THE POT'S BOILING

This year, as traditionally, Labor Day week-end marked the beginning of the presidential campaign fire. There will now be little rest for the contestants, their more active supporters, or the public until after November 2nd.

The purpose of the two month's political slugfest to which we Americans are treated every four years, ostensibly is to give us all the facts so that we can vote "on the record." We can expect, however, along with the truth and the facts, many statements and much shadow-boxing which serve only to confuse the real issues.

So here we go . . . and it is up to us as individuals, to sort the grain from the chaff.

Joyce — Vankuren

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Andover Blessed Sacrament Church Saturday, September 4th at 9:15 a. m., when Helen Elizabeth Vankuren of Andover, daughter of Mrs. Magdalene Jimerson of Wayland, became the bride of Donald Leo Joyce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bartley Joyce of Andover. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John R. Shea, pastor of the Andover church.

The altar was decorated with assorted gladioli and Mrs. John Dolan, church organist, played Lohengren's and Mendelssohn's wedding marches and "Ava Maria."

The couple were attended by Mrs. Bernard Neville, sister of the groom as matron of honor and Leo Fulkerson as best man. George Joyce of Andover, brother of the groom and Theodore Carney of Walyand were ushers.

The bride was attired in a pearl gray suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds, her traveling costume being the same.

Her matron of honor chose an autumn brown suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The bride's mother chose a light gray suit, black accessories with her corsage being of yellow and white baby chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's mother wore a grey crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink and white baby chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Hotel Joyce to 25 guests after which Mr. and Mrs. Joyce left immediately for Buffalo and points in that vicinity. They will make their new home on Dyke street, Andover.

Bloodmobile Unit At Andover School Tomorrow

Give a pint of blood to the Red Cross Bloodmobile Unit Friday September 10th at the Andover Central School.

Based on the experience of World War II, the use of blood in the treatment of the sick and wounded has become standard procedure throughout the World. The value of blood does not end with whole blood transfusions. Scientific research reveals other uses for blood in saving life. Whole blood can be broken down into its various parts and medical science has found that certain of these blood fractions, in concentrated form, can be of outstanding use in preventing disease and in promoting a patient's recovery. In addition to whole blood and plasma, the National Red Cross Blood Program will provide other blood derivatives of proved value.

When someone in your family desperately needs blood for transfusions you would be glad to donate a pint of blood. But why wait. Donate a pint of blood now to the Rochester Regional Blood Progarm and make it possible for you, your family and your neighbor to have all the blood they need, when they need it.

According to Mrs. Frank Holmes Andover chairman, the Bloodmobile Unit will be at the Andover Central School Friday from 11 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Mrs. Holmes also says that it is not too late to make your appointment as a blood donor, and if you haven't an appointment come to the school any time and you will be taken care of. A complete list of donors and workers will be released next week.

There still seems to be some misunderstanding as to paying for blood. There is no charge made for the blood—the only charge is for the doctor who administers it.

A telephone call from the Rochester headquarters Tuesday was to the effect that due to the number of accidents over the three-day holiday that this area is now badly in need of more blood.
