The new depot at Devidere will soon be finished.

For the benefit of the girls we will state that Leap Year is over half gone. There are 10,000 bushels of old potatoes within a radius of eight miles of Waterloo.

Amelia Stillman, of Alfred Center is teaching a class in oil painting in the village of Hornellsville.

The enlarged city of Pittsburg is to have thirty-six wards. Fourteen more than the city of New York.

It cost the New York 7th regiment one hundred thousand dollars for its little epaulet at Saratoga.

Tom Scott is the most eminent railroad man in the world, and he began his career as a brakeman.

The Cuba True Patriot claims Cuba good for the usual Republican majority for Grant and Wilson.

The Allegany County Fair is to be held at Angelica on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 15th and 16th.

The Greeley and Brown, Liberal Republican Club, at Wellsville, was organized on Friday last week by electing B. Harker (Peacemaker) President. The club is doing in number every day.

The drug firm of Dilline & McHenry, of Andover is dissolved, and the business will be conducted hereafter by Dr. Dilline. Mr. McHenry has moved the Post office to the old stand, where he will keep a Stationary Store.

In this town in Otsego county where a Republican Club was organized with two weeks ago, now has but thirteen left. Twenty-seven of them seeing the trap that they were being led into, with drew. And so it is everywhere.

A country paper, in speaking of the good things in the village where it is published, says: "we are proud of the impressively solemn appearance of our undertakers." A smiling undertaker is a hideous incubus on the growth of a place.

ATTENTION! STUBBORN - An old gentleman named David Rice, a resident of this village, who has been sick for some months past, attempted to commit suicide on Tuesday, by bleeding himself. We understand he cut a gash in each arm, and bled two or three quarts. It is supposed he was laboring under temporary aberration of mind - Anglica Republican.

Here is an avowal from Elder Bezin, of Hornellsville, one of the imbecile Greeley Republicans of this part of the State. At a recent meeting in this village he said: "Let them say they have been a trade. There has been and it is a devilish good one. The Democrats are going to vote for Grant, and we are going to vote for Grant. We are going to vote for Grant, and we are going to vote for Grant."
