flowers and other remembrances sent me while in the hospital.

Mrs. Frank Maulby

NEWS EARLY NEXT WEEK

Next Thursday being Harvest Home Day, we will print the Andover News a few hours earlier and would appreciate the co-operation of advertisers and news correspondents.

Ryan—Reed

Word was received here of the marriage of Etta Helene Reed to Paul Roger Ryan at Saint Helena's Chapel, Center Square, Pa., Wednesday, August 4th, with Rev. Thomas Kelly officiating. A reception followed the ceremony at the Blue Bell Inn.

The bride was dressed in a white satin dress which buttoned down the front and had a small train. Tiny seed pearls decorated the Peter Pan collar, cap sleeves and the tip of the matching gloves. Her veil of chapel length fell from a small crown of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book with an orchid and streamers attached.

Mrs. Norman Kull, the bride's sister, acted as matron of honor. She wore a blue gown of satin and marquisette and carried a bouquet of pink roses and blue delphiniums. William Reed, Jr., brother of the bride, acted as best man. Edward Hancock and Lee H. Rothrock were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore a cocoa brown dress with a high neckline and a small bustle. Miss Grace Fisher, the groom's aunt, wore a blue crepe dress with a slightly draped skirt. Orchid corsages were worn by both Mrs. Reed and Miss Fisher.

Mrs. Ryan was graduated from Whitpain High School, '44, and Mr. Ryan from Andover Central School, '42. The couple are graduates of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science, '48.

After a trip to Canada the Ryans will make their home at 23 W. Court Street, Doylestown, Pa.

Brother Dies in Rochester

Osmer E. Hall, 63, of Rochester, brother of Mrs. R. J. Cook of Andover died at Strong Memorial hospital, Rochester, Saturday, August 7, 1948.

Besides Mrs. Cook he is survived by another sister, Mrs. Walter D. Gelser of Hornell and several nieces and nephews.

Services were held at the Robertson Funeral Home in Hornell Wednesday afternoon, with burial at Troupsburg.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Joyce announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Ann Joyce, to Charles R. Oister, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Oister of Rochester.

Annual Harvest Home Here Next Thursday

Arrangements have been completed for the 72nd annual homecoming day of the Andover Presbyterian Church, to be held next Thursday, August 19th on the church grounds.

The traditional chicken pie dinner will be served at noon by the ladies of the church with music furnished by the Andover band.

Following the dinner a social hour and program will be held with the Rev. S. R. McKinstrey of Avoca as guest speaker.

Musical numbers by the band, a vocal solo by Miss Phyllis Temple and a recorded address by Rev. Albert N. Rogers are also included in the program plans.

Mrs. Orville Kupp and Mrs. K. D. Bostwick, co-chairmen of this year's Harvest Home, with their committees are working diligently to make this year's Harvest Home a most successful and enjoyable event.

Home Bureau Camp Successful

So successful was the recent Stony Brook Glen summer camp for Home Bureau women of the county that those attending chose a committee to plan for a similar event next year.

On the committee are Mrs. Hattie Fuller of Cuba, Mrs. Paul Regan of Stannards, Mrs. Mabel Smith of Hume, Mrs. Harold Chaffee of Angelica, Mrs. John McCarthy of Birdsall and Mrs. Ada Tracy of Andover.

Fifty-eight women from Cuba, Almond, Andover, Bolivar, Hume, Petrolia, Rushford and other parts of the county attended and enjoyed a restful three days, a considerable part of which went into swimming, hiking and other outdoor recreation.

Some craft work was done, Mrs. Hattie Fuller teaching work on brass plaques, and Miss Antoinette Evangelista, assistant agent, on leather, making wallets and key cases.

Evening programs included singing, games and stunts.
