Dr. Samuel R. Scholes To Accept New Post At Alfred

Alfred, Aug. 26—Dr. Samuel R. Scholes, dean of the New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred University since 1946, has resigned that position, it has been announced by university officials.

For many years, Dr. Scholes has been recognized as one of the outstanding authorities on glass technology in the country. He is one of the Charter Fellows of the American Ceramic Society and one of the small group of Americans elected Fellows of the British Society of Glass Technology. Dr. Scholes will resume his former position as head of the glass technology department, and is named associate dean, in charge of curricula and teaching.

John F. McMahon, present associate head of the department of ceramic research at the university, will assume the position of acting dean of the New York State College of Ceramics.

HAPPENINGS of Local Interest

Robert Smith has been enrolled as a Freshman at Geneseo State Teachers College which opens September 12th.

Fire of unknown origin badly damaged the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Westfall in Belmont Saturday afternoon.

Fire believed to have started from defective wiring totally destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tarr near Friendship early Sunday morning.

Albert Rogers and George Hubbell have purchased the Atwood property on lower Rochambeau avenue and will remodel it into two modern apartments.

The body of Pvt. William A. Dyke arrived in Belmont Wednesday where services and burial were held today. Pvt. Dyke, the first of Belmont's 11 killed overseas to be returned, was killed in the Philippines May 1, 1945.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williams have purchased Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rugers' home on First street. Mr. and Mrs. Ruger plan to move to their home on East Greenwood Street which is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Graves.

Cook Academy, of which Murlyn Conde of Andover is a former Headmaster, is reported sold to the Friars of the Atonement, a Catholic order. It is understood that a school for young men planning to enter the priesthood will be established there.

Motor Vehicle Commissioner Clifford J. Fletcher released data on motor vehicle accidents during the first half of 1948. The report shows fewer accidents, fatalities and injuries than in the first half of 1947, but the property damage figure is much higher.

Miss Donna Rice was hostess at a birthday party at her home on Baker street Wednesday in honor of her seventh birthday. The little guests enjoyed games from 5 until 7 o'clock after which refreshments were served and the little hostess presented gifts from those attending.

The New York State Department of Commerce has let contracts for the installation of 90 strategically located airmarkers in the state, two of which are to be located in Allegany county. One will be at the Worthington Pump & Machinery Corp. in Wellsville and the other at the Acme Electric Corp. in Cuba.

Dr. Charles LeRoy Steinberg, senior visiting physician and physician-in-charge of the arthritis clinic at the Rochester General Hospital, will address the Allegany County Medical Society at a meeting to be given Thursday afternoon, Sept. 9th, at 12:30 p. m. in the Bolivar Country Club. Dr. Steinberg's subject will be chronic arthritis, its diagnosis and management.

Director Paul B. Orvis of the New York State Agricultural and Technical Institute at Alfred has announced the appointment of six new instructors. They are: James Wiles who will teach electrical theory; Robert Kessler who will teach greenhouse operation; Ralph Beach who will teach floriculture; Philip A. Smith who will teach farm machinery and mathematics; Dentoz Shultz will teach in the dairy and farm management departments, and George R. Morgenfield instructor in economics, business management and bookkeeping.

Will Reunion Held

The first annual Will family reunion was held Sunday, August 22nd with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burdick of Andover.

Mrs. Fay Boyd was elected as president for the coming year. Other officers are: Vice president, Virgil Dickinson; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Frank Snyder; table committee, Mrs. Herman Snyder and Carl Snyder; program committee, Howard Burdick.

Next year's reunion will be held the third Sunday in July.

Belfast Boasts New Street Signs

New street signs have been erected at most intersections in Belfast and those not completed will have markers as soon as the balance of the shipment arrives. The signs have white raised letters on a black background.

Andover would do well to follow the steps of Belfast city fathers in bringing our village up to par with the "larger" places and at the same time give visitors to the "old home town" an idea of what part of town they were in without the necessity of inquiry.

Elected to Local G.L.F. Patrons' Committee

Carl Phillips of Andover was elected and Carlton Green of Alfred Station was also elected to the Andover Local G. L. F. Patron's Committee at the annual meeting attended by 70 farmers held at Andover Grange Hall recently.

Hold-over committeemen are Everett Clark, Clifford Burdick and Howard Green, all of Andover and Floyd Pease of Greenwood. Everett Clark, local committee chairman, was in charge of the program. Farmers Feed Supply is the agent-buyer.

Trout Season Closes September 12th

Albany, Aug. 27.—New York's army of anglers is now heading into the closing days of the trout season for 1948. Except for a few counties and certain lakes, the season on brook, brown and rainbow trout will make its exodus on Sunday, September 12.

The exceptions are: Nassau and Suffolk counties and in lakes only in Westchester and Putnam counties, closing date—September 30; rainbow trout in Seneca, Canandaigua and Keuka Lakes, Closing date—September 10.

The lake trout season winds up September 10 except in Lake George where it ends September 1.

Bass angling, now at full swing will continue in most waters of the State until November 30.
