Churches and Societies.
New Good- received daily at Hoyt and Lewis' Wellville.

W neglected to notice last week the marriage of Rev. N. Y. Hall, pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist church at Alfred, to Mrs. I. Harrison, widow of the late Dr. Harrison, of Alfred Centre.

The citizens of Alfred are feeling 20-lorions over the prospect of a horse-racing track in their place to Homeville. We hope they will not be disappointed in their expectations.

By an act of the last Legislature the day of holding the General State election in each year is declared a legal holiday, to be observed in the payment of bills and promissory notes.

There were thirty clergymen in attendance at the meeting of the Andover Baptist Association at Big Falls, Wednesday and Thursday. Thirty-nine of them were for Grant—Majority Electors.

Squirrel may be legally slaughtered from this time till the first of January next, when the squirrel season will close.

The Warsaw News Yorker, a German woman named Baker, living on the west side of the city, was given birth to three children—two boys and one girl.

Money can be saved, and a steamer, by sailing at H. K. Ogden's Wellville, for your clothing than in any other establishment in western New York.

How and Lewis have everything that you want and at prices that will suit you every time.

The lightning rod windmills are operating in Ontario county, and driving a very good business at selling the rods. It is a very new thing, and the people seem to be interested in it.

Coal has gone up about 60 cents a ton. Don't wait any longer for your winter supply.

John East of the firm of Hoyt & Burrows, goes to New York next week to buy their stock of Fall and Winter goods.

M. J. Ellis goes to New York next Monday, for the stock of goods. Look out for them.

H. K. Ogden at Wellville, has the best stock of clothing, to select from in the county. Try his, and you'll see.

Mr. Ellwell laid a hen's egg in his office a few days ago, that measured in length 3 inches. Where is the hen that can best that?

We know if you are in want of a good suit of clothes that you cannot do better than to go to H. K. Ogden at Wellville.

The Cuba True Patriot has passed into the hands of the Greeleyites, and the next issue will raise the names of Greeley and Brown, and the banner of the "beast."

J. J. Harrison is in the city buying their fall and winter stock of goods. Every body will do well to wait until he returns before they make their purchases.

Beware!—There is a young man traveling in Cattaraugus Co., demanding of the merchants a royalty of $50 who sell the "gum" fruit jar, claiming it an infringement upon the "union."

Glee Clubs wishing to procure a good campaign song book can do so by addressing the Union Republican Congressional Committee, Washington, D. C. Price 20 cents.

A Massachusetts woman was prevented from attending the funeral of her sister by the arrival on New York of a late batch of beef from the neighbors.

Brother Benton, of the Dnakin and Union, has resigned the position of Superintendent of Indian Schools on the Cattaraugus Reservations, and Mr. F. E. DeWolf, of Wellville, has been appointed to fill the vacancy.—Cattaraugus Republican.

Hon. H. Boardman Smith, of Cattaraugus County, has been unanimously re-nominated for Member of Congress in his district. He is a capable and energetic legislator, and should be re-elected to the position he has filled with conspicuous ability.—Per Tax Reporter.

The Republicans of Coudersport Pa., had a roaring meeting one day last week. Upwards of 4000 people were in attendance. The Democrats had only the following day, and had only a few hundred people in attendance. The Republicans were victorious.

GRANT & WILSON

For the Andover School Examination, etc.
The second semi-monthly examination of the Andover Graded Free School for the current term, occurred on Friday the 25th inst.

Three conversions from Greeleyism to Republicanism have recently occurred in Hallowell. The gentlemen are Messrs. Knapp, Collins and Paine.

The regular quarterly session of the Co. Lodge I. O. G. T., will be held at Hallowell, Me., on Wednesday, Oct. 25th, at 7 o'clock P. M.
