There is an eccentric chap in the control part of the State who sells mustard seed for the "Bloom of paradise." He alleges that the seed sprouts in six days, the sweet fragrance of which spreads over the house the whole year round. He has samples of seed in papers, fifteen cents a package, and plants in small pots, sixty cents each. Each of these was actually sown with a magnificent perfume as an inducement to buy and to verify what he asserted. A great many loaves of the seedling, and only discovered their mistake when the fragrance of the plant had disappeared. - Elmira Advertiser.
There will be a meeting of the Officers and Executive Committee of the Grant and Wilson Club, at the office of Dr. W. W. Randall, on Saturday evening of this week. Let there be a full attendance for business of importance will come before the meeting.

Almond Academy.
The full term of Almond Academy opens September 2d, 1879. This institution affords superior advantages for pursuing the studies usually taught in the best Academies and Seminaries. Three regular graduate courses are pursued - the English, the Classical, and the French and German courses - each four years in length. Those who do not desire a regular course pursue such studies as may be suitable to them. A Commercial course has been established, which affords facilities for pursuing the studies usually taught in the best Commercial Colleges, at less than half the expense.
Music, both Instrumental and Vocal, and Painting, Drawing, and Engraving are taught by competent teachers.
A Teachers' class will be organized at the opening of the term.
A fine Literary Society, and a weekly Prayer-meeting are sustained by the students.
On account of the very low rents charged in the village, students desiring to board themselves, either singly, or in clubs, can do so as cheaply as at any other school in the country.
For catalogue containing full particulars concerning expenses, &c., address the Principal,
192-4th St. C. H. Crawford, N. Y.
