Steuben-Elmira Presbytery Meets In Andover

The Fall meeting of the Presbytery of Steuben-Elmira was convened at the Andover Presbyterian Church Tuesday with an attendance of ministers and elders representing the majority of the Presbyterian churches in four counties. The Rev. J. T. M. Wilson of Elmira was moderator and the Rev. Samuel R. McKinstry of Avoca stated clerk.

Representing the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education the Rev. Clifford Earle of Philadelphia, Pa., was present and spoke on social action measures being carried on by his board for the General Assembly.

The principal reports considered by Presbytery included that on united promotion read by the Rev. Paul H. Hazlett, Sr., of Corning and that of the committee on Christian Education which was presented by the Rev. William Cartmell of Watkins Glen. Reports were also given by the commissioners to the General Assembly held at Seattle, Wash., in May, one of whom was William M. Stuart, State Assemblyman of Canisteo. The New Life Movement was stressed in all reports.

Items of action bearing on the local church were the changing of the annual pulpit exchange to the Sunday after Easter, and the increasing of the per capita tax. The Presbytery sponsors summer conferences for junior high and high school young people and this program was commended.

Almon M. Wood was designated by the session of the local church to be its voting elder at the meeting. Devotions were conducted at noon by Rev. Albert N. Rogers, supply pastor, assisted by Dr. W. W. McCall of Hornell, who is moderator of the session by act of Presbytery.

The King's Daughters served dinner to the presbyters under the direction of Mrs. Bertha L. Hardy.
