National Nominations
FOR PRESIDENT, FRANCIS S. GRANT,
of Illinois.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, HENRY WILSON,
of Massachusetts.

Mr. Greeley.
Gen. Joseph E. Johnson, ex-Confederate officer, writes in his letter: "Mr. Greeley has been nominated by the party. I sincerely hope every Democrat will vote for him." That is our party. How is it, then, Greeley, Liberal Reform Republicans, that you extend and urge that Horace Greeley was nominated only by Republicans, and is to-day a Republican, and Republicans should vote for him. Both parties claim the honor of his nomination, and both claim him as their man. He is a good Democrat in his speeches, and in one speech he is a Republican. He is running to suit himself. He is just the man for the job. He suits the copperheads at the North, and then, too, he suits these "reformers." The ex-Confederates cheer loudly in his speeches that through the election of Mr. Greeley they are to gain what they lost in four years of war. This Compromise party are welcome to Mr. Greeley, if they can stand on made up of so many contrary beliefs and aims. But the Republican party feel safer in following the leader who, bringing in a safe and sound attempt to destroy our Union, has enforced the laws, and made the liberties and flag of the United States respected. The friends of Mr. Greeley are chiefly those who attempted this overthrow, and see in his election only another means to attain their end.

This is the Way Reformers Reform.

We have gathered from statistics the number of appointments asked for by the loud-mouthed Senatorial reformers, who are denouncing "nepotism" and corruption in high places. It is impossible to get at all the recommendations of these reformers, but these are quite sufficient to show the manner in which "reformers reform." Senator Fenton, in only six departments, has recommended 288 appointments. Senator Schurz, in the same departments, 98. Senator Trumbull, 97. And yet these same men are shouting reform.

M. H. Cross, formerly editor of the Tragedy, has been claimed for Greeley. Here is the way he confirms the rumor. He says: "Assure me to-day that the re-election of Grant would do me to break down on the highway, and that the election of Greeley would put a million into my purse, and I should go out and do what I could for Grant. We who have children cannot afford to stand by concealing to the death of the Republic. Greeley can only succeed by the votes of all those who protest against the dangerous classes. A man of great force as a journalist, he is contemptible in executive ability and weaker than Buchanan in his designs. See who gather around him—the comorants of parties and the villains of cliques! He must not succeed. In my opinion he cannot succeed. I think Philadelphia will do better than last year. We can about 40,000 votes at the primary election in June, under the Crawford system, and we have an exceptionally good chance this year. We have an honest Republican majority of 8,000 in Philadelphia. This city will not desert Grant, though the Press circulates here more freely than it does elsewhere."

Judge Barnard.

The Court of Impeachment adjourned on Monday last. Judge Barnard was found guilty, and removed from holding office. The vote upon his removal was 100 to 97, and upon his charges 100 to 97.

Horace Greeley's Bargain.

Plagues Given to Restore the Late Rebels to Power—His Administration to be Wholly Devoted to Their Interests.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 9.—The following are General Hodge's exact words at the Greeley meeting held in Lexington on the 2d ult: "I have devoted a lifetime to the principles of the Democratic party. I have grown gray in the advocacy of those principles, and each year the conviction has grown deeper that its fundamental principles are the true foundation stones for this Government. I have seen upon the battle field thousands throw away their lives in defense of these principles. The graves of the gallant Southern dead who sleep upon every hill side in the South, over whose graves the night winds sigh, are reminders to me of these principles which still linger in my heart." The second passage in Mr. Greeley's letter means that John C. Breckinridge and other chivalrous sons of the South shall be restored to their former position of power and influence. Looking back upon the once shattered and fruitless hopes of the South, I now see that the equal rights and sovereignty of States shall be restored, and my comrades of the lost cause have not died in vain. This will be a victory for that for which they fought. Mr. Greeley promised to do all he could to do as when we got a majority in Congress; I object to Grant because he is a Republican because he is a member of that party which waged successfully the contest against my brethren of the South, whose errors he fed the fires burning that filled the Federal ranks with soldiers. I have heard it said by some that the Democratic Party shall have no part with Mr. Greeley in the conquest; but I feel that they will not be forgotten. Not only will Greeley not forget who has helped him to his position, but pledges—direct pledges—have been given us by him that we shall not be forgotten in case of success.

Faith and Folly.

We have from time to time set forth Mr. Greeley's opinion of the party which supports him for the Presidency. The fact that the Democratic party has nominated him can not change either the truth or his recorded opinion that "a purely selfish interest attaches the lead, raffish, criminal, and dangerous classes to the Democratic party;" and that if "there were not a newspaper nor a common school in the country, the Democratic party would be far stronger than it is." But it is certainly ludicrous that in his letter of acceptance he should say of a party which he has thus described, that "his grand army moves on to achieve for our country her glorious, beneficent destiny." We had supposed that a party which sprang from the love of liberty, which had spread with the school house, which was strongest among the educated, moral, industrious people, was the "grand army" to achieve the glorious destiny of the country, and that the hereditary nation foes of liberty and intelligence did not become that army by the resolution of a convention. But Mr. Greeley and his friends think otherwise.
