MAXINE BAKER WINS ORATORICAL CONTEST

Yesterday afternoon, Wednesday, December 8, at 2:30 was the scene of the first American Legion Oratorical Contest to be held in Andover. Six students from the high school spoke approximately 10 minutes each by giving speeches about the American Constitution. The speeches were made interesting by their adaptness to the stage and by gestures with which they stressed certain important facts.

First on the program was Rosemarie Baker who kept her audience interested with an excellent speech on "The History of the Constitution." The second speech was on the "The Framing Fathers", by Ann Marie Greene. Barbara Wintemberg did well on a "History of the American Bill of Rights" and was followed by Maxine Baker's oration on "History of the Constitution." Caroline Briggs was next with a fine recitation also written on the Bill of Rights. The last on the program was Joe Smith who gave a very interesting talk on "The History of the Constitution." Although each did a fine job in presenting his speech, the first prize winner was Maxine Baker. The second and third prizes went to Barbara Wintemberg and Caroline Briggs respectively. The prizes consisted of $10, $5 and $3.

Much time and effort were given by these students and Mrs. McFadden, the instructor, before any of them could attempt to give the fine presentations they did.

The judges were Mr. Conde, Mr. Carmody and Mr. Allen. All decisions were made entirely according to the rules which were presented to them.

Maxine Baker, the first prize winner, will attend the county contest at Alfred-Almond Central school on Sunday night, December 12th, at 8 p. m., Contestants will be there from Alfred-Almond, Andover, Bolivar, Cuba, Canaseraga, Fillmore and Wellsville.

First, second and third prizes of $25, $15, and $10 will be awarded to winners by judges headed by Dr. Ellworth Barnard, Alfred University English department chairman.

The winner will represent the county in the Eighth District American Legion Contest during February at a place to be announced later. The contests have the approval of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

All townspeople are urged to attend the county contest at Alfred-Almond.

"OFF THE COB"

Coach (to team): "What would you do if it were our ball, thirty seconds left to play, on their basketball court with the score tied?"

Sub: "I'd move down the bench so I could see better."

Teacher: "In the sentence "My father had money, 'had' is in the past tense. Now, Don, in what tense would you be speaking if you said, 'My father has money'."

Don: "Pretense."

Barney Bostick: "My ancestors came over on the Mayflower."

Matt Lynch: "It's lucky they did. The immigration laws are much stricter now."

Bob: "We've been going about together for ten years now. How about our getting married?"

Lois: "Oh, Bob, are you sure it's not just a passing infatuation?"

"Mary," said the music teacher at the end of his talk on music, "what is harmonizing, Micky?"

"Why, stuff you put on top of spaghetti."

BASEBALL. Have you ever wondered how fast a baseball travels when it leaves the hand of a pitcher? Bob [illegible] has been measured [illegible] miles per hour!

PANTHERS TRAMPLE GENESEE 44 to 28

by Bob Baker

The Andover Panthers turned in their first victory of the season Friday, December 3rd on the home court by defeating Genesee 44-28. After the first quarter the Panthers outscored the Genesee five by a few points each period, to take the contest by 16 points. Dick Lynch and Bob Baker with 19 and 13 points respectively paced the Andover team to victory. Close paced Genesee team with seven points.

This was the first league game of the season for the Panthers and they have another important game coming up Friday, December 10th against Scio there. The locals showed some improvement in passwork and rebounds in the Genesee contest and should give Scio a tough game.

ORCHIDS AND ONIONS

An orchid to the Seniors who have handed their theses in on time.

An onion to the Seniors who are still working on their theses.

An orchid to Darwin Lehman for net talking during sixth period study hall lately.

Orchids to the janitors for keeping our school so clean.

An onion to any student who runs in the halls during the passing of classes.

An orchid to our teachers for taking so much pride in their rooms and for turning out so many clever Christmas bulletin boards.

An onion to the English students who failed to hand in book reports Monday.

An orchid to the basketball teams for beating Genesee Friday night.

An onion to Richard Lynch for failing to give his oration in the contest Wednesday.

ROVING REPORTER

When English class was over Thursday morning I pushed my way to the bulletin board to see the weekly Hi Herald assignments. My name was last of all, opposite from "Roving Reporter". All during bookkeeping I Class my mind was occupied with what question to use. Third period study hall set my mind at ease. Our editor suggested the question: "What is Your Opinion of the New Column 'Orchids and Onions' Which Has Appeared in the Last Three Issues of the Hi Herald?"

After putting a pencil sharpener back together (someone is always taking them apart), I set off on my merry way to see what opinions the folks in the library had.

I didn't get much of a reply from Dean Fisher, John Dougherty, or Clayton Burdick, but they all thought it was good.

On my way back to my seat, with the idea of giving up trying to get a good answer, I noticed an American Observer dangling in mid-air. Behind it was Carl Clarke reading the joke section. Carl's reply was "It's O.K. It's a good idea, I think. It's a column that gives not only the "low down" but also it tells the good things about people."

After I had rested and the girls at the table read what answers I had acquired, I spied "Bob" Carpenter looking lonesome and disgusted. He was doing his English and had been used to "Don" Mulconery's assistance — before Mrs. McFadden moved Don. "Bob's" answer to the question was: "There ought to be more of it—it isn't long enough."

Just about this time I noticed a "flashy red shirt" in back of me. I just couldn't resist talking to it. After asking who was in the shirt Matt Lynch made a special request that we give Ken Nye an orchid for keeping quiet so Matt could read the latest issue of Popular Mechanics.

Who are those two girls up there with their heads together? Guess I'll go find out. Phyllis Burger and Caroline Briggs were doing a little checking on their (censored.) Phyllis gave me this answer: "I like it but it is awfully short. It was a nice idea." After Caroline lost track of where she was, she replied: "The same as Phyllis, only I think that all the Chit-Chat should be written with Orchids and Onions."

Later as I was running down the hall to catch that little Senior, Sara Padden, Mr. Bartz caught me and made me go to the other end of the hall and walk back. No luck this time. I finally managed to get Sara after she came back from Greene's at noon, and ask what she thought of Orchids and Onions. Her opinion is: "It's O.K."

Gazing around in seventh period study hall, I noticed Joan Jackson sitting in the same seat that "Bob" Carpenter occupied in Mrs. McFadden's study hall this morning, cleaning out her notebook. After we pushed back wads of paper, Joan started telling me, a mile a minute, what she had to say. I managed to get some of it. Her reply was: "It's a good idea. It gives us the impression that people have really done something good or bad (?)!"

Well, there she is? A poll taken of A.C.S. students on what they thought of Orchids and Onions. HW

WILDCATS BEAT GENESEE J.V.'s 52-20

by Bob Baker

The Andover Wildcats won their third game of the season Friday, December 3rd on the Andover court by trouncing the Genesee J.V.'s 52-20. Both regulars and reserves showed plenty of scoring punch and scored almost at will during the contest.

Vic Daley paced the J.V.'s with ten points and was closely followed by Jack Wheaton with nine counters. Ron Sutor and Sonny Lehman had eight points each.

The Wildcats will play at Scio Friday, December 10th.

HARVEY'S ADVENTURE at a Basketball Game

by Mary Ellen Connor

Friday night when we played Genesee, Jane, Harvey and I went to the game. This was Harvey's first game this season and he was pleased excited about going.

We paying Mrs. Joyce our 20 cents admission and went on into the gym where, after buying some candy from the seniors, we took our seats on the bleachers.

Since we had about 10 minutes before the game there was plenty of time to catch up on some local gossip.

The first couple we saw were Doris Atwell and Dick Hancock who certainly seemed happy. Harvey was wondering if it was because they were together

"Barney" Bostick looked unhappy during the game. Harvey guessed that it was because Peggy Howard wasn't there. Harvey tried to comfort him by telling him he could still give Peggy those "special looks" of his in their art classes Monday and this did help some.

Harvey was admiring Lois Ruger's new haircut. He liked it so much he wanted one just like it.

It certainly puzzled Harvey with all this talk about Beverly Sutor's future husband. Can any one throw any light on this subject? The last thing we knew there was a romance between Evan Dolan and Doris Burdick but Friday night they weren't together. Harvey has suddenly decided we might have a new romance between Pat Brown and Billy Glover. He is very excited about it.

In the middle of the game, under way by now, Harvey started wondereing what Mary Brown will do when she doesn't have anything left to complain about in gym class. Maybe she'll start at the first complaint and go through them again.

Harvey, and everyone else, was very sorry to see Beverly Hackett couldn't attend the game because of an operation in the Hornell hospital, but we hope that by the next game she will be there, cheering for the team.

Gloria Clair sat with us and we didn't see anyone sock her in the jaw. What then was the cause of the swollen jaw, Gloria? Harvey told me it was a bad tooth, is that right?

Joyce Linza must have forgotten a cheer, she didn't do it with the other girls.

By way of the grape vine Harvey and I heard that two of our senior girls are getting their diamonds before too long! Best of luck from Harvey and all of the girls.

The seniors can't agree on what kind of a Christmas dance they want. Most of them, however, want a round and square.

Well, what ever you choose Harvey hopes it's a big success.

Harvey hasn't been hearing anything from the two old romances of Evelyn Glover and Rosemary Mead for some time. However, at the game it was reported that they are still on the beaten path of love.

The game finally ended with the JV's claiming another victory over Genesee. For some reason the cheerleaders weren't very peppy but may be the experience will make them do better at the next game.

The varsity players came out on the floor and started "warming up" for their game. No one was worried about the game. With such stars as Joe Smith, Bob Burger, Dick Lynch, Don Mulconery and Bob Baker who should worry.

The varsity game went well and when it was over everyone went on his way happy because we had won. Harvey and I went, with the crowd, to Green's and then home where I tucked him in my Latin book once more and went to bed myself.
