The Rushford Union Graded School will commence August 21st.

We shall publish next week Wm. Lloyd Garrison's letter to Charles Sumner.

Our correspondence from Hornellsville was received too late for publication this week.

Hon. A. S. Diven spoke at a Republican meeting at Hornellsville, on Saturday evening last.

We should be very happy to notice the filling up of those little lakes near Ellis' corner. What say you, Commissioners.

A Republican County Convention for the purpose of sending delegates to the State Convention, will be held today at Angelica.

B. C. Cole has his brick residence nearly completed on Greenwood street. It is a fine building, and adds to the looks of the street.

The Grant and Wilson Club at Angelica are to raise a banner across Main street 9x33 feet in size. It is said to be a very handsome banner.

A Democrat made the remark the other day, "If you want both sides of this campaign, read the Tribune for '70 and '72 and the Tribune at the present time."

J. H. Elwell has just received a number of the caskets of the latest paterns, and finished in the very best of styles. He has them that the top are all glass.

In Chautauqua and Cattaraugus counties the Greeley followers are becoming fewer in numbers every day. Cattaraugus county will give a larger Republican majority for Grant this fall than it did in '68.

A new mail lock of a patented device will be furnished in the course of a few weeks to all the mail routes and postal agents in the United States. The department has arranged for forwarding the locks at once.

If you wish to see a sick looking lot of men, you want to take a look at the Greeley Republicans and Democrats, who have shouted themselves hoarse over the Democratic victory down in North Carolina.

We have before us No. 2 of the Weekly Record, printed at Sherman, Chautauqua county, by our old friend and office mate, Jas. B. Bray. It is a neatly printed and spicy paper—a paper deserving of a liberal support. Jim, here's our $.

Town Assessment.—The Assessors of this town give notice that the roll is completed and may be examined at the office of G. W. Estabrooks, until the 20th inst. On that day appeals will be heard at the office of the above named.

Campaign Band.—A campaign band has been organized in this place as follows: W. P. Wood, President; J. M. Goodwin, Secretary; S. W. Bardsley Treasurer. The Band will be arranged as follows: Two fifers, one E. cornet, four snare drums, two bass drums. All orders from abroad will be promptly attended to.

The "Washington Wiggins" Convention at Friendship was not, as far as we have been able to learn, very "Liberally" attended. A. N. Cole and his piece there, and B. C. Rude repeated his principles over again. They appointed their committee of well-learned to the Liberal Democratic Temperance Republican Screwheads Untruthful Renegades Rebel party.

On Tuesday last we received a box from Iowa, addressed to us labeled "Choleric Pills." Upon opening it we found a number of this manufacture, and a letter with words of advice, &c., signed M. A. Green. We shall accept the advice of our friend, using sparingly the last named, and if we find it necessary to have a few more pills, we will send to Iowa for them.

Fresh peaches at Benton & Crandall's.

Come to Andover to do your trading.

We are being favored with frequent thundershowers just now.

The Baptist Sabbath School has added seventy-five volumes to its library.

Gen. Rufus Scott addressed a large Republican gathering at Alfred Centre on Saturday night last.

Corn never looked better in this section than it does now. Wheat and oats are good.

District Attorney Scott has been detained in this place the last two days, trying a lawsuit.

Miss Olive Risley, of Fredonia, who accompanied Secretary Seward on his journey around the world, is preparing an active volume of 600 pages, descriptive of the journey.

Mr. Mark Wood brought to this office, a few days ago, a stalk of oats which measured five feet in length, as it was cut, the head corresponding with the length of stalk.

The LeRoy Courier says that "wheat is turning out to be a much heavier crop than our farmers predicted it would be a month ago. It will be nearly an average crop in this section."

W. D. Renwick has written a letter to the Reporter, denying that he is for Greeley, or ever gave his consent to have his name placed upon a call for a Greeley Convention. Yet Mr A. N. Cole, "truthful Cole," says that of every name upon the call, he had their personal consent. Who lies?

The great comet that was to make its appearance on Monday last, and burn the earth up or tear things generally, or set us over in some other quarter, proved to be nothing but a little blow. In comparing it with the Greeley renegade party, they made a mighty mistake in counting——time.

Mr. C. Huntley, of Cuba, now 105 years old, and who has not missed a single vote for President, voting for Washington for the second term, is now an earnest supporter of Grant and Wilson. He says that he has never felt so much interest in an election before. This speaks for itself.

We have received the first number of the Wellsville Times, just published, to take the place of the Free Press, which has, since it fell into the hands of the present editor, Chas. M. Beecher, been anything but a Republican sheet. The Times is published by Geo. Howe, and we hope the Republicans will give it a hearty support.

The following is a list of the letters remaining in the post-office at Andover, N. Y., for the month ending August 10th, 1872:

J. M. Critter, A. J. Clark, Richard Gipson, Green & McMahon, Mrs. F. D. Parris, Henry Tudman, Miss Evelina Wells.

Persons calling for any of the above will please say "Advertised."

Geo. A. Green, P. M.

"Gen." A. N. Cole has raised the number of Greeley Republicans one in this county in the past few days against a loss of about 25 per cent This is one who Cole used to call "Pious Joe," afterwards known as the Johnson Postmaster, of Angelica; yes, the same Postmaster that discharged a crippled soldier from the office because he would not accept Johnson.

The following paragraph appears in the political columns of our Democratic neighbor:

All for Greeley.—A gentleman from the lower part of the State, who was in the city yesterday, stated on being questioned as to the feeling in his part of the State towards Horace, that he had 500 men in his shop all registered, and to a man they were in favor of Greeley.

The same paragraph was sent to us with the following addition: "The gentleman is a contractor at Trenton, his shop the State Prison."—Newark Advertiser.

The undersigned School Commissioners for Allegany county and the committee appointed by the Board of Supervisors will meet at the Court House in Belmont, on the 19th day of August, at one o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of examining applicants for appointment to Cornell University from this county. The examination will be competitive, and the one passing the best examination in the common English branches, and being of equal physical ability will be entitled to the appointment; and upon entering the school will be entitled to all the privileges of the same free of tuition fee, or incidental charges.

Dragoons Re-Union.

Gen. Rufus Scott, President, and Chas. Harding, of Mt. Morris, Sec'y, have issued the following Circular:—"Our Executive Committee have decided to hold the third annual Re-Union of the regiment at Portage Bridge, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 5th and 6th, 1872. The first day members of the organization ONLY, are expected to be present. The second day we cordially invite all soldiers of the late war, their families and friends, to come and participate with us in the festivities of the day. Speeches, music, a grand pic-nic in the groves etc., will be in the programme for the occasion. Members who have changed residence since last meeting are requested to notify the secretary.

We will give to the person who shall deliver to this office four quarts of the best wheat, one year's subscription of the Andover Advertiser; for the second best, six months subscription of the American Agriculturist.

For the best half bushel of oats, the same premiums.

For the best half bushel of apples, the Andover Advertiser one year to any address.

For the best half bushel of potatoes, the same premium.

For the best specimen of corn of 12 ears, the Advertiser or Agriculturist for six months.

The Greeley movement is on the backward track in the towns adjoining us, and we have cheering news from the northern part of the county. The Republican party never was in better shape in this county than at the present time.

Almond Academy.

The fall term of Almond Academy opens September 2d, 1872. This institution affords superior advantages for pursuing all the studies usually taught in the best Academies and Seminaries. Three regular graduating courses are pursued—the English, the Classical, and the French and German courses—each four years in length. Those who do not desire a regular course pursue such studies as may be suitable to them. A Commercial course has been established, which affords facilities for pursuing all the studies taught in the best Commercial Colleges, at less than half the expense.

Music, both Instrumental and Vocal; and Painting, Drawing, and Crayoning are taught by competent teachers.

A Teachers' class will be organized at the opening of the term.

A fine Literary Society, and a weekly Prayer-meeting are sustained by the students.

On account of the very low rents charged in the village, students desiring to board themselves, either singly, or in clubs, can do so as cheaply as at any other school in the country.

For catalogue containing full particulars concerning expenses, &c., address the Principal,

An Affray in Scio.

On Monday last, the usual quiet of this little village was somewhat rudely broken in upon, by a shooting affray between two worthy citizens, Mr. Sidney Smith and Mr. J. H. Clark. It appears that Smith's wife had been at Clark's house, and some words ensuing, Clark had put her out of his yard, with a good deal of unnecessary violence. Some accounts say Clark struck at her with a club. Smith heard this down town, and at once went up to Clark's house, where he found his wife in the road. Receiving from her a brief statement of the transaction, he went up to Clark's front door, rang the bell and knocked for admittance. Clark came rushing down stairs, opened the door and delivered a furious and brutal kick at Smith, which took effect in Smith's groin, after which salutation and without a word, said Clark immediately shut and locked the door. Smith happened to have in his pocket a small revolver, which in the confusion and pain of the moment he drew and discharged two shots through the door. This ended the fracas. Nothing was injured by the firing except the door and Mr. Clark's feelings. Smith was severely injured internally by the kick, but it is believed not in a way to cause serious danger. Clark obtained a warrant for Smith's arrest who has given bail to appear before the next grand jury. Smith is a very quiet, law abiding citizen but Clark's conduct would have aroused a much cooler man. Clark lives separate from his wife, and it appears that just before the fracas he had forcibly taken his little son of four or five years from its mother's custody. Mrs. Smith had gone to Clark's house to intercede for the suffering mother, and if possible pursuade Clark to surrender the child. She received the treatment above referred to. Clark is wealthy, and of course is privileged to be more defiant of public opinion than a poor devil with only the clothes upon his back. At the same time, the practice of carrying firearms cannot be too strongly reprobated, and finds a severe commentary in the above transaction.—Wellsville Times.

About Local News.—A great many people think a newspaper should have about a page of local news whether anything happens or not. Deluded mortals; local editors cannot make people break their necks, commit suicide, run away with their neighbors wives, or do any of the other exciting things which go to make up the material out of which the local reporter delights to weave paragraphs to be served up each day with his reader's coffee and cake. Furnishing domestic news, when there is none is very much like extracting blood from a turnip. When the political campaign is fairly opened there will be undoubtedly plenty to read which is of general interest. It is no more than fair, however, that those persons who grumble at the lack of local news in their county paper, should stop and think whether they could not have given the editor an item or two worth printing, and if so let them hold their peace, or growl at their own remissness.

William Thompson determined several months ago to abandon the use of ardent drink. So he joined the Good Templars, confined himself exclusively to tea, and foreswore tobacco. At that time he was poor and had no friends—no one to love and none to caress him. Now he occupies a lucrative position on a canal boat, and is engaged to be married to four women. If the story of William Thompson shall induce any young man to follow his example, and to strive like him to win advancement and honor and the devoted love of some true-hearted woman, or six or seven true-hearted women, we shall feel that we have not published this in vain.

MARRIED.

KEMP—BUTLER.—At the residence of the bride mother N. Y., M. Wood of the place, Saturday Aug. 3, by Rev. E. F. Sherer, Wm. E. Kemp to Miss Ilora D. Butler. Both of Andover, N. Y.
