

How Jackson married a lady whose husband was still living. She was a modest but amiable woman, and was most devotedly attached to the old warrior and statesman.

John C. Calhoun married his cousin, and their children, fortunately, were neither diseased nor idiotic, but they do not evince the talents of the great "State Rights" advocate.

Edward Lytton Bulwer, the English statesman and novelist, married a girl much his inferior in position, and got a shrew for a wife. She is now insane.

Mr. B. has a large stock of the best of the year's produce, and is prepared to supply the public at the lowest possible prices.
