Truthful Jimmy

Jimmy," demanded Mr. Smith of his small son, "did you eat any of those peaches I left in the cupboard?"

"I didn't touch one, pa," replied Jimmy.

"Then how is it," asked the parent, "that I found two peach stones in your bedroom and only one peach left in the cupboard?"

"Pa," he said "that's the one I didn't touch."

D. A. R. Meets at Friendship

The Masonic rooms at Friendship were the scene of the luncheon meeting of the D. A. R. on September 16th.

Mrs. Allen Barber of Friendship was elected delegate to the State Conference in Rochester October 6, 7, 8, with Mrs. Paul Davie, Wellsville, Mrs. William Green, Belmont, Mrs. E. Lee McDivitt, Bolivar, Mrs. Roger Thomas, Alfred, as alternate delegates.

The group were entertained with music by Mrs. Martz Snyder, playing "I Love Life," and by Mrs. Craig Weart singing "God Bless This Home" and "An American Lullaby."

The afternoon entertainment was climaxed by Mrs. Otto Walchli's carefully prepared travelogue of the Hawaiian Islands, which among other things included colored pictures and a most interesting exhibit of articles which are typical of the islands.
